QUARTERLY REPORTS.

From the fact that for the term ending December 31st, 1917, one hundred and thirty-one Courts failed to forward these completed reports to the High Standing Committee, it is evident a great laxity exists which should not be allowed to continue, and each Chief Ranger in the order is requested to insist upon this important and necessary duty being performed promptly by the Auditing Committee.

TRANSFER TO RESERVE FUND.

On September 16th a transfer of $10,000 from the General to the Reserve Fund was ordered by vote of the High Standing Committee and this amount was placed to the credit of the Trustees of the Order in the Old Colony Trust Company.

AVERAGE AGE.

With the necessary increase of membership not being attained during the year, the average age of the Order has in consequence been increased, and while it has been justly considered that the lack of increase has been solely attributable to the War conditions which have prevailed, it is believed there are many eligibles in the Commonwealth who are merely waiting for solicitations to become members of our Organization. With a constantly increasing of the age of our Order, unless it is balanced by new and younger blood, it must be expected the death rate will increase and in consequence the number of assessments will also increase. Protection for ourselves should prompt every member to do his or her part in maintaining the low cost of our Insurance which has always prevailed.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

A continuance of the spirit of laxity on the part of some of the Recording Secretaries seem to exist as regards the forwarding to Headquarters of official notices of Initiations, Suspensions, Reinstatement, Designations of Beneficiary, and Acceptance or Withdrawal cards. Recording Secretaries should realize from the conduct of their own office how important it is that we should have a faithful record of each member and in doing so must also recognize the necessity of promptly forwarding all official papers to the head office without delay.

TRUSTEES.

The Trustees have held 26 meetings during the year and have been most zealous in their care and activity in safeguarding the Funds and Securities of the Order. Inspections have been made of all property upon which mortgages are held and in anticipation of depreciation in value it has been insisted upon that repairs would be made and payment made upon the principal. The Finance Committee have made a regular inspection of the Securities of the Order and have found them to be intact.

A full and detailed statement of the Trustees will be found in this report.

THE HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE.

In September of 1917, Brother George F. Dorman, of Holy Cross Court, who was elected High Inside Sentinel at the Thirty-eighth Annual Convention, owing to ill-health and acting on the advice of his physician, tendered his resignation to the High Standing Committee, which with much regret was accepted. Bro. Dorman, while serving as a member of the High Standing Committee, had proven himself to be of invaluable service to the Order, taken a deep interest and doing all within his power in assisting in its upbuilding. The High Standing Committee, acting within the powers of the Constitution, promoted Brother Thomas F. Haley, High Outside Sentinel, to the position made vacant and he was elected High Inside Sentinel, and Bro. James E. O'Leary, Past Chief Ranger of Worcester Court No. 59, was elected High Outside Sentinel. The wisdom of the selection has been made manifest by the work which has been done by Brother O'Leary. Since occupying the position he, like all other members of the Committee, has given freely of their time and thought in every way which has to do with the government and maintaining of the Great Fraternal Organization. The High Standing Committee has held 42 meetings during the year with an average attendance of 76 per cent. In addition they have made 451 visits to 181 subordinate courts.

Our High Chief Ranger, Brother James H. Benson, has been of the greatest value in the spreading of the Gospel of our Fraternal Organization, and the services which he has rendered will long be remembered as among the most energetic and painstaking of any of the honored ones who preceded him.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the officers and members of all Courts in the Order for the many kindnesses and favors extended to me and trust I may have been in some small measure at least, deserving of them.

Fraternally yours,
DANIEL H. MAGUIRE,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

War-Savings Stamps were first offered to the public in December, 1917, and for four months, the plan has been in operation.

Two kinds of stamps are issued. The Thrift Stamp, costing 25 cents, and bearing no interest, is for the convenience of those who are saving in small sums toward the purchase of the larger stamp; and, also, is to enable the Government to use, immediately, each 25 cents saved in this way.

The larger stamp is the War-Savings Stamp which is virtually a little government bond, secured by all the wealth and all the resources of the entire United States, paying 4% compound interest, and guaranteed against depreciation.

This War-Savings Stamp, costing $4.12 in January, 1918, increases one cent in value each month, making the cost this month (April, 1918) $4.15, and reaching, on January 1st, 1923, a maturity value of $5.00, at which price it will be redeemed; the difference between the $5.00 and the price when bought representing the accrued interest.

Thrift Stamps and War-Savings Stamps may be bought from any bank, postoffice or letter-carrier, and in the cities, thousands of sales stations have been established.

Here is a plan, by which the ninety million people of the United States, who have not been able to buy Liberty Bonds, may lend their money to the Government, and at the same time, secure for themselves the finest investment for small savings ever offered by any nation to its people.

Here is a plan by which everyone, rich and poor alike, may learn the value of thrift,—of self-sacrifice and self-denial. The richest nation in the world, we have been the most extravagant.

The tremendous war demands cannot be met if the usual demands of a rich and extravagant nation are to be met as well.

The war demands must be met.

There is only one solution: the usual demands must decrease.

America a thrifty nation, instead of a spendthrift one, will be a victorious nation.

Thrift means careful spending, as well as wise saving.

Save systematically each week; join a War-Savings Society and save regularly.

Remember that you are only lending the money and that you will get it all back with interest,—and with an interest, far greater than that which you will get in dollars and cents,—a consciousness that you have, with the purchase of every 25-cent stamp, helped the men who are risking their lives on the battlefields of France for our freedom.

HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

OF THE

MASSACHUSETTS CATHOLIC ORDER OF FORESTERS

Headquarters, 17 Worcester St., Boston

Telephone Back Bay 6568

Boston, Mass., April 21, 1918.

To Representatives of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:

Sisters and Brothers:—The Thirty-ninth Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters will be held in the Municipal Auditorium, Springfield, Wednesday, May 22nd, 1918.

Headquarters have been established at the Hotel Worthy, where the Committee on Credentials will be in session Tuesday evening, May 21st, 1918, at eight o'clock, to pass upon the eligibility to the High Court of those representatives whose eligibility is questioned, if there are any; but it is necessary that a notice be filed with the High Secretary-Treasurer at the Headquarters of the Order, 17 Worcester Street, Boston, on or before May 14th, by the interested members, otherwise no meeting of the Committee will be held until 8.30 A. M., May 22nd, in the Municipal Auditorium.

Before entering the main hall (it will be opened at 8.30 A. M.), give your Credential to the Committee on Credentials, who are to meet in one of the ante-rooms at the entrance, and they will give you in exchange a badge which must be worn during the Session. Give the number of Credential, NOT NUMBER OF COURT.

BE SURE AND BRING YOUR CREDENTIAL FROM THE COURT AS THERE WILL BE NO BLANK CREDENTIALS IN THE HALL.

It has been decided to give each representative one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) to cover the cost of dinner and supper May 22nd. The money will be placed in an envelope, with the name of the regular representative written on the outside. Be sure and obtain your envelope when the Credential is surrendered. No money will be issued at any other time.

Representatives are requested to enter the hall immediately after exchanging Credential for badge, so as to make room for others and not block the passageways.

The Annual Session of the High Court will be opened at 9.30 A. M., SHARP, and representatives will govern themselves accordingly. The noon recess for dinner will be taken at about 12.30 P. M. Business will be resumed at 2 P. M.

The Australian Ballot System will be used as provided in the Constitution. Nomination of officers will be made before the noon recess, so that ballots can be printed for the afternoon Session.

Three Ballot Boxes will be used for the election of officers. Representatives from Courts Nos. 1 to 64 inclusive, will pass up the aisle to the right of the High Chief Ranger's Station, according to courts, and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the aisle next the windows. Representatives from Courts Nos. 65 to 135 inclusive, will pass up the next aisle, to the right of the High Chief Ranger's Station, and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the middle aisle. Representatives from Courts Nos. 136 and upwards will pass up the aisle to the left of the High Chief Ranger's Station and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the aisle next the windows on the left of the Hall.

The Convention this year will comprise nearly One Thousand Delegates and in order to avoid confusion as much as possible, it is requested that representatives will occupy seats in the body of the hall, and when desiring recognition from the Chair, to arise in their place and state their name and number of the Court which they represent.

The Government control of railroads prohibits the issuing of special price tickets and the running of special trains for any occasion.

Tickets containing ten (10) rides from any point on the Boston & Albany Railroad to Springfield may be obtained at a price of nine (9) tickets. As for instance, the single car fare from Boston to Springfield is $2.59, in buying ten (10) ride tickets, good going to or coming from Springfield, the price is $23.33 for the ten (10) rides, making a net saving of twenty-six (26) cents each way, and from all stations on the Boston & Albany Railroad in the same ratio.

Regular trains leave the South Station, Boston, daily at 8.30, 9.15, 10 A. M., 12 M., 4, 5, 5.52, 7.35, 10.45 and 11.40 P. M.

Each of the above named trains stops at Worcester. The 4 o'clock train from Boston stops at Worcester about 5 o'clock, and is scheduled to arrive at Springfield at 6.25 o'clock, thus allowing ample time to reach your hotel and prepare for the reception to be given by the Courts of Springfield and vicinity, in the Municipal Auditorium, that evening.

Returning, express trains leave Springfield for Worcester and Boston at 6.32, 9.10 A. M., 3.26, 3.35, 5.55, 7.26 and 9.15 P. M.

Fraternally yours,

DANIEL H. MAGUIRE,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

Also by striking out on lines fifteen (15) and sixteen (16) in same Section, the words "High Chief Ranger," "High Secretary-Treasurer," so that the Article as amended shall read:

They shall have power to invest any portion of the Emergency Fund in first mortgages on real estate, not exceeding sixty (60) per cent of the assessed value thereof, at interest not less than the current market rate at the time of placing said mortgage; in bonds of the United States of America; or in bonds of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or of any City, Town or County within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; or in the bonds of any State or City in the United States that are approved as legal investments for Savings Banks in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, subject to approval by the members of the High Standing Committee and Corporation Counsel, or a majority thereof."

"There shall be established and controlled by the High Court a fund, to be known as the Mortuary Fund, which shall be maintained for the purpose of paying to the widows, children, relatives or dependents of deceased members of the Order, the sum of One Thousand Dollars. This amount shall be payable upon the death of any member in good financial standing to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the member, or to any other person or persons legally entitled to receive it. In order to insure the payment thereof, the members of the Order shall pay assessments to the Mortuary Fund, according as such assessment may be levied by the High Standing Committee. Each member shall pay such assessment at a rate which shall be fixed according to age at initiation, and shall continue to be the same in amount and shall be in accordance with the following table:

From 35 to 40 years of age,	1.20
From 40 to 45 years of age,	1.30
From 45 to 50 years of age,	1.50

When a member reaches the age of 65 and has been a member of the Order in good standing for twenty five (25) consecutive years preceding that date of age, the assessment of the member may be paid on application, by the High Secretary of the Order, and the amount so paid be deducted from the member's beneficiary."

4. Amend Article IV, Section 1 Subordinate Court Constitution Page 40, by striking out the word "December" for election of officers and inserting in place thereof the word "September" so the Article as amended shall read as follows:

ADDRESS OF REV. JAMES H. O'NEIL, LL.D. HIGH CHAPLAIN

Representatives of the 39th Annual Convention of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:—

Sister and Brother Foresters; Dear Delegates:

Our 39th Annual Convention finds us in utter confusion of a World-War. Havoc, devastation and destruction cover the European Nations; our own beloved America threatened with devastation. The right to sail the world's seas denied to America. American Ambassadors insulted and abused; the exploited theory of divine right of Kings attempting to enthral the liberties of Nations. Democracy denied the right to breathe; serfdom and slavery under the heel of monarchy awaiting all nations. Such, indeed, is the picture presented to us today.

Our national liberties are most dear to us; they were purchased by the fortunes of our forefathers; they were wrung from King John and the Magna Carta of our rights to have a government "of the people for the people and by the people" was signed, sealed and delivered by the blood of our nation and by our conquering sword. Forget these rights? Perish the thought! Therefore did our President (all honor to him) declare war on Germany and her allies. Therefore are our hearts heavy and our homes desolate. Many a mother's soul is wrung with anxiety and uncertainty for her boy, now facing the rain of fire and bullets on Flanders' fields and French trenches. The whole world stands aghast at the horrors, the devastation, the destruction that marks the step of the Hun, but there is a silver lining to the black cloud. The Almighty is able to bring good out of what seems worst of evils. He, in His mercy, permits disaster that men may learn to lean on Him, to have faith in Him, to love Him, to serve Him.

When one is sick unto death, his heart goes out to some one to bring him relief. Even as the individual, so with nations. The nations were ill, they had strayed from God; in the turmoil of busy, bustling life man had forgotten God; passion, sin, lust drove from their hearts the thought of their God and Maker. Who will say that the war has not drawn hearts back to God? Witness France. At the opening of the war there were 500,000 Catholics in France; today she has 7,000,000.

Before the war her priests and sisters were driven from altar, from convents, schools and asylums. The Image of the Crucified One was banished. Today the priests and sisters are back to their posts of duty and the Catholicity of that nation is redeemed. And so with other nations. We, as Catholics, take consolation from that awful disaster that surrounds us. Our brothers, a thousand strong, are battling at the front, our sisters are engaged preparing comforts and necessities for them. We are not then to repine and sit idly nursing our sorrows; we have work to perform. Our beloved country calls upon us, our flag demands strong hearts and hands to defend it, to bring it and keep it to the front. We rejoice in the bravery of our young men who are doing battle for our home and country. They are presenting a living wall of hearts and brains against shot and shell.

Our organization has contributed $100,000.00 in Liberty Bonds! Our sister Foresters are giving their time and energies to the different Red Cross activities, preparing necessities for the boys at the front. We are all doing our best and praying the Almighty to bless us and send us peace.

But pardon my digression. War is so entirely engrossing us that we almost forget the pursuit of our peaceful avocations.

We meet today in annual convention; let us go to that task and with God's blessing legislate for the good of our membership. All things considered, the past year has been most successful. It has been a trying period for all insurance organizations and all financial organizations are today passing through a crisis. The Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters is no exception. The young men from whom we recruit our ranks to fill death's gap are all at the front; the excessive cost of living and the many demands on daily wages, these and many other contributing causes have reduced our net gain for the past twelve months. We have come to a stand where we must depend upon our women Foresters, and blessed was that day when in little St. Rose Hall of Boston your convention, by vote, admitted women to our ranks. On many occasions has the wisdom of this move been demonstrated, but never so strongly as at the present time.

Your High Standing Committee has worked harder during the past year than ever before; they have given their time and their energies under adverse circumstances to advance the good of our organization. No body of men could do better work or give better results than they have obtained. An experience of twenty years on this board gives me the privilege and pleasure to assure you that no more honest, upright and careful men conducted your affairs. We are facing another year of war, I fear, perhaps more, under the same conditions. Our hopes are grounded on the zeal and labors of our good women Foresters. Shall we be disappointed? Never! We know them too well to feel any anxiety on this score. Deeds of valor and heroism are not confined to battlefields and there is not a delegate here who is not willing to do valiantly and heroically in the interest of the widow and the orphans. We must go on in our good work—to stop is to go back. Our good work must be supported, our youth must be cared for, our sick and infirm nursed back to health.

The world is filled with examples of heroic women. The sheen and glitter of noble deeds done by women gilded the pages of ancient and modern history. By the fireside, the sickroom, the hospital and asylum, deeds noble and sublime are being daily, yea momentarily performed by our women. No worldly glitter of applause greets these acts, but the quiet, unassuming persistence of these angels in human form blesses the world. Such are our women Foresters, loyal and true, and our history is replete with their good works. As we enter on another year we bespeak on their part, and on the part of every member, an increase of zeal in furtherance of Unity, Fraternity and true Christian Charity.

On this day of our Annual Convention we pray Almighty God to inspire and direct us to do that which is pleasing in His Divine sight and may His blessing descend upon us all.

In closing I may be permitted to mention the death of our friend, Past High Chief Ranger

EDWARD N. CLANCY.

A great heart, a noble soul has gone forth from our ranks.

Death laid its cold hand upon him and stilled the noble impulse of a heart that beat strong and true and loyally for his Brother Foresters. May his soul rest in peace.

On motion of Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19, seconded by Sister Margaret J. Patterson of St. Clare Court No. 106, it was voted that the address of the High Chaplain be accepted and spread upon the records of this Convention.

The High Chief Ranger instructed High Junior Conductor, Brother William J. Sullivan, to escort Past High Chief Rangers Cronin, Bonning, Murphy, Dignam, Harrigan, Duggan, Brennan, Fennessey and Daly to the platform.

Brother Bonner of Leo Court No. 5, Acting Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported for the Committee as follows: Convention when completed is entitled to 878 delegates, representing 241 Subordinate Courts. Credentials have been received from 675 delegates, representing 200 Courts. On motion of Brother Humphrey of Cheverus Court No. 6, it was voted the report of the Committee be accepted as progressive.

High Inside Sentinel, Brother Thomas F. Haley, announced that Hon. Frank C. Stacy, Mayor of Springfield, and Hon. William H. Shuart, President of the Chamber of Commerce of Springfield, were in waiting.

The High Chief Ranger instructed that they be escorted to the platform.

The High Chief Ranger presented to the Convention the Honorable Mayor of Springfield who addressed the Convention, and extended to all delegates and friends attending the 39th Annual Convention of the M. C. O. F. a sincere and hearty welcome of the City of Springfield, and expressed the wish that they would find the city and its people of such a truly loyal nature that it would be the pleasure of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters to again in the near future hold their Annual Convention in the city, and expressed the hope that the business transacted would be emblematic of the good work which had been done in all years since the foundation of the organization,—of a most satisfactory and beneficial nature. By his personal knowledge of the Order and the large number of prominent citizens who were members of the organization, he felt positively assured of the standing of the Order as a great Fraternal Life Insurance Organization, that had for its purpose the relieving of conditions which must exist in the family when the wage earner and support of the home had been called to his eternal reward by Almighty God. He was also pleased to note in the list of active members of the Order in Springfield, a former Mayor of the City, Hon. William P. Hayes, of whom a glowing tribute was paid by His Honor for the sterling character and ability as manifested by Mr. Hayes while Mayor of the City of Springfield, as well as his standing as a citizen of the community.

The High Chief Ranger then presented Hon. William H. Shuart, President of the Chamber of Commerce of Springfield, who extended to the delegates the hearty co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce in assisting them in making the Convention being held in the city, one of a most satisfactory nature and expressed the hope that the organization would again in the near future come once more to Springfield for its annual deliberations.

At the conclusion of the greetings as extended by the Mayor and President of the Chamber of Commerce on motion of High Junior Conductor, Brother William J. Sullivan, it was voted the thanks of the Convention be extended to the Mayor of Springfield, and President of the Chamber of Commerce, for the hearty welcome and greetings extended by them to the delegates on this as well as on all other occasions.

ADDRESS OF JAMES H. BENSON, HIGH CHIEF RANGER

To the Representatives to the Thirty-ninth Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:—

Sister and Brother Foresters:

Again we meet in annual session to review the achievements of the past year and to plan for the future. The report that your High Secretary-Treasurer is rendering today, while it does not show that our increased membership measures up to previous years, is nevertheless one of accomplishment and advancement. The year just closed has been one that has severely tried all fraternal organizations and many of them have failed to maintain the numbers held at the beginning of the year. Your order has had a net increase of 499 members for the year and will compare favorably with any fraternal insurance organization in this Commonwealth. Its finances have appreciably increased during the year. The Emergency Fund of the order is well over the mark of one million dollars. The payments of mortuary benefits have totaled $543,000 during the year, and we have been active in support of our Country and our President, financially and otherwise. The record is one in which we can all take a particular and personal pride. Many of our members present here today have missed from their families husbands or sons or brothers, as well as other relatives and friends, all of whom have gone to fight for God and Country.

Over 900 members of our order have answered the call of service, and the service flag here displayed bears mute testimony to their patriotism. Your order is not only sending many members to fight, but you are supporting them well. The sum of sixty thousand dollars of your money has been used for the purchase of Liberty Bonds and over one hundred thousand dollars have been subscribed by subordinate courts and their individual members. The women of the order have brought great credit to this society by promptly organizing and working for the relief of the soldiers and sailors. They have formed in Boston, Springfield and other cities relief associations for the aid and assistance of soldiers and sailors, and the amount of good they have done cannot be measured in words. At our last annual session we telegraphed to President Woodrow Wilson our unlimited loyalty and support. How your deeds are following your words is now being written in the history of your country.

High Standing Committee

The retirement from office of the High Chief Ranger brings with it a deep sense of regret as well as a feeling of relief. The associations formed with the present and past members who have composed the High Standing Committee and other High Court Boards and Committees have developed friendships that will continue for all time. The members who have served during my year as Chief Ranger have been very loyal, always willing to place the interests of the order first, always willing to go wherever assigned whenever it was thought their presence might help. I am especially grateful to our High Secretary-Treasurer, Daniel H. Maguire, for his many kindnesses to me. There were many occasions when it was impossible for me, owing to my place of residence, to be at headquarters to take action on various matters, and he was always ready to act for me and in all such cases did so to my satisfaction.

Deputy High Chief Rangers and Masters of Districts

The order has been fortunate in being able to command the services of so many able men and women to supervise the various subordinate courts, and to them, in no small degree, the continued growth and prosperity of the order is due. The various class initiations have helped in advancing and advertising our order and in spreading its fraternal and insurance propaganda in the past. When normal times again exist, I feel that they should be revived in their fulness and continued for the great benefits they achieve.

Degree Staffs

The numerous degree staffs are entitled to a great deal of credit for the able manner in which they have assisted at the installations of officers and in exemplifying the second degree work of our order. When we realize the time given to perfecting themselves in their evolutions and exercises, and the many occasions on which they are called upon to officiate, all without any recompense except the satisfaction of accomplishing the good of the order, their spirit of loyalty should merit the commendation of us all.

Words cannot express to the members of the order in Springfield my deep appreciation of the aid and assistance which they have rendered to me during my service on the High Standing Committee. It will suffice to say that whatever success I have had was due largely to their efforts.

Delinquent Children

The partial financing of this movement is a work that this organization has assumed and it has brought to the order many expressions of commendation and gratitude. It is one of the greatest movements in which a Catholic organization has been asked to engage and should appeal strongly to us all. Deputy High Chief Rangers, on visiting the courts over which they have jurisdiction, should bring this matter to the attention of their respective courts.

From the reports received at headquarters of the order, it is apparent that many courts are allowing their members to become lax in the payment of their assessments and dues beyond the constitutional limit. This should not be permitted and Deputy High Chief Rangers and Auditing Committees should give it special attention to prevent loss of membership and money.

The liability of an increased number of assessments being levied in the future cannot be too strongly impressed on the membership of the order. This is due to the increased age per member of the order and can only be overcome by an influx of new and young members. If each court could attain a ten per cent increase of membership yearly the prospect of extra assessments would be very remote.

In Memoriam

Since our last annual session the order has lost one of its Past Chief Rangers in the death of Brother Edward N. Clancy at Watertown on January 12th last. He served six years on the High Standing Committee, from 1908 to 1914, with much distinction to himself and with great benefit to the organization. The year that he filled the office of High Chief Ranger, from May, 1913, to May, 1914, was one of advancement and development since unequalled. He presided over the annual session which was last held in this beautiful auditorium, four years ago.

In the untimely demise of Past High Chief Ranger Clancy the order has lost a devoted and faithful member who did much to upbuild and uphold it, and all of us who knew him have lost a loyal and sincere friend. The prayers of all true Foresters are due to his memory in recompense for his services.

I recommend that this annual session take appropriate action for the appointment of a committee to prepare resolutions upon the death of Brother Clancy for our adoption, and that copies of those resolutions be transmitted to the widow and the mother of our departed Past High Chief Ranger.

May his soul rest in peace.

Recommendations

You are requested to give your earnest consideration and, if they meet with your approval, your support, to the following recommendations, which I feel are timely and will assist in strengthening our organization:

1. The work the women have done in this society and the great amount of good they have accomplished in its upbuilding should be recognized. Consequently I recommend that an advisory board to be composed of women be selected from the different sections of the State by the High Standing Committee to act in conjunction with that board. They could be called into conference quarterly or as often as the High Standing Committee might consider advisable.

2. We all recognize the fact that the average age of the membership of the order is rapidly increasing and that steps should be taken to minimize this condition as far as possible. Along these lines I suggest that the admission age be reduced to sixteen years and that a mortuary benefit of Five Hundred Dollars be established. Many fraternal societies have adopted this plan, resulting in large increases in membership. At this time, when our field of labor is limited, I feel it would give a great impetus to our membership.

3. The necessity of special audits of the financial books of our subordinate courts is apparent, and I would recommend that the High Standing Committee be allowed to employ special auditors for this purpose.

I have endeavored to give freely of my time and service whenever the occasion called. I deeply appreciate the responses and results from all courts of the order. I bespeak for my successor the same loyal devotion and unselfish support that have been accorded to me. While I now retire from the honorable position to which you elected me one year ago, my work and interest in this great order will still continue to be actively demonstrated. The associations that I have had during my five years' service on the High Standing Committee will be ample cause for my continued activities for the organization we all love.

Past High Chief Ranger, Brother Cornelius M. Duggan, in the chair.

On motion of Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19, seconded by Brother James D. Grant of St. John Court No. 23, it was voted the address of the High Chief Ranger be received and referred to the Committee on State of the Order.

REPORT OF THE HIGH MEDICAL EXAMINER, FRANCIS J. HANLEY, M.D.

At the Thirty-ninth Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, Wednesday, May 22, 1918:—

Sisters and Brothers:

The usual greetings upon our Convention Day now seem out of place. The horrible holocaust so long raging has fully enveloped our own beloved nation. Many of those most dear to us have gone forth to die if necessary in its defense. Few, indeed, are the hearts not saddened by reflecting upon the possible consequences, few the minds not torn with emotion as the positions of dear ones are considered. The Catholic finds his only consolation in Hope, his purified conception of Faith, and with a great Charity for all, prays most fervently for a rapid ending of this devastating ruinous war, and where desolation and grief now reign that soon Peace will come, and with that Peace, victory for Right and Justice and restored happiness in our communities and our homes.

In presenting for your consideration the report of the Medical department for the year 1917, while we cannot boast of the same splendid success of former years, we do feel justified in stating that under the existing world conditions, with a large number of our young men and women rendered ineligible for insurance membership, we have made a most creditable showing, and have demonstrated beyond doubt the confidence of the Catholic people in the strength and stability of our beloved order.

Our tables of statistics differ little if any from those of previous years, except in the point of increase in membership, and though there has been a marked decrease in the number of applications received, our records compare very favorably with the other fraternal insurance organizations doing business in Massachusetts.

We have lost temporarily the valuable service of some of our local examiners, on account of their enlistment in the service of our country. In every instance where this has occurred a substitute examiner has been appointed to fill the vacancy until the return of the regular examiner.

Our mortuary record for the year 1917 was Five Hundred and Thirty-eight (538), Three Hundred and Eighty-seven (387) men and One Hundred and Fifty-one women, and as usual more than 50% of these deaths occurred in the older members.

Our Medical Examiners have always been of invaluable assistance in aiding us to determine the quality of risks, not only from a physical standpoint, but also in relation to the habits and occupation of applicants. With several of our most careful and painstaking Examiners already in the service, and undoubtedly more to follow, the necessity of investigating Committees and proposers of applicants to realize their full duties to the Order is greater than ever before. We have taken means to protect our Order from hazardous risks of those engaged in the war, but the only means available to protect us against those equally hazardous risks that are not actually engaged in the service of our Country is careful work in investigating the health habits and occupations of the applicant by the Investigating Committees and officers of the local Courts. To call your attention to those duties I quote from our report of last year:

"Each succeeding year we have made a special effort to impress, upon the officers and members of subordinate Courts, the necessity for using at least ordinary care in investigating applicants for admission to our Order.

Our experience, in dealing with the Mortuary statistics of the Order, has convinced us that, were this important part of the work properly taken care of the results would show a decrease in our death rate. We regret that despite all efforts there has been no response. The reports of investigating committees are of no value and not to be depended upon, not a single rejection last year from an investigating committee report, though the above table shows a large number of the rejected applicants who should never have been allowed to go to the examining physician, had those entrusted with duty of carefully investigating applicants, as well as those proposing, attended to that duty properly. It is a duty every member owes to himself, as well as to the Order, to see to it that no one not properly qualified is allowed to gain admission. Your Medical Department is doing all it can and if you will but do your part we are confident the results will prove the value of the assistance rendered."

In common with all Insurance Organizations we have for the period of the war, insisted that those who join us, and are liable for service, men or women, shall sign a War Waiver, thus protecting our members who are now in the field of action, and whose contracts antedate the beginning of hostilities. This War Waiver, be it understood, is temporary, does not apply only in case a claim might arise where a new member joins the service after admission and should die of injuries sustained or disease contracted while in the service or as the result of such service. To the Organization as a whole this protection is most necessary. To the members whose contracts are now even more sacred, most fair. Members should explain this question along lines similar to those outlined, and soon, we trust, with normal conditions restored, all may take up our great work as members granted the fullest protection of this Great Fraternal.

Owing to the stress of circumstances we realize our many difficulties, the very best efforts of which we are capable is devoted to an attempt to solve the ever recurring changes and problems. Our Organization continues to do its great work. The field of our prospective membership is at present greatly limited, yet, with spirit undaunted, do we look to the future. Confident in that Fidelity ever maintained by our membership to the work in which all are dedicated, we will strive and succeed in keeping this loved Order of ours on that plane of which we are so justly proud. Until with the passing of this great conflict with ranks restored, we will all work to make our standard even higher, our bonds of Fidelity stronger, and with the virtues of Unity and Charity, our motto exemplified in tender love, our Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters will be as we wish it to be, the very best among Insurance Fraternals.

On motion of Brother Timothy J. Cronin of Worcester Court No. 59, seconded by Brother James W. Scanlan of St. Philip Court No. 184, it was voted that the report of the High Medical Examiner, High Secretary-Treasurer, Trustees and Finance Committee be received as printed, and referred to the Committee on State of the Order.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE HIGH COURT

Sisters and Brothers:

The Trustees of the High Court beg leave to submit the following report for your consideration:

Bal. in hands of Trustees, Dec. 31, 1916..	$ 881,875 83
Received from High Secretary-Treasurer, Emergency Fund.....	88,595 60
Transfer from General Fund.....	10,000 00
Net earnings from Investments for 1917.	36,656 12
	$1,017,127 55

Invested as follows:

First Mortgage Loans.....	$ 246,665 00
Municipal Bonds, cost price.....	769,215 88
Old Colony Trust Company.....	511 53
Union Institution for Savings.....	735 14
	$1,017,127 55

Of the total amount in the Emergency Fund, over 24 per cent, or $244,686.38 have been the earnings; the balance, $772,441.17, having been paid into the Emergency Fund by the members of the Order.

The notes on the seventy-five mortgages call for $246,665.00. The assessed valuation of the mortgaged property May 1, 1917, was $522,100.00 and the insurance on the buildings amounted to $369,700.00.

The municipal bonds owned by the Order are divided amongst the cities of Beverly, Boston, Brockton, Cambridge, Chelsea, Chicopee, Everett, Fall River, Fitchburg, Gloucester, Haverhill, Holyoke, Lawrence, Lowell, Lynn, Malden, Melrose, New Bedford, Newburyport, Newton, Peabody, Quincy, Salem, Springfield, Taunton, Waltham, Worcester, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and United States Government bonds. The cost price of the several bonds was $769,215.88, the par value being $798,000.00.

The net receipts from January 1 to April 1, 1918, were $7,584.50, making the total amount in the Emergency Fund, April 1, 1918, $1,024,712.05.

The net receipts since April 1 have been $5,764.25. The total amount in the Emergency Fund in the hands of the Trustees at the time of making up this report, May 1, 1918, was $1,030,476.30, invested as follows:

First Mortgage Loans.....	$ 248,490 00
Municipal Bonds, cost price.....	769,756 88
Old Colony Trust Company.....	11,494 28
Union Institution for Savings.....	735 14
	$1,030,476 30

The difference in the mortgage loans between December 31, 1917, and May 1, 1918, is accounted for by the payments of $2,675.00 on account of mortgage notes, and new loans amounting to $4,500.00.

Since December 31, 1917, there have been maturities of bonds owned by the Order, the cost price of which was $4,074.00, and the Order has purchased municipal bonds, the cost price being $4,615.

An inspection of the securities contained in the private vault of the Security Safe Deposit Company was made by the Finance Committee, who reported that all bonds and mortgages owned by the Order were contained therein, and a certificate from the auditor of the Old Colony Trust Company that the balance to the credit of the Order was $11,494.28, as shown by the books of the High Secretary-Treasurer.

The various estates upon which the mortgage loans have been made were inspected by the Trustees, the High Chief Ranger and the High Secretary-Treasurer during the year and found to be in fairly good condition, and we are of the opinion that the Order is amply protected.

Respectfully yours,

PAT'K F. BURKE, St. Gregory Court, No. 24.
GEORGE WIRTH, Holy Trinity Court, No. 51.
JOHN J. LYNCH, Bunker Hill Court, No. 126.

REPORT OF THE HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

BOSTON, March 11, 1918.

To the Delegates to the Thirty-ninth Annual Session of the High Court.

Sister and Brother Foresters:

In compliance with vote adopted at the Thirty-eighth Annual Session of the High Court held in Worcester, May 23, 1917, whereby all matters pertaining to the establishment of a memorial dedicated to the honor and in memory of the First High Chief Ranger of the Order, Dennis F. O'Sullivan, the first High Secretary, Florence A. Lawler, and to the Founders of the Order, were referred to the High Standing Committee, with instructions to report to this Convention, your Committee begs leave to report that for the purpose of obtaining advice and suggestions on the matter, public meetings have been held in various centers and expressions of opinion have been requested from many members of our Order, as to what would be considered the best or most advisable form to adopt, and in response to the requests the most general opinion expressed was, that in view of the conditions which now prevail and the outlook for the future in National affairs, it would be deemed inadvisable at this time to adopt any of the forms which were proposed at the last Convention. Your Committee does feel, however, that the great work which was inaugurated by Brothers O'Sullivan, Lawler and the other founders of the Order, should not be allowed to pass without at least some permanent form of recognition, and in consequence would recommend that the now so-called "M. C. O. F. Delinquent Fund" be changed in title, so that for the future it shall be termed THE O'SULLIVAN-LAWLER FUND, in aid of delinquent children, thus serving as a perpetual memorial to those good and distinguished men whose names and memories would be ever retained in the minds and hearts of the membership of the Organization, and which could be continued by the annual contributions of the Subordinate Courts of the Order, the same as has prevailed for many years past, and thus without entailing any extra burdens upon any member or Court of the Order, the great work of caring for the wayward or delinquent children, inaugurated in 1912, would be continued.

Respectfully submitted for the High Standing Committee,

DANIEL H. MAGUIRE, High Secretary-Treasurer.
JAMES H. BENSON, High Chief Ranger.

On motion of Brother James W. Scanlon of St. Philip Court No. 184, seconded by Brother Timothy J. Cronin of Worcester Court No. 59, it was voted the report of the High Standing Committee be accepted and recommendations adopted.

PRESS COMMITTEE.

Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan, Chairman, and
List of Tellers for each of the Six (6) Divisions in the Hall.

A resolution was presented to the Convention by Hon. William J. Sullivan, High Junior Conductor, pledging the loyalty and devotion of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters to the President and Congress of the United States of America, in the conflict now being waged between our country and the German Empire.

Whereas, the Congress of the United States of America in April, 1917, authorized our President to declare a state of war to exist between our beloved Country and the German Empire, and whereas, because of such declaration the youth of womanhood and manhood of this Country has been called to the service and to the support of the aims and principles of our beloved Country in the defense of pure democracy, be it

Resolved, That we, the Representatives of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters in Annual Convention assembled do hereby for ourselves and the membership of this great Organization again pledge ourselves with all our power, strength, ability, and resources of whatever nature to uphold the principles of this Our Government to the successful prosecution of this war, to the end that Justice shall prevail and that Government of the People, by the People, and for the People shall not perish on this earth.

On motion of Brother Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, seconded by Brother William J. Sullivan of SS. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, it was voted the foregoing resolution be adopted, and the High Secretary-Treasurer directed to send telegram of the same to His Excellency, President Wilson.

The High Secretary-Treasurer read communications from His Grace, Rt. Rev. Bishop Beaven of Springfield, Rev. Michael J. Scanlan, Director of Charities, Archdiocese of Boston; Hon. Samuel W. McCall, Governor, and Hon. David I. Walsh, former Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, expressing their regrets at inability to be present at this Annual Convention of the Order. On motion of Brother Thomas H. Lovett of McDermott Court No. 186, seconded by Brother James L. McCarthy of Cambridge Court No. 222, it was voted the foregoing communications be received and placed on file.

COMMUNICATIONS

The High Secretary-Treasurer read the following communications and proposed resolutions:

That an appeal be issued to all Subordinate Courts of the Order that they accept voluntarily the levy of a proportionate part of a sum of money that shall be assessed monthly, to be collected and held in trust by the High Secretary-Treasurer, who will forward to the Financial Secretary of each Court the required amount for the payment of assessments of members of our Order who have enlisted or been drafted into the Military or Naval service of the United States since the declaration of war with Germany.

This voluntary assessment to cease at the time of the Annual Convention or at the end of the war, should war cease prior to the Convention. At such time if a surplus exists it shall be refunded to the Subordinate Courts in the same proportion as collected.

Enlisted or drafted members are entitled to the foregoing relief only on application to the Secretary and Chief Ranger of the Court of which they are members. The Recording Secretary will then forward, with the Court seal stamped thereon, the application of such member to the High Standing Committee.

On motion it was voted that the resolution be received and referred to the Committee on Petitions.

Resolution presented by Mystic Court No. 77. Resolved, That the Convention of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, herein assembled, realizing the demands made upon the local courts caused by the war, do believe that it would be advisable to discontinue the Annual Convention of delegates for the duration of the war and that the High Standing Committee be empowered to arrange for the transaction of such business as may arise for consideration at the Fortieth Annual Convention.

Resolution presented by Brother William H. O'Brien, Edward Everett Court No. 255.

In order to adjust the number of delegates to the High Court to a reasonable working basis and to annually conserve to the various Courts many thousands of dollars which are so much needed for the various activities of the local Courts:

It is moved that the High Chief Ranger shall appoint from the membership of this convention a committee of six, consisting of three men and three women, who shall prepare an amendment to the Constitution providing for a reduction in the number of delegates to the High Court, and shall submit the same to the High Secretary-Treasurer on or before October 15, 1918. The amendment as presented shall be printed and sent to all Courts of the order on or before November 15, 1918, for full discussion and action by the local Courts at notified meetings. The amendment shall also be submitted to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments for the High Court of 1919, as required by the Constitution.

Resolution presented by Brother James J. Mockler, Bunker Hill Court No. 126, and Brother John J. Parziale, Bay State Court No. 129,—Whereas, applicants seeking admission into our Order under present conditions are obliged to sign a waiver which forfeits their rights as members entering their Country's service.

Resolved therefore that this Convention, here assembled on this 22nd day of May, in the year 1918, do hereby declare that said members joining this Order and forfeiting said rights because of such service that immediately those rights are forfeited their financial obligations to this Order cease; provided, however, said member is in good standing in his or her Court.

Be it further resolved that immediately said service is completed and said member mustered out of service the financial and other obligations of said member are resumed.

Resolved also that the standing of such a member during the interim be that of an honorary member.

Resolution presented by Joseph T. Brennan of Americus Court No. 34.

Resolved, That the High Standing Committee be and is hereby authorized and directed to employ a competent person as assistant in the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer, who shall have full power and authority to examine and audit the books, documents and papers of the treasurers and financial secretaries of all Subordinate Courts; shall investigate applications and claims; shall assist the High Secretary-Treasurer in performing the duties of his office; and in general shall perform such other work and render such service as may reasonably be required of him by the High Standing Committee.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this resolution, the High Standing Committee may expend a sum of money not in excess of three thousand dollars during the ensuing year.

On motion it was voted the foregoing communications and resolutions be received and referred to the Committee on Petitions and Committee on State of the Order.

ADDRESS OF REV. DANIEL F. TULLY,

Director of Charities of the Diocese of Springfield

I come here today to extend to you the greetings of our Right Reverend Bishop. Because of previous engagements he had to be out of the city today and, therefore, could not come himself, but he wished me to tell you how interested he is in the work of the Foresters and how especially interested he is and has been in the work of the care of delinquent children. From the very beginning, when that work was brought to our attention, he became very much interested and at the conference of priests he called the attention of the priests to the work that the M. C. O. F. was taking up and urged them, not only at one conference, but at several, that they would co-operate with the M. C. O. F. and with the Diocesan Charitable Bureau in trying to save the delinquent children. And therefore, you want to feel that thought he is not here today, he is with you in spirit and his sympathy is with you.

I have also come to give you a report on the Delinquent Child Movement. It has pleased me to learn that you have taken up as a special work of the M. C. O. F. the Delinquent Child Movement under the name of the O'Sullivan-Lawler Fund. I think it is a very good idea to have one motive outside of your regular insurance work. There are a great many charitable works that, of course, appeal to this or that one, but we cannot reach them all. It is a very good idea to specialize on one work and make that work a success.

I have received $300 and have spent it as follows:

Traveling expenses	$72 46
Postage	17 01
Printing	12 24
Telephone Calls	7 24
Transfers of Boys to Orphanages	13 59
Transfers of Girls to Orphanages	27 46
Clerical Hire	150 00
Total	$300 00

During the past year we have had 481 boys coming into the Juvenile Courts. As I have explained to you before, I will not go into detail today other than to say that all the Juvenile Courts are supervised by the priests. One is in attendance at every court. His duty is to get the history of that child, to notify the pastor and also the Diocesan Charitable Bureau, which in turn gives a monthly and quarterly report for a year. If the child must be taken out of the community he is placed in one of our orphanages. We have had during the past year 59 boys taken to our orphanages, 59 boys who, otherwise, would have gone to the Lyman School. We take them into the Orphanage because we feel that they are neglected rather than vicious and in nearly every case we have found the home influence is at fault. Bad companionship of the neighborhood sometimes is such that it is impossible for the child to remain at home and, therefore, we give him a trial at one of our orphanages. You might say it is taking a chance, but the boys who come have not corrupted the other boys, but rather the good boys of the orphanages have been a help to the delinquent child. I am inclined to be optimistic about boys. In fact, my friends say there is a brand of Tully-optimism which is founded on boys, not on facts. I had a case recently of a boy whom really I had had lost hope in. A Brightside boy, who if you had asked me who was the greatest failure turned out from Brightside, I would immediately have thought of. Yet recently he was decorated with the Cross of War in France which shows that boy had a great deal of good in him. I can say with pride that, although it is a small school, we have had two of our boys decorated with the Croix de Guerre in France.

I mentioned also the transferring of girls to the House of the Good Shepherd, that is particularly about the girls from Worcester. There is no fund in the Court to pay the travelling expenses and that is one of the ways we are using the M. C. O. F. Fund.

I wish to thank the M. C. O. F. for the splendid work they have done, and especially your High Chief Ranger who has been a splendid help in five years, and I feel a great deal of encouragement in the work he has done for me and his co-operation; I hope he will continue to give me the co-operation that he has given in the past. I hope and trust that the High Standing Committee will measure up to the high standard in the matter of taking up the work of the Delinquent Children that they have done in the past.

In closing I want to mention about a movement that is going to take form in this state. It is a movement among the Catholic women. I am a little premature in announcing it, but there will be a meeting next Sunday in Boston with delegates from the Springfield and Fall River Dioceses and the Boston Diocese, who will form an organization called the Catholic Women's War Service Council of Massachusetts. Their work will be to form Chapters in every city of Massachusetts. These sub-chapters will be formed of representatives from the different parishes and from the different Catholic societies who are engaged in War Relief Work. I hope and trust that every woman's Court of Foresters will affiliate itself with this work. This work is approved by the Cardinal, by Bishop Beaven and Bishop Feehan, and it is going to be far-reaching. We wish to co-operate with the government and help them as we perhaps have not helped them in the past because we have not had an organization. Now we are going to go to its Council of National Defense and the other state workers and committees and tell them that we have an organized body of Catholic women who are willing to co-operate and glad to help in the War Reliefs, or emergency work, and if they wish volunteer visitors in the Civilian Relief or the Red Cross, that the Catholic women of the parish will be glad to do that volunteer visiting. That is very great importance because there is a great deal being done today in the way of war work that we Catholics must be in touch with, that when this matter is brought to your attention in the different towns that every Massachusetts Court will affiliate itself with the city Chapter of the Council and do its share, as they have done of their own accord, in helping the government to win the war.

They shall deposit all funds received by them in some bank or banks selected by them, in the name of the Order, which funds shall be subject to withdrawal only by an order signed by a majority of the Trustees, and approved by the High Chief Ranger. They shall have power to invest any portion of the Emergency Fund in first mortgages on real estate, not exceeding sixty (60) per cent of the assessed value thereof, at interest not less than the current market rate at the time of placing said mortgage; or in bonds of the United States of America; or in bonds of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or of any city, town or county within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; or in the bonds of any State or City in the United States that are approved as legal investments for Savings Banks in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, subject to approval by the members of the High Standing Committee and Corporation Counsel, or a majority thereof."

All expense incurred in the performance of their duty shall be paid by the Court in their respective District."

Presented by Susan B. Mahoney, St. Gertrude Court No. 141

3. Amend Article XIII, Section 1, High Court Constitution, page 27, by adding after the table of figures 45 to 50 and $150 in the 29th line of said Section, the following added amendment:

"When a member reaches the age of 65 and has been a member of the Order in good standing for twenty-five (25) consecutive years preceding that date of age, the assessment of the member may be paid on application, by the High Secretary of the Order, and the amount so paid be deducted from the member's beneficiary," so the Article as amended shall read as follows:

This amount shall be payable upon the death of any member in good financial standing to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the member, or to any other person or persons legally entitled to receive it. In order to insure the payment thereof, the members of the Order shall pay assessments to the Mortuary Fund, according as such assessment may be levied by the High Standing Committee. Each member shall pay such assessments at a rate which shall be fixed according to age at initiation, and shall continue to be the same in amount and shall be in accordance with the following table:

Presented by Bernard J. Brogan of St. Finbar Court No. 150

Recommended for rejection:

4. Amend Article IV, Section 1, Subordinate Court Constitution, page 40, by striking out the word "December" for election of officers, and inserting in place thereof the word "September" so the Article as amended shall read as follows:

The elective officers of a Subordinate Court shall be a Chief Ranger, Vice-Chief Ranger, Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Senior Conductor, Junior Conductor, Inside Sentinel, Outside Sentinel, and three Trustees. SUFFOLK, ss.

Personally appeared before me Daniel H. Maguire, High Secretary-Treasurer of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, and made oath to faithfully perform the duties of said office of High Secretary-Treasurer during the term of his election, and until his successor be installed.

JEREMIAH G. FENNESSEY,
Justice of the Peace.

At the conclusion of the installation of officers, the newly-installed High Chief Ranger, John W. Connelly, addressed the Convention as follows:

As the installing officer has well said, it is an honor that any one may well be proud to have come to him, the head of this, the grandest fraternity of all, the oldest and best, the staunchest and truest of all organizations. This year, Sister and Brother Foresters, this organization will be sorely tried. This year, on account of the terrible conditions of the world's affairs, this organization like all other fraternities will surely go through a crisis. I have been a member of the governing body for five years, a member of the organization for some years past. During the years I have been a member I have come to know the rank and file of its membership. I not only know them in the Courts near Boston, but I have personally become acquainted with them all over this great Commonwealth, and so tonight as I accept the position of head of this great fraternity I know the rank and file of the membership. Knowing that they love this great organization for what it has done in the past I could well rely on the fact that during this year to come they will support me and my Committee and rally to the support of this great organization as they have always rallied in the past. And so I want to thank the members of this Convention, the Convention that for the sixth consecutive time has honored me, and you can be assured that anything I may be able to do for this organization I will do this year with renewed effort, and I know the men on my Committee, the men I have been with year after year, the most manly men with whom I ever had the pleasure of associating, will do everything for this great organization. I have confidence in the officers of the Subordinate Courts and I also have confidence in each and every member of the 44,000 of our membership. I know that while it may be a little hard to get in new members, I know and believe that this organization will accomplish during this terrible year to come what it has always done in the past, that is along the all-important lines, and will be able to increase the membership more than any other fraternity.

In conclusion, I know I do not have to ask for it even, but I want to say to the delegates present the Convention is over, go back to your Subordinate Courts and make a report of the doings of the Convention, and you, Past Chief Rangers, attend your Subordinate Courts and interest them in this great organization. You will be called upon time and time again this year. First comes the call for assistance, help for God and Country. Each and every member will respond to the full limit and after that I realize that you will have some time besides which you can utilize in no better way than to help this great Organization.

The High Secretary-Treasurer then proceeded to read the minutes of the Convention. Upon motion of Past High Chief Ranger Brother Fennessey, duly made and seconded, it was voted that the records of the Convention as they have been taken by the High Secretary-Treasurer be accepted as written, without being read at this meeting.

On motion of Brother Sheehan, Cathedral Court No. 1, duly made and seconded, it was voted at 6.45 that the Convention do now adjourn.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

While the term ending December 31st, 1918, shows 91 Courts, as against 131 of the preceding year, whose officers have failed to forward completed records to the High Standing Committee, a more decided improvement in this matter should be brought about. This condition should not exist, and I strongly recommend that the matter be reported to the subordinate courts by the delegates in order that the necessary efficiency in this matter may be attained. Attention to auditing conditions will undoubtedly relieve this situation. There is nothing of more importance in the life of a subordinate court than an efficient and zealous auditing committee, and chief rangers should see to it that this important matter receives the attention it deserves, thereby preventing the recurrence of many complicated situations such as have arisen in the past.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS

Again I feel constrained to call attention to the fact that some recording secretaries are lax in the matter of forwarding to Headquarters official notices of Initiations, Suspensions, Reinstatements, Designations of Beneficiary and Acceptances or Withdrawal Cards.

Failure on the part of Recording Secretaries to fulfil their duties in this regard may cause serious difficulties to follow in the matter of the rights of our members and I take this occasion to impress upon the delegates the necessity of carrying this message back to the subordinate courts in order that any existing defects in this connection may be remedied.

TRANSFER TO RESERVE FUND

On October 1st a transfer of $10,000 from the General to the Reserve Fund was ordered by vote of the High Standing Committee and this amount was placed to the credit of the Trustees of the Order in the Old Colony Trust Company.

WAR CONDITIONS

It is a matter of common knowledge that the World War produced an upheaval along all lines of human activity.

In our organization, as in others, it became necessary to impose restrictions upon such applicants for admission as might be within the age of military service. The result was that no headway could be made in the matter of increase of membership.

Since the war has ended with the consequent removal of restrictions, the present indications are that the current year will be one of the most successful in the history of our Order in point of membership, and every member is strongly urged to unite in a vigorous effort to bring into reality the present indications of success.

Renewed and sustained activity in the Order in developing its membership is essential, to the end that the present low rates, upon which the organization has lived and prospered in the past, may be maintained in the future, thereby enabling the Order to sustain its proud reputation of providing safe, sound and secure insurance at a minimum of cost.

INFLUENZA AND THE DEATH RATE

The devastating influenza epidemic caused an extraordinary and unusual increase in our death rate.

From the epidemic itself and its attendant consequences, 332 deaths resulted, making it necessary to pay $332,000 more than would have been required but for this terrible scourge.

The membership was saved the burden of additional assessments in this most trying situation by the transfer from the emergency fund to the mortuary fund of a sum sufficient to meet the emergency created by the epidemic which caused a loss in human lives in our country alone more extensive than anything recorded in medical annals.

The trustees have held regular meetings during the year and have discharged their duties with the same painstaking care and constant devotion to duty which has characterized them in the past.

They have zealously and ably managed the Emergency Fund, which is committed to their care, and in the course of the stress of the Influenza emergency, they were most faithful in devoting their time and their services in the discharge of the duties which arose in connection with such transfer as was necessary from the Emergency Fund to the Mortuary Fund.

A full and detailed statement of the Trustees will be found in this report.

THE HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

The High Standing Committee has held 47 meetings during the year, with an average attendance of 76 per cent. In addition they have made 359 visits to subordinate courts.

Our High Chief Ranger, Brother John W. Connelly, has been active and energetic in promoting the welfare and growth of the Order in a most trying year. He has rendered the same faithful and efficient service that has been the standard of those who have preceded him.

Fraternally yours,

DANIEL H. MAGUIRE,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

High Standing Committee of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters

BOSTON, MASS., April 21, 1919.

To Representatives of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:

Sisters and Brothers:—The Fortieth Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters will be held in Convention Hall, Boston, Wednesday, May 28th, 1919.

Headquarters have been established at the Hotel Westminster, where the Committee on Credentials will be in session Tuesday evening, May 27th, 1919, at eight o'clock, to pass upon the eligibility to the High Court of those representatives whose eligibility is questioned, if there are any; but it is necessary that a notice be filed with the High Secretary-Treasurer at the Headquarters of the Order, 17 Worcester St., Boston, on or before May 22nd, by the interested members, otherwise no meeting of the Committee will be held until 8.30 A. M., May 28th, in the Convention Hall.

The Hotel Westminster, where the headquarters of the High Standing Committee have been established, is situated in Copley Square, near the Convention Hall.

Before entering the main hall (it will be opened at 8.30 A. M.), give your Credential to the Committee on Credentials, who are to meet in one of the ante-rooms at the entrance, and they will give you in exchange a badge which must be worn during the Session. Give the number of Credential, not number of Court.

Be sure and bring your credential from the Court as there will be no blank credentials in the hall.

It has been decided to give each representative one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) to cover the cost of dinner and supper May 28th. The money will be placed in an envelope, with the name of the regular representative written on the outside. Be sure and obtain your envelope when the credential is surrendered. No money will be issued at any other time.

Representatives are requested to enter the hall immediately after exchanging credential for badge, so as to make room for others and not block the passageways.

The Annual Session of the High Court will be opened at 9.30 A. M. SHARP, and representatives will govern themselves accordingly. The noon recess for dinner will be taken at about 12.30 P. M. Business will be resumed at 2 P. M.

The Australian Ballot System will be used as provided in the Constitution. Nomination of officers will be made before the noon recess, so that ballots can be printed for the afternoon session.

Three ballot boxes will be used for the election of officers. Representatives from Courts Nos. 1 to 64 inclusive, will pass up the aisle to the right of the High Chief Ranger's Station, according to courts, and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the aisle next the windows. Representatives from Courts Nos. 65 to 135 inclusive, will pass up the next aisle, to the right of the High Chief Ranger's Station, and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the middle aisle. Representatives from Courts Nos. 136 and upwards will pass up the aisle to the left of the High Chief Ranger's Station and after depositing their ballots will return to their seats through the aisle next the windows on the left of the Hall.

The Convention this year will comprise nearly One Thousand Delegates and in order to avoid confusion as much as possible, it is requested that representatives will occupy seats in the body of the hall, and when desiring recognition from the Chair, to arise in their place and state their name and number of the Court which they represent.

The Government control of railroads prohibits the issuing of special price tickets and the running of special trains for any occasion.

Fraternally yours,

DANIEL H. MAGUIRE,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

Report of the Proceedings

of the

Fortieth Annual Session of the High Court

of the

MASSACHUSETTS CATHOLIC ORDER OF FORESTERS

HELD AT CONVENTION HALL, BOSTON, WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1919

ANNUAL SESSION

The representatives met in Convention Hall at the Fortieth Annual Convention of the High Court. These officers were present: High Chief Ranger, John W. Connelly; High Vice-Chief Ranger, William H. Thomas; High Secretary-Treasurer, Daniel H. Maguire; High Senior Conductor, William J. Sullivan; High Junior Conductor, Thomas F. Haley; High Inside Sentinel, James E. O'Leary; High Outside Sentinel, John J. Collins; High Medical Examiner, Francis J. Hanley, M.D.; High Chaplain, Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D.

The session was called to order at 10.02 A. M., by High Chief Ranger John W. Connelly, who called upon the High Chaplain, Rev. Dr. O'Neil, to offer prayer.

The High Chief Ranger then called upon the High Conductors to escort His Excellency, Governor Calvin Coolidge, to the stage and the High Chief Ranger introduced him as follows:

Sister and Brother Foresters:

Today we are opening our Fortieth Convention and I am proud to say that we have with us as a guest, the first citizen of our Commonwealth. This organization is a Massachusetts organization. It was organized forty years ago by a handful of men and is a Massachusetts corporation and since that time it has gone onward and upward, at all times living within the confines of this, the greatest of all Commonwealths, and today our guest is the Governor of the Commonwealth; a man who has lived up to all traditions of this great State and who comes from Northampton, from the western part of the State, which means so much to our organization, as we all know our organization is strong now and always has been strong in the western part of the State from which comes our Governor, the best this Commonwealth has ever known, His Excellency, Calvin Coolidge, Governor of Massachusetts.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR COOLIDGE

Reverend Father, Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Convention:

It gives me great pleasure to be with you today. I notice here that I have the same experience that I have in other places—that the ladies are ever predominant in good work. It is true as your presiding officer has stated, that I live in the western part of the State and there I have had an opportunity for a long time to observe the splendid work that is being done by your great charitable order. It is a work that not only brings comfort to the individuals, but it is a work that brings benefit to the whole of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. One of the great achievements that you have accomplished is to give your members a sense of security, you give them a chance in knowing they have around them an organization that is a help and benefit in life and back of them sustaining them, a support that comes to their family in their time of grief. Now this is a great help to the citizens of Massachusetts. It tends to make many happy and contented and gives them an opportunity to feel that after all they are accomplishing that which is worthy of mankind.

I congratulate you upon your splendid achievements; I want to thank you in behalf of the Commonwealth for the splendid work that you are doing. We need to do all we can to encourage citizenship and bring before the public on every possible occasion the benefits that accrue—the blessings that come to the inhabitants of this great land of ours. You represent one of the institutions of this land—the right of voluntary association for the welfare of each other. You strengthen the hand of the Governor by making good citizens; you strengthen the hand of your religious organization by showing what practical Christianity means. I bring you the greetings of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts because that Government appreciates the work you are doing and the spirit that you exemplify and we appreciate that you are raising up citizens that are not hostile to religion, but true to all that is good and noble and humanitarian in this great nation of ours.

At the close of his address the Governor was greatly cheered.

The High Chief Ranger then called upon the High Secretary-Treasurer to read the call for the Convention which was read as follows:

Charles Foley of Fr. McNulty Court No. 179, it was voted that the report be accepted as progressive.

The High Chief Ranger then presented to the Convention Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., High Chaplain, who addressed the delegates as follows:

ADDRESS OF REV. JAMES H. O'NEIL, LL.D., HIGH CHAPLAIN

Representatives of the 40th Annual Convention of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:—

Sister and Brother Foresters; Dear Delegates:

We meet to-day for our Fortieth Annual Convention. I confess a diffidence in addressing you on this occasion; not, indeed, for want of a subject, for Forestry is a subject very dear to my heart. For many years I have studied it and the deeper my study, the greater my love. To me, to-day, the question is rather, what shall I say to you that will produce the greatest good?

Living memories of the past re-occur to-day; there arises before me a long procession of those noble men who have labored in the cause; from our first High Chief Ranger, who directed your infant destiny, down to the present incumbent of this honorable chair, Brother Connelly, we trace an unbroken chain of good done for God and humanity.

Forty years in doing good; forty years of Fraternity and True Christian Charity; forty years caring for the weakest of God's creatures, the orphans and widow; forty years spent in promoting mutual interests, cementing the golden ties of love and friendship; forty years, the microscopic inspection of which shows no pledge unfulfilled; no contract repudiated. Who but the recording Angel shall estimate the amount of good accomplished? From our past glories and success we draw impetus for further and greater efforts. The sun that cast its slanting rays on our feeble beginning is mounting higher and higher into the broad heaven of noon-day splendor, flooding our archives and our records in golden light, bidding all who "run to read," and may its setting illumine hundreds of thousands yet unborn who shall receive of its beneficent rays those blessings which have come to home and city and State from Unity, Fraternity and True Christian Charity.

At no period of the world's history do we as an organization or as individuals, face such conditions as exist to-day. The Divine Master tells us, "You shall know the truth and the truth will make you free." This is Christian teaching; this is Christianity and so long as man shall seek the truth from the Divine source and fountain of all truth the blessing of true knowledge will be theirs. The mistake of mankind for the past centuries, the mistake of our day is traceable directly to the failure to take from the Divine Teacher the economic and social condition that would bless the world. Here again the Divine Word tells us that "They have eyes and see not and ears and hear not." They have gone apart from God and in the conceit of their minds, have thought to eliminate the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and end of all things. Materialism has blinded their eyes and they see not; it has clouded their intellect and they know not. Do they know the truth? Do they seek the truth?

The Peace Conference sits in France to-day; they seek the way to lead the world to true Peace and Liberty, but have they thought that the Great White Father of Rome, the Vice-Gerant of Christ, has no place at this Council chamber? Its sessions are opened and closed with no petition to the Prince of Peace. Not even the "Our Father" is said to beg of the Almighty the knowledge that shall help to free the world. And after all, is it not Thy all-powerful hand that shall free the world? Do they expect without God's grace or God's aid to succeed in their deliberations? Again the Word of God tells them, "They labor in vain who build the city unless God builds it, and they watch in vain unless God guards it." This wonderful gathering of the rulers of the world is a fair exponent of the times in which we live; is it any wonder that we have men in our midst who seek the utter extinction of all religion, all order and all morality? Is it any wonder that Bolshevism is laying hold on the hearts of men? Surely, my dear Fellow Foresters, the world is facing a serious crisis. The times are at hand that will try the hearts of honest men; shall you be found wanting? Perish the thought! Our past history for forty years has stamped us as thrifty, prudent, law-abiding and God-fearing citizens of this great Commonwealth, as docile children, obedient to God's commands. There will never be a time when this great order shall turn its back to the eternal truth and morality that has come down to us for the past nineteen hundred years from the Master of all truth, Who tells us that we shall know the truth and the same truth will make us free. These times require true, strong, honest men—have we them in our ranks? Again, our history tells us that our rank and file is composed of men and women who possess courage of lions, for they know that God is with them. He has blessed us in the past, His blessing awaits us in the future. On our part He demands strict attachment to His commands, and He commands a lasting strength of purpose that, "come what may," we will take from God our knowledge and by His gracious blessing we shall attain to eternal life.

The above general principles stand true for all men and women, and to you Foresters who are bound by the ties of Unity, Fraternity and True Christian Charity. To you, I say, we have a right to look for greater and better things; when you became a Forester you assumed these obligations, nor can you disregard them without breaking a solemn obligation. We have unity of truth and worship. Have you that real unity that binds heart to heart? Have you that Charity and Faith that has brought into the world so many blessings that have been the crowning of our great organization? If you have not these, you are lacking in this principle that must govern all true Foresters.

Take to your home courts this doctrine of fidelity to God and His holy teaching; take to your fellow Foresters this lesson, again and again repeated with all force in my power, to be united, to be charitable. Only by a united front may we face and overcome the powers that seek our destruction—stand firm for the principles of truth—stand true for the Church and its representatives and though the powers of darkness seek your ruin, the right arm of God will be your defence and victory will be yours.

The High Chaplain announced the Masses at various churches the next day which was a Holy Day, and read a letter from His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, expressing regrets at his inability to be present.

The High Chaplain also announced that the scholarship at St. John's Seminary, Brighton, was now vacant, a young man having been ordained a few weeks ago. That any Forester or son of a Forester was eligible and for any one interested to get into communication with him in August and the one who passes the best examination will be entitled to enter St. John's Seminary in September.

On motion of Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19, seconded by Sister Margaret J. Patterson of St. Clare Court No. 106, it was voted that the address of the High Chaplain be accepted and spread upon the records of this Convention.

The High Chief Ranger instructed High Senior Conductor, Brother William J. Sullivan, to escort Past High Chief Rangers Cronin, Bonning, Murphy, Dignam, Harrigan, Duggan, Brennan, Fennessey and Daly to the platform.

High Vice-Chief Ranger Thomas in the chair.

The Acting High Chief Ranger called upon High Chief Ranger Connelly to address the Convention.

ADDRESS OF JOHN W. CONNELLY, HIGH CHIEF RANGER

To the Representatives to the 40th Annual Convention of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters,

Sister and Brother Foresters:

Just forty years ago, a small gathering of Catholic men, recognizing the necessity of a Catholic fraternal life insurance organization, founded on Christian charity, which should typify the high standing of a charitable organization, convened and organized the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

This organization, starting on such ideals and with a handful of members, has continued steadily onward and upward through the past forty years increasing in its good works and good deeds and bringing untold blessings and happiness to the Catholic people of this great Bay State until we find that at this fortieth annual convention, it has a membership of forty-seven thousand members, and has paid into Catholic homes $7,434,830.18.

Six years ago, I was honored by the election of the High Standing Committee as High Outside Sentinel, and have been honored at each convention since then by a promotion until at the last convention I was elected to the highest position in the Order, that of High Chief Ranger, a position which I believe any man should feel honored to hold. At the time of my election as High Chief Ranger, our organization was going through the most crucial test it had ever been put to. Our great country had been at war for the year past, and on account of so many men going into the service, this order had adopted the so-called Waiver Clause which was not different than what, in the judgment of other insurance organizations, had to be adopted under the circumstances, but it meant that, it was not impossible as some members would say, but rather it was more difficult to get in new members, and so I found my organization strongly entrenched financially, having in its different funds more than $1,000.000.00, but facing even a stronger crisis than the year before, as far as the matter of increase of membership.

During the year 1917, this great organization had paid out in mortuary benefits $535,000.00, and the High Standing Committee naturally expected under normal conditions that the organization would pay out practically that same amount of money for the year 1918.

In September, this great Bay State of ours was affected with the most terrible and fatal disease, or plague, ever known to this country, the Spanish Influenza; and it took from our ranks a great many members, so many, that instead of paying out $535,000.00 in mortuary claims as in 1917, in 1918 $839,000.00 was paid out, and on account of the strong financial conditions of our organization, we were able to meet all of these enormous unexpected financial obligations with but twelve mortuary assessments for the year.

In my opinion, the finance of this organization was not impaired to any appreciable extent, but we sustained a severe loss in membership when this strange epidemic took from our midst a great many of our younger members whom we naturally expected to pay into the mortuary fund for years to come. Of course, we all recognize the fact that in order for an organization such as ours to maintain its present low rate of assessments, it is absolutely necessary to each year make a substantial net increase in membership, and while on account of this epidemic, we had paid out mortuary claims far beyond what we would normally expect, we were certainly handicapped through the fact of our Country being at war, and we were unable to make the necessary increase in membership.

I want to give my personal thanks to the entire membership for the efforts and sacrifices they made during the trying times, for in my opinion, they did all that should have been expected of them, in the matter of bringing in new members.

After the hostilities on the other side ceased and conditions of this country became normal, then the membership of this organization rallied to the support of the Chief Ranger and Officers of the Subordinate Courts as they have never done in the past, and I am pleased to report that never in the history of the order has there been anywhere near the increase of membership as has been made since January first of this year, 2700 applications having been received to date.

Every Court of my organization has done great and efficient work. This has been accomplished through united activity in some sections. The Courts of an entire city banded together in an united drive, as in the city of Springfield, where a drive of one week produced a net increase of 606 members, gaining for those Courts the everlasting gratitude of the entire organization. In other sections, sometimes by a drive of the individual Courts, other times by a drive by two or more united Courts, the great work has been accomplished, until now we have a membership of our great organization of forty-four thousand (44,000). I urge the Courts and the members to continue this great activity.

High Standing Committee

After serving six years as a member of the High Standing Committee and associating during that time with members of it, and members of our organization who have been members of the High Standing Committee, I feel that I should and can rightfully say, that in all my experience, I have never been associated with a better class of men, and I found them one and all always ready and willing at any sacrifice, to go forth and do the necessary work of our organization.

While this great organization of ours is an insurance organization, it is also a Catholic organization, and I would call the attention of the members to the absolute necessity of the Subordinate Courts having well attended meetings and keeping in close touch with the affairs of the organization, and all worldly affairs affecting our church and country.

In blood-stained Europe for the past few years, the populace have been running their countries in a state of chaos and disorder. Socialism, Bolshevism, and Anarchy have been running rampant. We find in this country, where under the guise of Socialism, unwarranted attacks have for some years past been made against our church. Openly and defiantly in this peaceful city of ours, within a very few days, men and women convened in our streets with red flags and openly defied recognized law and order. And so as a bulwark against Socialism, Bolshevism and Anarchism, there is nothing stronger than the Roman Catholic Church, and this great organization of ours should be ready at all times to repel such menaces as Socialism, Bolshevism and Anarchy.

More than two thousand members of our organization entered the services of our Country during the late war, ready and willing at any sacrifice, even to the extent of giving up their lives, to fight for the cause of righteousness and democracy. There is no need of my asserting that those brave young men played no small part in carrying to a victorious termination the great conflict which has just ended. I am pleased to say that but 38 members died while in the service. Most if not all the rest who survived the strife, have returned to us and we all are indeed proud of them.

In retiring as High Chief Ranger, I want to thank the members of our great organization for the many favors and honors they have bestowed upon me, and assure you that I will consider myself well rewarded for my efforts if my activity as a Forester has contributed in some part in making our organization the peer of any fraternal organization.

I assure you that as a worker in the ranks I will always be active.

The High Chief Ranger then called the attention of the Delegates as follows:

There are some things that I did not put in that pamphlet because I did not want to give my opinion to this Convention, that is, my personal opinion, because I felt that the Delegates of this Convention, composed as they are of men and women whom I have known since I have been a member of the Committee for the past six years and I knew that they were well qualified to pass upon the questions without a statement from me which might influence their judgment and their views.

Now, Sister and Brother Foresters, I pointed out a few things there for which I am grateful, but I am especially grateful for the Membership Drives since January first. But to go back a little. In the year when I became your High Chief Ranger our great country was at war and with these conditions we were not making the usual satisfactory normal and successful increase in membership and so far as that was concerned we were at a disadvantage because as you undoubtedly recall the first year the draft took in those between the ages of 18 and 31 and of course that was the age that we depended on for our increase in membership, then afterwards it took in those of older years—up to 45. But my membership was loyal under those trying conditions and we went on and on until the armistice was signed and I want to personally thank the membership of this great organization for doing what to my mind was the best work that any one could expect. I want to extend my personal thanks to the members of each and every subordinate Court of our Order. You have heard from the Colonels and high officers who came back from the other side and all of them give the credit to the Two Thousand boys of my Order, the boys that did the essential work, the successful work—the doughboys—the boys in the trenches and I will tell this Convention after being the head of your organization and a member of the governing body for six years, that in my opinion the success of our organization was accomplished by the boys and girls in the trenches and in the firing line,—the Forty Thousand members of the Subordinate Courts working as a unit and faithful to the Order, faithful to the officers, each doing his or her self-sacrificing work in bringing in new members.

Since the first of the year there has never been such a successful period. Our High Chaplain, who has been a priest for forty years, said to me in Springfield, when they presented a class of 600,—"John, I thank God I am living today to see such grand work done for the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters." So I say after starting that great drive of a week we have gone down the line and places that even I, as High Chief Ranger, hardly knew had a Court, I found them sending in applications and I want to urge each and every Delegate when you leave this Convention to go back to your Courts and keep up the good work.

We paid last year in Mortuary Benefits $829,000. The year before that this organization paid out something like $500,000. The great epidemic of last fall took from our finances.

This organization took care of all their claims, how-ver, without issuing any extra assessments. Other ocieties did and in my opinion, Sister and Brother oresters, we should have. Then came the illness of our orthy High Secretary-Treasurer, Brother Maguire, nt thank God he is better and able to be with us again. Iy brother members of the Committee have all done heir part by the organization. Whatever I have done erhaps is not much, but I have done the best I could. have answered the calls that came to me; I have never icked out a favorite place to go. During the terrible pidemic every one of my Committee who was physic- lly able to be around was answering the calls of the ubordinate Courts.

A few words about the clerical force of the High tanding Committee. We have in that office some help, ll girls and we have a chief clerk. I have been in com- unication with her practically every day since the pidemic started and I want to say this,—that that ood little sister, a sister of Alma Mater Court of ast Boston, she was at the office early and late work- ng tirelessly. I have had some experience with help, s I have an office of my own and as far as my opinion s concerned from the chief clerk down, each and every ne in that office works conscientiously, honestly and aithfully and all these girls being members of the rder, as we are, they have the same reason—they love his organization for what it has done for our people.

Now when I retire as High Chief Ranger I am going o stick close to this organization. I belong to a great any of them, like all other men in public life espec- ally, but in my opinion, there never was, is not now, or never will be in the future, an organization such as urs for there is behind it the Church of God and our ommonwealth. And I want to be in the future just ohn W. Connelly or Brother John W. Connelly of St. eter Court No. 18, one of the best, if not the best and earest old Courts in the entire Order.

On motion of Brother John Sheehan of Cathedral ourt No. 1, seconded by Brother George F. Delay of e La Salle Court No. 194, it was voted that the report f the High Chief Ranger be accepted and referred to he Committee on State of the Order.

High Chief Ranger Connelly in the chair.

On motion of Brother Peter Welsh of St. Francis ourt No. 4, seconded by Sister Murphy of Lady of race Court No. 257, it was voted that the report of the igh Medical Examiner, Dr. Francis J. Hanley, be re- eived as printed and referred to the Committee on tate of the Order.

EPORT OF HIGH MEDICAL EXAMINER FRANCIS J. HANLEY, M.D.

isters and Brothers:

This Convention is of all the most unusual, the effect lone of the awful havoc caused by the terribleness of he war would of itself make it so, scarcely a family mongst us who has not felt its menacing invasion, and any know only too well its stern reality. Coupled ith that awful condition, and in its very midst, came e scourge of the Influenza Epidemic and more severe an the war itself in its dreadful toll of precious lives, ot only of man, but of woman as well. Many who were ith us one short year ago, in the prime of vigorous life, ave answered its call. Seemingly it was the very flower of manhood and womanhood who succumbed to its virulence.

To those who associated in our fraternal bond and whose homes have been darkened by the shadows of war, in the loss of loved ones; and to those whose homes have been invaded by the Epidemic and the taking away of lives so precious and so dear, the sympathy of our great order is extended, and such comfort as can be given, one to each other, is given without measure.

Realizing when an urgent call was issued by the United Government to the medical profession to enter the service, your High Medical Examiner felt it his duty to volunteer his services. In consequence of this, early in September having been ordered into active ser vice, the High Standing Committee, acting within its rights, granted a leave of absence to me, and appointed Dr. Charles H. Winn, Past Chief Ranger of St. Francis Court, No. 4, to fill the vacancy thus created, and to him I return my thanks both for his services to the order and his expression of personal regard and consideration to myself.

On January 15, 1919, with the conclusion of the armed strife, having been relieved from active army service and returned to civil life, I again took over the work laid down in September.

In common with all insurance organizations we have to report this year an excessive mortality. 838 deaths or 19.4 per thousand as compared with 538 deaths or 12 per thousand in 1917. That this excess was entirely due to the Influenza Epidemic and the War Conditions is conclusively shown by the fact that 332 deaths were due to Influenza Epidemic and its attendant consequences and 38 died while in the service.

The following table gives a summary of the number and causes of deaths:

All this means we must use the utmost care in the selection of risks during the coming years.

We have already called the attention of the local examiners to the necessity of great care in their work and we know that with the proper co-operation on the part of those selecting new members, and a full realization of their important duties on the part of the investigating committees, the work of the local examiners and of your High Medical Examiner can be made much more efficient.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the usual recommendation relative to a proper performance of the duties of investigating committees.

All insurance organizations, both old line and fraternal, report excessive mortality for the first quarter of 1919. This is undoubtedly caused by the after effects of the influenza epidemic. Many who have had this disease have a lowered resistance and are unable to withstand otherwise mild infections.

Added to this is the questionable effect upon many who participated in the World War. The strenuous trench life, poisonous gases and nervous shock, all of which are factors that may tend to shorten their life expectancy.

Owing to the momentous change, consequent upon new conditions, we stand, despite ourselves, between two distinct eras; the old has been passed and successfully; the new is pressing on, and with it comes a call clear and insistent to meet it and face its responsibilities with even greater firmness and determination than ever, so that, whatever might arise, solutions of all problems may be to our advantage, and to the advantage of the many who one day may be proud members of this great fraternal.

On motion of Brother Peter Welsh of St. Francis Court No. 4, seconded by Brother Michael Shannon of St. Augustine Court No. 46, it was voted that the report of the Trustees be accepted as printed and referred to the Committee on State of the Order.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE HIGH COURT

Sisters and Brothers:

Received from High Secretary-Treasurer, Emergency Fund		87,433.00
Transfer from General Fund		10,000.00

Net earnings from investments for 1918..	42,118.62
	$1,156,679.17
Transferred to Mortuary Fund.....	64,500.00
Balance in Emergency Fund, Dec. 31, '18..	$1,092,179.17
Invested as follows:
First Mortgage Loans	$243,722.50
Municipal, State and Government Bonds, book value	847,194.79
Old Colony Trust Co., on deposit.....	481.19
Union Institution for Savings, on deposit.	768.58
Cash in office	12.20
	$1,092,179.17

In the latter part of the year 1918, owing to the influenza epidemic, at that time prevailing, causing an unusual mortality within our ranks, the High Standing Committee realizing the necessity of more money being needed for the payment of Mortuary Benefits, requested the transfer of some of the funds in the custody of the Trustees to the Mortuary Fund of the Order. Your Trustees after obtaining advice from the Corporation Counsel voted to transfer from the Reserve or Emergency Funds of the Order to the Mortuary Fund of the Order, for the payment of Mortuary Benefits, the sum of $93,567.20, which was done, thus obviating the necessity of issuing additional mortuary assessments.

The notes on the seventy-five mortgages call for $243,-22.50. The assessed valuation of the mortgaged property May 1, 1918, was $520,600.00, and the insurance on the buildings amounted to $377,700.

The Bonds owned by the Order are divided amongst the cities and towns of Beverly, Boston, Brockton, Cambridge, Chelsea, Chicopee, Everett, Fall River, Fitchburg, Gloucester, Haverhill, Holyoke, Lawrence, Lowell, Lynn, Medford, Melrose, New Bedford, Newburyport, Newton, Peabody, Quincy, Salem, Springfield, Taunton, Waltham, Winchester, Worcester, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and United States Government. The cost price of the several bonds was $847,194.70, the par value being $879,000.

The net receipts from January 1 to April 1, 1919, were $9,607,03, and the amount transferred to the Mortuary Fund $86,917.09, making the total amount in the Emergency Fund April 1, 1919, $1,014,869.11.

The net receipts since April 1 have been $22,999.43, and the amount transferred to the Mortuary Fund $5,000, making the total amount in the Emergency Fund at the time of making up this report May 15, $1,032,-868.54, invested as follows:

First Mortgage Loans	$240,082.50
Municipal, State and Government Bonds, book value	778,821.87
Old Colony Trust Co., on deposit.....	13,195.59
Union Institution for Savings	768.58
	$1,032,868.54

The difference in the mortgage loans between December 31, 1918 and May 15, 1919, is accounted for by the payments of $6,140.00, on account of mortgage notes, and new loans amounting to $2,500.00.

Since January 1, 1919, the Trustees have purchased United States Government 4¾ Fifth Liberty Bonds, the cost price of same being $10,000.

An inspection of the securities contained in the private vault of the Security Safe Deposit Company was made by the Finance Committee, who reported that all bonds and mortgages owned by the Order were contained therein, and certificate from the auditor of the Old Colony Trust Company that the balance to the credit of the Order was as shown by the books of the High Secretary-Treasurer.

The various estates upon which the mortgage loans have been made were inspected by the Trustees, the High Chief Ranger and the High Secretary-Treasurer during the year and found to be in fairly good condition, and we are of the opinion that the Order is amply protected.

Respectfully yours,

Brother William J. Sullivan of S. S. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, presented the following Resolution and asked that it be adopted by the Convention:

Whereas:—A campaign of defamation, slander and misrepresentation directed against the people of Irish birth and origin in America, and designed to impugn their allegiance and discredit their loyalty, has been maintained in the American press and other agencies of publicity and finances by the British Government, and

Whereas:—The continuance of this treason-breeding campaign must result in dividing the loyal population of America into antagonistic groups detrimental to our national solidarity and public peace, and the safety and security of our country, the integrity of its institutions, the preservation of its principles and the maintenance of its policies and liberties:

Be it Resolved:—That we, the members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, in convention assembled, protest most solemnly against this and any other propaganda maintained and directed by an alien government inside our country; that we denounce its existence and demand its suppresion to the end that the loyalty, strength, unity and public peace of America may not be injured and weakened, the Republic endangered, the free press debauched, or the spirit of our country be destroyed.

We, therefore, solemly demand that our Government and Congress take immediate steps to initiate measures to abate the evil by refusing further loans of American money to be used to our own injury; that an investigation be made into the agencies conducting this disloyal propaganda with a view of identifying the persons managing and directing it, to the end that, if aliens, they may be expelled from the United States, and if domiciled here they may be exposed to the execration and contempt of the country and be brought to punishment.

It was voted that the above resolution be referred to the Committee on Petitions.

On motion of Brother Peter Welsh of St. Francis Court No. 4, it was voted that the report of the Finance Committee be accepted as printed and referred to the Committee on State of the Order.

Brother James Grant of St. John Court No. 23 wished for information on the Finance Committee's report. The High Chief Ranger assured him he would have ample opportunity to talk when the report came back.

Sister and Brother Foresters:

Before this Convention had actually convened we were honored with a visitor. This organization of ours is a Massachusetts one since we started some forty years ago. This organization was visited by the highest executive of our Commonwealth. At the time this organization started it was here in the City of Boston, here in the first parish—the Cathedral parish of the South End, and I am honored to have the privilege of presenting to you a gentlemen who has served this eat city of Boston in a great many capacities; served is City, this State and this Nation as a representative yours and he is now the Mayor of Boston. It is my eat privilege to present the Hon. Andrew J. Peters.

DDRESS OF HON. ANDREW J. PETERS

. Chairman, Members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:

It is indeed a privilege to be here this morning to see u in your Convention and as you are in Boston to ve to you a word of welcome in behalf of the City d tell you how much your organization and its inter- t in its members means to the welfare and develop- nt of our community.

I appreciate that I am here at an hour when you are out to adjourn and will not take advantge of that portunity by delaying you. But I wished to be here congratulate you on the wonderful success of your der. You are distinctly a Massachusetts Order and om beginning when you started here in Boston you ve now developed I understand to a membership of re than Fifty Thousand people. Some Fraternal Or- rs have not developed with success. Yours, however, n look back with pride on this truth. It has developed, iends, because it has kept true to the best principles this Order and it has helped and sustained the con- lence and belief of members of the Order in what it uld do for them. The name suggests that its prin- ples are a protection to the ideals of our country, e principles which actuate them are the fundamentals on which the whole Constitution of our Country is sed and its development is founded.

Today we hear and read of various ideas brought for- ard in all parts of the earth aiming directly at all ese great fundamentals that home life and our City is ilt upon. We have seen some people in this country, it would seem to me, rather misguided, so we will lk here amongst ourselves about some of these ideas. e have a Constitution and Country developed along e lines of Christianity and religion and the purpose some of these new ideas is aimed against the prin- ples upon which has been built the most successful public in the world. They propose to take up ideas hich have never been put into practical working and so far as they have been tried, nothing we can learn them insures safety for the people. And it is against ese waves of radicalism, this lack of responsibility at all people truly interested in the development of r country, should stand together. The belief and con- lence which you have in your Order and in its mem- rs is going to be one of the great bulwarks as an in- ence to protect our City, our Constitution and to lp the United States along the lines of safety and pro- ction for its people that has meant so much for us up the present time, by the development of your Order d Societies at large.

I want to repeat my words of congratulation to you d my confidence in your Order and its development. predict a great future for you. Boston and her citi- ns are proud of the membership in your Order and the rogress which it has made and I wish for you now and the future that same stability and confidence that has rought you up to the glorious position you occupy day.

At the close of his address Mayor Peters was given a ost cordial reception.

At 12.15 P. M., a recess was ordered until 2.30 P. M.

The High Chief Ranger then presented another visitor as follows: Sister and Brother Foresters: I have the privilege at this time to present another speaker. A few years ago at one of our Conventions this Order pledged itself to assist in a movement to help the little child who on account of circumstances was neglected for one reason or other and so since then some of the Courts of this Order have contributed in this regard. Others have not, but, nevertheless, as a whole the members of the Order have given a great deal of financial assistance to the movement and one of the requests I make of you Delegates is to again take up this, greatest of all movements for the little child and assist the Director of the Archdiocese of Boston, the Reverend M. J. Scanlan.

ADDRESS OF FATHER SCANLAN

High Chief Ranger and Delegates to the Convention:

You have been very kind at your annual meetings and I trust you have a few moments for me in a matter of as much interest to you as to me.

In 1912, through the kindness of the officers at that time and by unanimous consent of all Delegates, the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters placed itself on record as willing to give moral and financial support to a movement to aid the Catholic children who were being committed to the public authorities and the different institutions. We promised you at that time that if you would give the support to this State-wide movement that there would be a very appreciable and remarkable lessening of our Catholic children committed to these institutions. We were able to tell you three years ago that we had succeeded (because of the help you had given this movement) in lessening the number one-third. Now it seems to me that this is work well worth doing in view of the fact that we had thousands and thousands of boys and girls who had no friends and who were being committed to our correctional institutions and to the departments of State. I am able to report to you today as a direct result of your support we have here in the Archdiocese of Boston established several branch bureaus and we have paid workers who attend the Courts and were of service to more than ten thousand people. I am able to report to you that as a result of your support the Catholic percentage has been very remarkably decreased. I am able to report to you that in connection with the State Minor Wards in which up to 1912 we had upwards of more than two-thirds of the number annually committed, last year we had more than one hundred less than one-half of the whole number. This is due to your generosity to this wonderful work. I want to state to you that what you have done in the past so willingly I hope you will continue to do in the future. Our own good name as Catholics is at stake! We want our agents continually at work. This is a God-given work and I want to give credit where it belongs. It belongs not to me, but to the Society that in 1912 so willingly pledged itself to aid the movement. You have done so. Now really each year your contributions have been splendid. Last year there were unusual demands and you were not able to give us so much as in the past, but I sincerely trust now that we have gotten around to normal times that you will be able to revert your interest and that it will not be a matter of just a certain percentage of the different Courts contributing, but every Court throughout the State ought to give something. It is not a question of how much, but every Court in the State of Massachusetts should be vitally interested in this movement. If you never made another contribution to the Catholic cause in this State other than the contributions made to this one, you have done something that will bless you. You cannot afford to neglect it. Every one is looking out for his own interests and we have got to be alive to that which is for our own good and at all times be willing to make sacrifices for the good name we bear. There is no power in this country more active than the Catholic Church and you being Catholic as well as members of the Foresters, I take it are willing to assume your share of the maintenance of good order. One final word. Since 1912 up to this you have aided this cause, and I appeal to you to record yourself this year to continue to give financial, moral and generous support to this—the greatest of all movements. I thank you.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Sister Kathryn G. Fitzgerald of St. Valerian Court No. 111, for the Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

Your Committee on Resolutions have voted to recommend for adoption the Resolution as presented by Brother William J. Sullivan, and that a copy of the Resolution be sent to the office of the President of the United States, to Senators Lodge and Walsh and to each Congressman from Massachusetts.

Upon motion made by Brother Sullivan of SS. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, seconded by Brother Cummings of Neponset Court No. 180, it was voted that the report of the Committee be accepted and adopted and that the High Secretary-Treasurer be directed to send a copy of this vote, together with a copy of the Resolution to the office of the President of the United States, to Senators Walsh and Lodge and to each member of Congress, representing the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and that the representatives of the American Nation at the Peace Conference shall insist that Ireland shall have the right of Self-Determination.

Hon. William J. Sullivan of SS. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, said:

In making this motion I desire to state that I am an American citizen and in saying that I have no apologies to make to anybody for my citizenship for I am not going to stand in being deprived of that right and it was with that intention that the Resolution was presented this morning. I desire to call to your attention that we had in our midst German propaganda before the war and now we have British propaganda, financed by the British to poison the minds and intelligence of the people against the Irish people and the Irish descendants. Unless we are awake to conditions that exist, the same conditions will be created in this country in the near future that existed prior to war conditions. The press of the country has been subsidized. I am an American citizen but believe in the freedom of the Irish Nation, despite the fact that it has existed under British calumny for seven hundred years. I am an American citizen, but my father was born in the other land and I hope you will pledge yourself to this Resolution—to fight the propaganda that is being spread throughout this country so that we shall not be deprived of our rights and that we shall stand for the rights of the people who cannot express themselves because of war conditions existing in the land of the birth of our fathers.

Brother Matthew Cummings of Neponset Court No. 180:

I am in hearty accord with that resolution. But in my opinion it does not go far enough. There is not one word in that resolution demanding freedom for the Irish People or the Irish Nation. Only last night we read in the papers that the American Delegates sent to Paris by the greatest Race Convention ever held in America or in the world, were turned down by our American Representatives at the Peace Conference. For what reason? Because they advocated the freedom of the land of their forefathers and because of that they offended certain British officials. They who were the representatives of this great free Republic turns them aside and says, "You can go no further." We find all the new nations being granted their freedom and we can read the words of President Wilson regarding every other people but Ireland. Do you realize that when this is over the Irish people are the only people in the world who will be deprived of their freedom. The Legislature of Massachusetts—the Republican Legislature of this Puritanical State—has gone on record twice demanding Irish Independence; the Congress of the United States, the Governments of Canada and Australia, the Labor Organizations even of England have gone on record demanding freedom and independence for the Irish people. So it seems to me that we should go on record today demanding that America's Representatives at the Peace Conference see to it that Self-Determination be applied to Ireland as well as to the other nations of the world.

Brother John F. Harrigan of McCafferty Court No. 100:

The day is past for the Irish people to accept a mere sham Home Rule. Ireland has by over seventy-five per cent of her population voted for a Republic and we shall ask our government to recognize this Republic. In doing so, our country is only paying back her debt of gratitude to Ireland, the same as she recently paid to France by sending Pershing and our army to her assistance.

If there is any red Irish blood in our veins, now let us show to the world that we will not tolerate having Ireland the only white slave nation in Europe.

Lord Northcliffe has admitted spending one hundred and fifty million dollars in this country, during the war, to spread British propaganda and to kill the Irish question. Today a fund of one million and a half is being raised throughout the United States to combat this liar's injustice against Ireland and the majority of her people who declared for self-determination.

Bishop Gallagher of Detroit, at the Irish Race Convention held in Philadelphia, recently, declared that the Irish come to this country fifty per cent handicapped over any other race. In the first place England kept the Irish ignorant for a purpose and then ridiculed and mocked them the world over.

There would be no United States of America if it were not for Ireland. At least thirteen signers of the Declaration of Independence were Irish; Thompson, who first transcribed it on parchment, was Irish, the first signature that was placed to it as President was that of John Hancock, the son of Irish parents; and the first man who read it to the assembled multitude from the balcony of Continental Hall at Philadelphia was Mr. Nixon—the voice of an Irishman, and when it was placed in type for the first time it was by one Dunlap, a printer, from Strabane in Ireland.

Thirty-eight per cent of the Revolutionary Army that backed that declaration up were Irishmen. The accomplished Gen. Montgomery, Wayne, Sullivan and others led these men.

Ireland gave to the navy bold Jack Barry, a Stewart and Perry, the son of an Irish mother. From that war to the present world war of today, the Irish bled for America and liberty.

Gen. Pershing said on his arrival in France at the tomb of Lafayette. "Lafayette, we're here." Let Columbia say to Erin—"Erin, we are with you, we shall recognize your Irish Republic."

Brother James T. Barrett of St. Finbar Court No. 150:

I am here this afternoon to say a word for the land of my birth—to say a word for my good old father and mother, God bless them. We have one thousand of our boys across that ought to be at home. We should have freedom of all peoples here in America as well as in Europe. I am a representative of a city, for a long time before President Wilson was known politically I have had all the honors from the city of my adoption and I will state that that city is the Clearing House of British Propaganda. I had a duty to perform as a member of the Committee on Americanization, and after due notice I would respectfully submit to my City Government that as we have men representing us in Europe they should be questioned as regards it and we ought to demand it. I have the greatest respect for the President. Also he is in authority, but I have done my part in Cambridge. Now, something should be done. I have no brief to hold but what are we to think of these hypocrites that talk of the emancipation of all peoples and in the same line and in the same heart believe in the divine right of kings to rule. I tell you, my friends, this is a serious matter to send representatives across the Atlantic and as American Citizens we shall see that those who represent us will give an account of their stewardship.

Woodrow Wilson's first administration as President was excellent, his second was good, but the third—let us hope and pray that our views will change and that he will rise and will ask for the Emancipation of all Europe, the land of your birth or your forefathers and let us hope and pray that one year hence when we assemble here or in some other hall in this great Commonwealth that Ireland shall be placed truly among the great empires of the world, first flower of the earth and first gem of the sea.

Brother Charles S. O'Connor of St. Augustine Court 46:

I believe that this is the first time in five years that I have tried to get the floor at a Foresters' Convention. I would not arise here this afternoon were it not for the universal discontent which is challenging the entire world and when I find young Catholic men and young Catholic women right here in Boston and throughout this Commonwealth, ridiculing the Irish question, an organization such as ours not only in Convention assembled but as honorable minded citizens should try to overcome this downright hostility.

I wonder if we have gone back to the days of Tom Burke, when in 1872, in a crude vessel, the English sent James Culhane Howe to present the Irish case before the American people. Tom Burke compelled him to take the vessel back to Ireland a defeated and vanquished liar. But we have not got that far today. We are told that this is not a Catholic question, but it is because the only crime she has committed during all these centuries is that she has remained Catholic and has been crowned even with public opinion and nailed to the cross. That is the Irish question today. Not only should we support this Resolution but we should go further as Brother Cummings said. If we remain silent then we are by our silence giving approval to the lot of hypocrites. We are told that every nation in the world shall have the right of Self-Determination—that it shall be applied to all.. As Brother Cummings said, all nations except one are going to receive justice and fair play, all except little Ireland. Think of all those who are near and dear to us, the land of their birth. Now, this organization, representing forty-five thousand people in this State of Massachusetts, shall send back a word of cheer and greeting to them—then the judgment of the world shall be stirred and the dearest nation of them all—which God and the world intends—shall take her place among them.

High Chief Ranger Connelly:

Now comes the question of adopting this Resolution and that the High Secretary-Treasurer send a copy of it to United States Senators Walsh and Lodge, to each Congressman from Massachusetts, and to all others who could benefit this movement in which we are all interested.

The High Chief Ranger announced that it was a unanimous vote.

On motion of Brother John McGrath of St. Jarlath Court No. 75, seconded by Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19, it was voted that the place for holding the next Convention be left to the members of the High Standing Committee.

Brother Thomas F. Haley of St. Francis Court No. 4:
Sister and Brother Delegates:

In behalf of the Past Chief Rangers Association and Associated Courts of Greater Boston a reception is to be tendered to you tomorrow as our guests. I want to remind you of the fact that the boat will leave Rowe's Wharf at 9.15 A. M. Now all of you have to attend Mass. The tickets for the boat trip will be given on the wharf and we ask you to help us out a little bit. Every Delegate will present his name and the number of his Court and we ask you to get there as early as possible so that the boat will leave at its schedule time at 9.15. There will be no other boat. We will give you the day of your life at Nantasket.

Corporation Counsel, Judge Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1:

I desire to make a motion. I have had cause to address you before this afternoon upon a situation that confronted us and with which you were all familiar. It is in order that you may know and that you may give some expression of your appreciation for the very splendid amount of work that has been done for the Organization during the past trying period that I am speaking to you now.

We have here on the platform a young lady who is Chief Clerk at Headquarters, Miss O'Donnell. That young lady is a splendid type of the women of our organization. She is a splendid type of the devotion of our women in the organization, for its best interests and I want to say to you here today that during the trying times that waylaid the High Standing Committee in the epidemic, that she labored day and night at the office of the High Standing Committee doing the work that was alloted to her, without any fault-finding in that patient way of hers, manifesting the utmost skill in her discharge of the duties in the office. Of course you all know we had a great misfortune in having the High Secretary-Treasurer taken ill in the middle of the winter, which made her duties very much more of a burden and the way she took care of that ffice won the confidence of everybody who had occaion to come in contact with her. I arise here at this ime to ask this Convention to express their thanks o her for the splendid work she has done, by a rising ote of thanks.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Miss O'Donnell.

High Chief Ranger Connelly:

I want to say that I know Miss O'Donnell was there ay and night and I fear if I were called upon to do the ork that Miss Frances M. O'Donnell did that I would ot have been able to.

Brother Thomas McLaughlin of Erin Court No. 28:

I have worked for years and years and I can apprecate the compliment such as you have just tendered to liss O'Donnell and yet what a little compliment that s. I want to tell you an experience I had. When I as working for the City of Boston and I worked for hat City for 25 years, well I began by working night nd day. I was called upon to do some work that had ever been done before. I did that work and I never ot a cent for the extra work I did. I worked until idnight, night after night. It has been my lot to work ard ever since and I never felt that I got a compliment or the work I did until a certain thing happened. One f my superiors said: "Tom, I have a compliment for ou." I said: "I beg your pardon, but I will believe he compliment when I see my name on the pay roll for nore money." You cannot pay this lady whom you so xalt, but if you want to pay her a compliment—put er name on the pay roll. You talk of finances here for long time. I am glad to have this opportunity to ay my personal tribute to Miss O'Donnell and I would like to make a motion raising the salary of this ery efficient lady Forester.

Brother Joseph T. Brennan of Americus Court No. 34:

The Committee on State of the Order have considered hat question and this Convention may be assured that Miss O'Donnell will be compensated and properly compensated for the work that she has done.

On motion of Brother John J. Collins of John J. Leonard Court No. 238, seconded by Brother James E. O'Leary of Worcester Court No. 59, it was voted that the thanks of the Convention be extended to the Past Chief Rangers Association and Associated Courts of Greater Boston for the entertainment extended to the delegates to the Convention.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

There are yet many Courts whose officers have been negligent in the matter of forwarding completed records to the High Standing Committee. The representatives to the High Court should pay special attention to the necessities of this situation in reporting the proceedings of the convention to their respective Courts, thereby helping to bring about a high standard of efficiency, which will aid very materially in carrying on the work of the Order.

RECORDING SECRETARIES

It is of the utmost importance that recording secretaries should be most careful in the matter of transmission to the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer such official documents as should be in his custody. In this connection, recording secretaries, without any delay, should forward to headquarters all notices of initiations, suspensions, reinstatements, designations of beneficiary, acceptances and withdrawal cards. Carelessness in this matter may cause serious difficulties to arise, particularly in the matter of designations of beneficiary. Each member of the Order is entitled to the greatest care in this matter, so that all of his and her rights incident to membership may be preserved.

TRANSFER TO THE EMERGENCY FUND

On December 8th a transfer of $10,000 from the General Fund to the Emergency Fund was ordered by vote of the High Standing Committee, and this amount was placed to the credit of the Trustees of the Order in the Old Colony Trust Company.

INFLUENZA AND DEATH RATE

After the terrible influenza epidemic of last year it was feared that there would be a recurrence this year and that large numbers of deaths would occur because of the weakened condition of those who had been afflicted but who had recovered.

I am pleased to report, however, that while there was a mild recurrence of this dread disease during the past winter, the Order was not materially affected by it, the death rate having been about normal.

THE HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

Our High Chief Ranger, Brother William H. Thomas, has been most zealous in discharging the duties of his office. He has done all in his power, aided by the constant and faithful work of the High Standing Committee, to increase the membership, and he has the distinction of having been High Chief Ranger in the Order's most successful year.

In submitting this report for your consideration and action, I am completing my tenth year of service as High Secretary-Treasurer and my sixteenth year as a member of the High Standing Committee.

At the earnest request of my family, whose desires are of paramount importance, and acting upon the advice of my physician, I have decided to relinquish the burdens and cares of office and not to be a candidate for re-election. I am pursuing this course with feelings of deep regret, for it makes it necessary for me to sever official relations which have brought me into close association with a large part of the membership of the Order, in consequence of which I have made many firm and lasting friendships.

My official relations with officers and members have been most pleasant and I return to them my heartfelt thanks for the kind consideration manifested towards me at all times.

It has been a source of great satisfaction to me to have been your High Secretary-Treasurer during ten years of the Order's greatest progress and I trust that in some measure I have contributed to its advancement.

When I first assumed the duties of this office, we had a total membership of 29,849, of which 19,152 were men and 10,697 were women. In the Emergency Fund there was $303,600.23. On December 31, 1919, we had a total membership of 47,136, of which 27,228 were men and 19,908 were women, and the Emergency Fund had reached the inspiring total of $1,106,070.

In the past six years, by careful management of the expenses of the Order, we have been able to transfer a total of $48,000 from the General Fund to the Emergency Fund.

The great value of the Emergency Fund was clearly established when the influenza epidemic befell us. During this terrible catastrophe $197,484.29 was transferred from the Emergency Fund to the Mortuary Fund in order to enable the High Standing Committee to meet the emergency and save the membership from the great burden which would have been imposed by the levying of extra assessments.

While the great war with its attendant evils caused a period of temporary depression in the Order, as elsewhere, the termination of hostilities brought with it a renewal of active development which has been steadily increasing. In this connection the so-called "drives" for membership have aided very materially in the increase of membership, but in the midst of our enthusiasm we should not be unmindful of the constant necessity of obtaining the same high quality of risks as has been the custom in the past. To secure a sound and safe increase should be our purpose at all times.

In returning to you the trust committed to me ten years ago, I take this occasion to express my thanks to the members of the Order for the many courtesies extended to me and the large measure of confidence which they have reposed in me and I hope that I have proved worthy of their trust. I am grateful for the support, encouragement and assistance rendered to me by the members of the High Standing Committee and the clerks employed in the office. I would be failing in my duty if I did not make special mention of Miss O'Donnell, the chief clerk, who during all my years of service has been a most faithful, earnest, loyal and thoroughly competent assistant. Her services to the Order in the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer have been invaluable and of the highest order of excellence.

I retire from office with the most kindly feelings towards all, and the earnest hope that the Order may continue to grow in strength, power and usefulness.

Fraternally yours,

DANIEL H. MAGUIRE,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Forty-First Annual Session of the High Court

OF THE

MASSACHUSETTS CATHOLIC ORDER OF FORESTERS

HELD AT KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HALL, HOLYOKE, MASSACHUSETTS, MAY 26, 1920

ANNUAL SESSION

The representatives met in Knights of Columbus Hall at the Forty-First Annual Convention of the High Court. These officers were present: High Chief Ranger, William H. Thomas; High Vice-Chief Ranger, William J. Sullivan; High Senior Conductor, Thomas F. Haley; High Junior Conductor, James E. O'Leary; High Inside Sentinel, John J. Collins; High Outside Sentinel, Dr. Helen I. Doherty; High Medical Examiner, Francis J. Hanley, M.D.; High Chaplain, Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D.

The session was called to order at 10.10 A. M., by High Chief Ranger, William H. Thomas, who called upon the High Chaplain, Rev. Dr. O'Neil, to offer prayer.

The Corporation Counsel, Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan, then addressed the Convention as follows:

"In order that the machinery of this session may be properly under way and the Convention legally constituted, I desire to make a motion. Before making it I am going to ask the Convention to instruct the High Chief Ranger to send a message of sympathy to High Secretary-Treasurer Daniel H. Maguire. About ten years ago Brother Magnire was elected to fill this important office. During these ten years he has served this organization with honesty, industry, absolute integrity and devotion to its interests. There can be little doubt but that the illness which befell him a year ago last December was in no small measure due to the energy and devotion he gave. When you realize that in the past it has been the custom to attend to the duties of that office not only eight hours a day in the usual way, but in addition to that, year after year going about the state, visiting the various Courts, affecting his energy and health by the conscientious discharge of the duties of that great office, it becomes apparent to all that the office is one of great physical and mental strain. And I think as a tribute to him for the splendid work he has done and as an earnest of our sympathy and regret that he is today retiring from that important office, we may well send to him an expression of our sympathy for him in his illness, in the hope that God in His goodness will soon restore him to his usual good health and bring about the activity that he was wont to have in the years gone by."

On motion of the Corporation Counsel, Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan, it was voted the following telegram be sent to our worthy High Secretary-Treasurer, Daniel H. Maguire:

"Representatives in Forty-First Annual Session at Holyoke extend sympathy in your illness and deep regret at your retiring from office because of it. Assurance of deep regard and appreciation of services rendered. Prayers for your speedy restoration to health and strength. You are greatly missed."

The Corporation Counsel, continuing said:

"I want to ask this Convention as a little mark of honor to bestow a little distinction on the modest young lady who sits at the table at the right of the High Chief Ranger. We all recognize the fact that during the past year particularly, there has been a very great and tremendous strain upon the office of High Secretary-Treasurer. We are to congratulate ourselves—and I say it with all the earnestness and seriousness that is within my power—that we had in the office of the High Secretary such an eminently capable person as Miss O'Donnell. I regret exceedingly that it is not possible for me to say words that will sufficiently convey to the minds of those not acquainted with the situation the character and the unreserved devotion that she has given to your interests during this trying period. She has demonstrated remarkable ability and a wonderful capacity for dealing not only with men and women, but measures, and I personally have a deep regret, for I think if she were to have placed herself in a position of eligibility for this office, the Convention would, without a dissenting voice, bestow on her this responsible position. There is not a man in the organization, there is not a woman in the organization more eminently equipped than she. She came into the office in the first place under the splendid tuition of the late lamented John J. Leonard, a man of splendid heart and ability for carrying on the work. She had her initial training under him and she trained in a most excellent school. But during the time of her service and doing her duties she was all the time improving herself and making herself more and more competent for the discharge of the duties that came to her, so that when a crisis came to us she was so well qualified that there is not a human being who has had to do with her in the conduct of that office who has a word of adverse criticism for her. Her ability has been beyond question, her kindliness, her womanliness, her gentleness in dealing with everybody who has had anything to do with her has been conspicuous, and I am going to ask the Convention, as a tribute and a little honor to her, by your vote, to make her the Acting High Secretary for this Convention."

Seconded by High Junior Conductor O'Leary. Unanimously carried.

The High Chief Ranger then called upon the Acting High Secretary-Treasurer to read the call for the Convention, which was read as follows:

OFFICE OF THE HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

Brother James J. Lanigan of Cathedral Court No. 1, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported as follows for the Committee: Convention when completed is entitled to 931 Delegates, representing 251 Courts. Credentials have been received from 820 Delegates representing 220 Courts. A protest having been made against the seating of Brother Dennis J. Lynch of Essex Court No. 16, the Committee after hearing recommended that Brother Lynch be seated. On motion duly seconded it was voted the report of the Committee on Credentials be accepted as progressive and the recommendation adopted.

The High Chief Ranger presented to the Convention the Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., High Chaplain, who addressed the delegates as follows:

It is with feelings of the deepest gratitude to Almighty God for His boundless blessing on Forestry that we are assembled here today. It affords me great pleasure to be able to inform you how faithfully the High Standing Committee has accomplished the duties imposed upon it, in the conduct of the affairs of our great organization. Gathered together today, we find ourselves face to face with conditions which will force our organization to remain more faithful than ever to all the principles and teachings of the M. C. O. F. Thank God, since our last convention, the world war, which wrought such havoc, ravaged the hearts of men, and disrupted nations, has been brought to an end. The stupendous work of reconstruction has begun and now more than ever must we realize the absolute necessity there is of our hearty cooperation in promoting the wise plans that are being devised to procure a satisfactory, just and equitable settlement of the problems that confront us on all sides.

Under such new and strange conditions of social unrest, labor difficulties and moral depravity, as an organization having for its object the welfare of Church and State—it devolves upon us to manifest a broader, stronger spirit of self-sacrifice; a keener, more unselfish activity; a firmer, more unyielding determination to exert ourselves to become more deeply imbued with the true characteristic spirit of our organization. We must ever bear in mind the sublime teachings of Mother Church, which for centuries and centuries, has proved herself the staunch, loyal and true friend of law and order. We must cling close to that same loving Mother who, enlightened and guided by the Holy Spirit, has led her triumphant for over 1900 years, through the trials and vicissitudes of warlike nations and persecutions from within and without her pale.

Now, more than ever, do we realize the truth of our Blessed Lord's words, when He said, "Behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world," and again, "The gates of Hell shall not prevail against her."

Appreciate, if you can, the wonderful power for good which you command by the strength of your organization, the far-reaching influence of the members in every walk of society and profession. Consequently, availing yourselves of these resources it becomes your bounden duty to lend your powerful aid to align yourselves with the Church in her never-ceasing efforts to restore all things in Christ and work for the betterment of society and the welfare of the individual. Never deviate from the principles of Faith, inculcated from your tenderest years. Defend the Church against the attacks by which she is being constantly assailed. Today, more than ever, does she lean heavily upon her children for their loyal support in offsetting the baleful influence of present-day pernicious literature, intended to poison the minds and hearts of society and destroy all established order. The many false doctrines being disseminated today have for one of their objects the destruction of Holy Mother Church, especially the salutary influence of her powerful school system. As members of a strong Catholic organization—your plain duty lies before you, and, as your Chaplain, I exhort you to be of "one mind and one heart" in all that concerns the welfare of Holy Mother Church and her defence.

We must never forget, and we must be justly proud of the fact, that the Church is the bulwark of society and it is the only organization that stands today unreservedly for truth and justice.

But, unfortunately, there are many who are continually striving to undermine the Catholic Church and at the same time parade themselves as defenders of state and nation. In attacking the Catholic Church, however, they are assailing the last bulwark of the nation, because she is the one institution that stands inevitably for the eternal principles of truth, justice and purity. It is most evident that there is a growing tendency to disregard all rightly established authority and to fling aside all regard for truth and honesty. Capital, on the one hand, does not hesitate to gorge its millions from the sweat and labor of its employees, while on the other hand, the radical element of labor is inclined to seek redress, by having recourse to methods which do not harmonize with truth and justice. You must never forget that one wrong does not justify another, consequently, must the interested parties apply constitutional methods to bring about an amicable settlement of their difficulties. You are the living exponents of the teachings of the Catholic Church and I appeal to you to direct your powerful influence along the lines which will be in accordance with law and order, truth and justice.

Greatly do we deplore the melancholy condition of the world today. A spirit of unrest, dissatisfaction and discontentedness is rampant and, while nations and rulers of nations have had recourse to plans to restore peace to the world—all have failed and have failed utterly. In the last analysis, there is but one power upon earth which can bring order out of chaos and restore peace to the unhappy peoples of all nations—and that power is the Catholic Church.

All hail then to our Glorious Mother. May her spirit of peace ever reign supreme over the hearts and minds of men that everywhere there may be a lasting, abiding peace "that surpasseth all understanding."

Praying with St. Paul that "The name of Jesus Christ may be glorified in you and you in Him," I implore you to be staunch and loyal defeuders of Holy Mother Church, and faithful members of your own most worthy organization.

Such is the general lesson I would inculcate as a yearly message to you.

And now to the convention.

The past year has been most extraordinary in many ways, as you will learn from the various reports submitted to you. Your High Standing Committee has been untiring in its labors, and this joined to the efforts of the rank and file of our members, has given to our Order a banner year.

Today you will elect to office new members to be your guide for the coming twelve months.

Let me exhort you to act conscientiously and put in position of trust and responsibility only those who by talent and knowledge and experience will lead to success. No thought of personal friendship or to personal appeals shall be heeded. Ask yourself who will serve the Order best, and with this thought in your hearts, do your duty like true Catholic men and women to the end that the coming year and all succeeding years may enrich our golden history with countless works done for God and humanity.

Concluding his address, Father O'Neil thanked the Court for their kindness for the testimonials given him on the occasion of his anniversary. Father O'Neil also requested that as His Eminence, the Cardinal, was away in the Eternal City that the following cablegram be sent him:

May 26, 1920

To His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, Rome, Italy.

Fifty Thousand Members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters through their representatives in Annual Session assembled at Holyoke, beg leave to extend to your Eminence renewed assurance of love, devotion, and loyalty.

Chaplain General, James H. O'Neil

On motion of High Junior Conductor, James E. O'Leary, it was voted that the Convention stand while the greeting was being sent to His Eminence.

On motion of Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19 it was voted that the address of the High Chaplain be accepted and spread upon the records of this Convention.

High Vice-Chief Ranger Sullivan in the chair.

The acting High Chief Ranger called upon High Chief Ranger Thomas to address the Convention.

Address of High Chief Ranger Thomas:

epresentatives to the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters in Forty-first Annual Session Assembled,

Sisters and Brothers:

The passing of time and the constitutional requirement ring us together once more in annual session.

We meet today with a stern realization of the great responsibility which rests upon us as the supreme governing body of our splendid Order in reviewing the work of the last year, and deliberating upon and determining the best methods to insure its future progress.

It is not without sadness that we convene, realizing the great loss sustained during the year by the death of Past High Chief Rangers Daniel A. Cronin and Denis F. Murphy, and Deputy High Chief Ranger Della K. McGeever.

Past Chief Ranger Cronin made an indelible impress upon our organization as the highest type of Catholic Forester. He rendered invaluable service during the entire life of the Order, and his wise counsel and advice will be greatly missed.

Past Chief Ranger Murphy, suddenly called from our midst, is another example of a loyal and devoted Forester, whose zeal and interest, in the welfare of our organization, was always conspicuous.

The passing of Deputy High Chief Ranger McGeever was particularly sad, for she was in the springtime of young womanhood, of splendid natural ability and a safe leader among both the women and the men. Her self-sacrificing devotion to the Order brought on a recurrence of the illness which caused her untimely death.

A year ago no one thought that either of these well-beloved and worthy Foresters would be absent today. May the recollections which our memory of them inspires serve as a stimulus to us in deliberating for the welfare of our Order.

An examination of the detailed report of the High Secretary-Treasurer and a review of the work of the year shows the general condition of the Order to be better than it has been in any year of its existence.

MEMBERSHIP

From January 1, 1919, to January 1, 1920, the increase in membership was 4063. From January 1, 1920, to May 15, 1920, 2333 members have been initiated, making a total increase in sixteen months of 6396. During the last three months the increase in membership has been greater than that of any entire year with the exception of 1913 and 1919. The average age of this increase is 28 years.

When I assumed the position of High Chief Ranger, I urged upon the members of the Order the herculean task of attaining 50,000 membership before its holding of this annual session. While it is not yet clear that we have actually reached that figure, because the final figures are not yet obtainable, since there are many applications received and not yet forwarded to headquarters and initiations not yet held, I may safely say that today we are within a very close margin of the desired goal.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVES

The great success which we have achieved has been in a large measure made possible by one of the many lessons of the great war. That struggle taught the value of "Drives" and the application of the idea to the development of our Order has produced wonderful results.

The cheerful and hearty co-operation given to me by the members of the High Standing Committee, the Deputy High Chief Rangers and the various local committees directing the drives, has been a source of gratification to me, and I heartily and sincerely thank them for their support and encouragement.

FINANCES

The balance in the Mortuary Fund on January 1, 1920, was $46,904.59, against a balance of $13,083.97 on January 1, 1919, with payments of $692,117.84 from this fund during the year. This fund is conservatively and safely invested in first mortgages of real estate, United States Government, State and Municipal Bonds under the direction of a careful, painstaking and earnest board of trustees.

DEATH RATE

The death rate has been normal during the year, 537 deaths having occurred. Fortunately we suffered no after effects of the terrible influenza epidemic of last year.

AUDITING COMMITTEES

Nothing is more important in the conduct of the affairs of a subordinate Court than a proper auditing of the accounts, and I recommend to chief rangers more careful attention to this matter. No one should be appointed to this committee except those who are willing to discharge their duties with care and exactness. A strict adherence to the provisions of the Constitution by this committee and a careful audit of the books in accordance therewith will make it impossible for any serious financial difficulties to arise.

MINIMUM AGE LIMIT

At the last annual session, a proposed constitutional amendment was under consideration which had for its purpose the lowering of the minimum age limit from 18 to 16 years. The convention voted to refer the matter to the High Standing Committee for study with instructions to report to this convention. In behalf of the High Standing Committee, I therefore report that the matter has been duly considered by the committee in the light of such information as could be obtained from organizations which admit members at the age of 16 years, and with the advice of the High Federal Examiner, the Committee has decided that it is inadvisable at the present time to lower the age of admission.

HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

During the year the High Standing Committee has labored hard and faithfully in promoting the general welfare of the Order. The unusual demands upon the members of the committee, resulting from the membership "drives," have been cheerfully met. The spirit of co-operation among the members of the committee has aided the High Chief Ranger very materially in discharging the duties of his office. Large demands have been made upon the High Medical Examiner, Dr. Francis J. Hanley, in dealing with the great increase of membership, and he has maintained the same high standard of examination of all applicants which has been a source of strength to the Order in the past.

The High Secretary-Treasurer, Daniel H. Maguire, has decided to retire from office at this session. It is to be regretted that the condition of his health for the past six months has made it necessary for him to make the decision, for the Order thereby loses the valuable services of one who for ten years has given the best that was in him in faithfully, honestly and diligently discharging the duties of that most important office. Its responsibilities have been borne by him in a most worthy manner. His constant endeavor has been to safeguard the Order in every way.

I extend to him my hearty thanks for his assistance and his many kindnesses to me as High Chief Ranger and as a member of the High Standing Committee for six years.

CHIEF CLERK

I wish to pay a special tribute to Sister Frances M. O'Donnell, the chief clerk in the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer. Her value as a model of efficiency was demonstrated years ago, but during the illness of the High Secretary-Treasurer and the influenza epidemic, she proved to be a "gem of purest ray serene." Her knowledge of the work of the office, her skill in the performance of her duties, her devotion to her work at all hours of the day and night, her kindness towards all and her rare patience and tact in bearing the burden of the work have made it possible for the machinery of the Order to work smoothly during these trying times.

The value of her assistance to your High Chief Ranger and the High Standing Committee cannot be measured in words, but in my humble way, I wish to inform you of the splendid work which she has been doing in her quiet, unassuming manner, and to express to her my deep personal appreciation of the services which she has rendered.

RECOMMENDATIONS

First. I recommend that the incoming High Standing Committee be authorized by this session to consider the advisability of securing a new location for the headquarters of the Order and to make such arrangement as may be deemed necessary in that regard. This recommendation is made because I believe the Order has outgrown its present quarters, which are inadequate, insanitary and afford very little safety for our records in case of fire.

Second. I recommend that this session establish the position of assistant to the High Secretary-Treasurer, who shall be appointed by and perform such duties in the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer as the High Standing Committee may determine.

Third. I recommend that such action be taken as will relieve the High Secretary-Treasurer from the necessity or obligation of making visits to subordinate Courts or functions held by them, to the end that all his energies may be conserved for the exacting daily work of his office.

Fourth. I recommend the establishment of a Speaker's bureau to enable the High Standing Committee to carry on more effectively the work of the Good of the Order.

Today, after six years of service on the High Standing Committee, I return to the ranks. I do so regretfully, for although service on the committee has entailed much sacrifice, the pleasant association with my fellow officers, the many friendships formed throughout the Order and the support and encouragement received at all times have been very gratifying to me, and have served to lighten the burdens of office.

It is a source of great satisfaction to have been a member of the High Standing Committee during the period of the Order's greatest progress, and above all, to have been High Chief Ranger in the most successful year in its history.

In retiring from the High Standing Committee, I desire again to return my thanks to my fellow members, my deputy high chief rangers, the officers of subordinate Courts and the clerical force at headquarters for their constant loyalty and support, and to all others whose assistance and goodwill have contributed to the success of my administration.

I deeply appreciate the great privilege and honor which was conferred upon me when I was elected to the position of High Chief Ranger, and I retire from office conscious of my debt to the organization. I pledge my loyalty to my successor in office and to the Order, and shall be ready at all times to render any assistance in my power to aid in the future growth and development of the largest and best fraternal order in the Commonwealth.

We pray that the Almighty God in His goodness and mercy will take him to His Heavenly Kingdom and that he may enjoy that peace which the world cannot give; and that eternal rest be granted to him."

On motion of Brother Peter Welsh of St. Francis Court No 4 it was voted that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Petitions.

Past High Chief Ranger, Jeremiah G. Fennessey, addressed the Convention as follows:

Thirty-two years ago this coming fall, as High Chief Ranger of the association it was my pleasure and privilege to make a visit to the city by the Merrimac, Haverhill. In the fall of this year, in '88, Merrimac Court was formed. Among the men instituted into the Organization at that time was the man who since became my dear personal friend. The friendship that grew up between us only he and I can tell. I was a frequent guest at his home; I have been with him in his trials and troubles; I have stood by his sickbed and came from there ouly last week to come to this Convention at his request to bring you his love and his regard and I ask for him from your heart and soul your prayers for that splendid type of mankind, the Catholic gentleman, Daniel H. Maguire. And I ask that in the provideuce of God's goodness he may be restored to that health of which at oue time he was such a worthy exponent. And at his request I wish to state that he is not a candidate for the office of High Secretary-Treasurer. He also wishes me to convey to the Delegates his love and his esteem and to say that no matter what befalls him, his hopes and prayers and love will go forth to the organization that he has worked for and loved, and that it will prosper in the way of righteousness and justice and good work.

For High Secretary-Treasurer—Brother James S. Cannon of Middlesex Court No. 60 presented the name of Brother Joseph T. Brennan of Americus Court No. 34, seconded by Sister Susan B. Mahoney of St. Gertrude Court No. 141, Sister Alice Higgins of St. Monica Court No. 78, and Brother Cornelius Duggan of Neponset Court No. 180. Brother Peter A. Welsh of St. Francis Court No. 4 presented the name of Brother Joseph J. Forrester of Americus Court No. 34, seconded by Brother Edmund L. Dolan of Father McGoldrick Court No. 254, and Brother John J. Geoghegan of Americus Court No. 34.

At this time the business of the Convention was suspended while the High Conductors escorted Hon. John F. Cronin, Mayor of Holyoke and Rev. D. J. Tully of Spriugfield to the platform.

The High Chief Ranger presented Hon. John F. Cronin, Mayor of Holyoke, who addressed the Conveution as follows:

Let me first assure you that I am representing the citizens of the City of Holyoke who deeply appreciate the fact that you have selected Holyoke as the place for your Convention. We feel that you have come to the best city in the Commonwealth. It is uot a wealthy city, but we feel that we have a most wonderful community here. The spirit which is always so evident is the spirit which you have brought to this country, or your ancestors, a spirit which is always alive in the city of Holyoke. I am proud to welcome such an organization here because I feel it tends to uplift and strengthen our faith. And during the trying times we are going through we have got to do everything to strengtheu our faith, for without it I shudder to think what might happeu to this country, and to all Catholic organizations is the credit that we are able to keep the couutry under some kind of control.

During your visit here, I hope that you are going to enjoy the hospitality of the city of Holyoke and I want to assure you that if there is anything I cau do to assist in making your stay a pleasaut one I am at your service. There are many places of iuterest here; we are very proud of Mt. Tom, and of the fact that we own a municipal gas and electric department, the most successful in the country. We have our own water works here and the cheapest water rates in the state, or in the country, a railroad owned by the city aud leased to the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company. We are not wealthy, but we are progressive, a good, ordinary, working city. If auy of the delegates care to visit any of our paper uills, or our municipal plants, I will arrange it if you will call on me. I would suggest that you all go up ou Mt. Tom and view the beautiful country, and I hope that when you leave Holyoke you will carry with you a memory of your visit, that you will always feel that you have been to one city which will appreciate your visit, who are predominantly of your kind, and the majority of us in entire sympathy with your uovement. I want to extend to you a most hearty greeting and welcome to the city and assure you that I am voicing the feeling of practically all the people of Holyoke that we are glad to receive you.

The High Chief Rauger introduced the Rev. D. J. Tully, who made the following address:

I wish to thank the M. C. O. F. for the splendid work they have done during the past year in cooperating with the Diocesan Charitable Bureau in the matter of the O'Sullivan-Lawlor Fund, aud Father Scanlan unites with me.

You do not realize the great help that you are giving him and me in your contributions to this Fund. You are pioneers in the work, the fact that you are standing behind us and that we feel that every Forester is interested is a great, great encouragemeut. We are contesting—friendly, of course—with the different charitable orgauizations of the state and unless we have the Catholic people of the state behind us we shall not be able to do the work necessary. For instance, they are launching a drive for $275,000.00, in one organization iu this state, just for one year. And we have to do on our limited income all the work they will do for $275,000.00, a year. So you realize our task is great, and what is true here, is true in Boston. We have a tremendous task in trying to look after the charitable work and even a word said by you is a great, great help, because we must get the message across and have cooperation. Iu taking up the work of the care of delinquent children you are doing a great work. We have been able to get in touch with every Juvenile Court iu this district and there is no child coming into the court today who has no one to look out for it. Many times these children are delinquent because the parents do not care for them. Most of the cases are neglect. That is one reason why I am so interested in Day Nurseries. I have started two aud will do more if they keep on giving me money. I want you to feel that when you are contributing to this fund you are doing one of the greatest charities in the Catholic Church because you are not only taking care of the child when he comes into the court, but enabling us to do preventive work. It is certainly needed in the case of the delinquent child, for in nearly every case the reason is the home. The parents must work, or there is sickness, and if we can take care of the home and cooperate with the parents we will be able to do a great deal. I am very, very thankful to the Courts of the Springfield Diocese for the splendid work they have done in the past. I was much encouraged recently on a visit to a Court in Springfield, one of the banner ones, when they voluntarily donated $100.00 to the Delinquent Fund. I am announcing this so they won't take it back. I thank you very much, all of you, because all of you took this work up at one of your conventions and I am very glad to see that while your great work is that of fraternity you do not forget that there is another fraternity of looking after our less fortunate brethren. Thank you.

Father Tully announced that the hospitality of St. Agnes Guild was open to the Foresters and that during the afternoon a lunch would be served there. He said he would also add his own invitation as he happened to be the Treasurer, and that he wanted them to see the best Day Nursery in Massachusetts, that he was in a position to know as he had seen the others.

At this time the order of business was suspended and the High Chief Ranger introduced Mayor Peter F. Sullivan of Worcester.

ADDRESS OF MAYOR PETER F. SULLIVAN OF WORCESTER, MASS.

I assure you I am delighted with this reception to me. I am as glad to see you as you are to see me. I have come 75 miles to be at this Convention because you are the M. C. O. F. in Convention, the principal reason. Another reason just as great because my fellow-townsman, fellow-citizen, kind father and able worker for this organiation, Jim O'Leary, asked me to come here. You will pardon me for not giving him his official title, but politicians cannot always have all titles in all organizations, because they belong to so many they do not have time to attend to one. I believe I am a member of the organization at the present time. The duties of a mayor are many. I cancelled five engagements to be here. The Mayor of the City of Holyoke, my good friend John Cronin, served in the Senate with me last year in Boston. He, thank God, is mayor of your fine city here of Holyoke, and I am glad to come here and breathe the atmosphere of this city over which John J. Cronin is chief executive. I find myself at this moment pretty near in the position of the old mammy in the South whose husband died from very peculiar circumstances. They called in the coroner and when he came to the door she presented herself. He said to her, "I have come to view the remains." And she said, "All right, Boss, dis are de remains." You will excuse me this afternoon if I will be brief in coming up from Worcester and being given the privilege of addressing you. I read once these lines:

"Laugh and the world laughs with you,
Weep and you weep alone.
When all the world is young, dear friends,
And we are light and gay,
And our praises sung on every tongue
And our cohorts line the way.

When all the world is old
And our spare locks are gray
No more our praises will be told,
No cohorts line the way."

And why do I say these lines this afternoon? Because of your wonderful Order and what you do when death comes to the home. Your organization I am told has paid for the last year a million dollars in death claims in this state and not a single one brought into Court. In Worcester with nearly a quarter of a million population I know that your organization has paid in our city nearly a quarter of a million dollars to the families of deceased members. What a wonderful organization that is, because when death comes we love those who come with a helping hand and a smile to greet us and a material way that pays the bills and with something left perhaps to place in the bank and start over anew when the breadwinner of the family is gone to his last resting-place. You have, I am told, over 800 delegates here and you represent 50,000 families in this Commonwealth. What a wonderful organization this is. We do not need any insurance companies when we have this organization. As a member of the Senate last year it was my privilege to have to say a word for legislation presented to the State along the line of insurance that I thought was fair to the common people in this Commonwealth.

You have your duties before you this afternoon and I do not know as I ought to speak at any greater length. It is warm in here and I know that you have many things yet to do, but as Mayor of the City of Worcester, I have been called upon to act on a budget of over $25,000 for Americauization purposes, and in the schools there I am called upon to pass out plums to men from foreign climes, to men who are in need, and the money is being spent among these people. I have yet to see one of those whom I am looking into this afternoon, that is to say of our race, that no money is being spent on them for Americanization because we are taught it in our Church from the cradle to the grave. And when manhood comes and the flag is threatened our boys of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters have done their great share in the great World War, and no money was needed in my city, or your city, for Americanization for them because we are Americans all the time. So much for that, my friends. Now that the reconstruction period is with us and the days have gone by when the bands were sent out to draft men to kill other men, now that we are in a period where we are coming back again to earth and coming back to God, now is the time we need your M. C. O. F. and your Church, to teach and to preach that Golden Rule of "Do unto others . . ." And I believe that is the foundation of your organization.

In closing I wish you Godspeed in your noble mission and good luck in all your undertakings. And may I say to you also that as we have in our city your Past High Exalted Ranger, my good friend John Harrigan, and we have my good friend and worker for this organization in the highways and byways of my city—because I see him day in and day out holding up some good fellows on the corner and I know he is not preaching politics, or business to him, but Forestry—the city of James O'Leary and the city of the man who is speaking to you, Mayor Sullivan. Come to our city and come soon. I thank you.

At the conclusion of the address, on motion of High Vice-Chief Ranger Hon. William J. Sullivan, seconded by Past High Chief Ranger Fennessey, a rising vote of thanks was given Mayor Sullivan.

Brother P. Sarsfield Cunniffe of Middlesex Court No. 60 reported for the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution.

Presented by P. W. Moriarty, St. Jerome Court No. 113.

Recommended for adoption.

Chairman Cunniffe explained:—These amendments are not propositions submitted to you by the Constitutional Amendment Committee. They are amendments that are submitted to this Committee and have been considered by them so that we have no time to father any of these amendments. They do attempt to give you their best judgment on the merits of these questions. I have no desire to change your wishes, but I do think this one word ought to be said, that at some time in the very near future the safety, the future, the permanency of this organization depends upon not the volume of applications you receive, but on the character of the medical inspection. That is the cornerstone. And you should consider well before you consider any legislation that would in any way reduce the standard and thereby reduce the standard of our membership. Having refused to accept the two preceding amendments, this one now is of no purpose, as you have refused the others. I think your action on this should be rejection in view of your action on the other two.

Brother Patrick Gorman of Fr. O'Connor Court No. 202 moved the adoption of the report of the Committee, and the motion was not carried.

7. Amend Article VIII, Section 1, High Court Constitution, so that the Article as amended shall read:

There shall be established and controlled by the High Court a fund to be known as the Mortuary Fund, which shall be maintained for the purpose of paying to the widows, husbands, children, relatives or dependents of deceased members of the Order the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). This amount shall be payable upon the death of any member in good financial standing to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the member or to any other person or persons legally entitled to receive it. In order to insure the payment thereof the members of the Order shall pay assessments to the Mortuary Fund according as such assessments may be levied by the High Standing Committee. Each member shall pay such assessments at a rate which shall be fixed according to age at initiation, and shall continue to be the same until the member shall have paid into the Order for thirty years, at the end of which time the High Standing Committee shall give him or her a paid up certificate for the rest of his or her life, and said member shall be entitled to all the benefits of the Order, and shall be exempt from paying according to the following table, which is the rate payable by members who have not paid into the Order thirty years:

From 18 to 25 years of age	$ .90
From 25 to 30 years of age	1.00
From 30 to 35 years of age	1.10

I know we have been working hard for the past two years to emphasize the spirit of democracy as we know it. I know it is the desire of every member that a telegram representing this resolution should be sent to the two senators and sixteen congressmen representing this Commonwealth saying one thousaud delegates meeting here in Convention are sending it in opposition to the telegram that went from Harvard College in regard to "our queen," as we know no queen but the queen of our own households. In view of the fact that we have recognized the President of the Irish Republic a year ago in this Convention, we kuow that it is the wish and desire of everyone of us that this telegram be sent forthwith."

Thomas Sproules, Past H. V. C. R.

"Whereas, the Almighty God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in His Great Omnipotence has called to a higher and better life, our beloved brother, Thomas Sproules, to this we bow in humble submission to His Divine Decree.

"Be it Resolved: That in the removal of our late brother Thomas Sproules, a former High Vice-Chief Ranger, from our midst, we, the Representatives of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters in Convention Assembled, May 26th, in the city of Holyoke, Massachusetts, realize the deep loss which our Order has met in such a valued member. We pray that the Almighty God in His goodness and mercy will take him to His Heavenly Kingdom and that he may enjoy that peace which the world cannot give; and that eternal rest be granted to him."

Past High Chief Ranger Jeremiah G. Fennessey addressed the Convention as follows:

During the past year the angel of death entered our midst and took three brilliant minds out of our organization, in consequence of which I arise to make a motion. They were devoted and loyal members of the Order. Two of them, I knew as well as if they were my own brothers. Thirty-six years ago, I met the late Past High Chief Ranger, Daniel A. Cronin, in the city of Boston. We were both in the same room in the Court House of Suffolk County for nine years. We met daily for a period of nearly thirty-six years. I knew his wishes, his ambitions and his desires. He was a loyal friend, a wise counsellor, a good, honest presiding officer, a devoted father, a loyal citizen, a splendid type of soldier from '61 to '65, typical of that race of men who know no fear and who bring to this land the true Irishman who makes the real American. He was my friend and I was his and though, at times, we differed in matters of policy, no difficulty ever came between us to weaken the brotherhood of love which commenced in 1884. And I may say, too, that if, in the early days I was able to come to these conventions, it was due, in a great measure, to the fact that there stood in my place in the office my friend to do my work, my friend then, my friend in later years even after we separated in our official duties. There was no purer, no better, no higher type of man, no more loyal citizen, no better father or husband than the man who loved you all, as Daniel A. Cronin did.

Past High Chief Ranger Dennis E. Murphy I met years ago in Brockton, and I remember 14 years ago last January he called upon me and sought my advice about his being a candidate for High Chief Ranger. I said, "Brother Murphy, I think you ought not to take it because of the great personal sacrifices you will be obliged to make, but if you want it, I am with you and I will support you." He said he wanted it. He became a candidate and the convention elected him. He was deeply interested in the welfare of the Order; he made the necessary sacrifices and rendered valuable and efficient service in the discharge of his duties. Ten days before his death he was in Boston and called upon me. We had a pleasant chat and he was feeling in excellent condition. Then came the sudden announcement of his death in the hospital, and the loss to the Order of one of its strong and loyal champions.

Past High Outside Sentinel George Dorman. You in Worcester and the western part of the State know him well. Active, modest and sincere, with deep interest in the organization and its progress. These men have done their duty and done it well and all that we can do is to pay a simple tribute in the form of a resolution, so that other men and women may be reminded of their work and may be inspired to follow in their footsteps. Well may we say "Well done, good and faithful servants." The greater glory is theirs. They lived good lives. They died the deaths of good men and we earnestly pray that God has taken them to His heavenly kingdom. I move that a committee of four be appointed to draft suitable resolutions upon the death of these three brothers.

On motion of Past High Chief Ranger Fennessey, duly secouded, it was voted that a committee of four be appointed to draft resolutions, and the High Chief Ranger appointed Past High Chief Ranger Jeremiah G. Fennessey, Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan, corporation counsel, Past High Vice-Chief Ranger P. Sarsfield Cunniffe and Hon. William P. Hayes.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF SISTER DELLA K. McGEEVER

Brother Frank A. Tracey of Iona Court No. 10, Chairman of the Committee, reported as follows:

In Memoriam

Della K. McGeever

Whereas, the Almighty in His wisdom and love has called our beloved Sister Della K. McGeever to a higher and better life, we bow with humble submission to His Divine decree.

Her many commeudable qualities of mind and heart, her years of steadfast loyalty to the principles of our Order, as a member and Officer of St. Josephine Court and also as a Representative of the High Court, commend her memory to every true Forester throughout the Commonwealth.

Called to God in the prime of vigorous womanhood, the loss to her family is irreparable, to her friends deep and sincere, and to the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters a loss which inevitably arises when the voice of one who has worthily stood high in its councils is stilled by the Angel of Death.

In recording an expression of the regret we feel at what seems to our dim eyes an untimely death, we must not overlook the eternal fact that the summous has been from God, who watches over the destiuy of us all, and that the passing of our departed Sister must be accepted as the all-wise manifestation of the will of our Creator.

Therefore, be it Resolved, By the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters through its Representatives in Aunual Session, that we express our appreciation of the deep loss which our Order has sustained by the death of a valued member. We pray that God in His Goodness and mercy will take her to His Heavenly Kingdom and that she may enjoy that peace which the world cannot give and that eternal rest may be granted to her.

Ou motion of Brother William P. Hayes of Fr. Sherry Court No. 251, it was voted that the resolutions be adopted as read.

On motion of High Senior Conductor Thomas F. Haley, it was voted that we extend to the Courts of the City of Holyoke, our sincere thanks for the reception tendered the Delegates.

A rising vote of thanks was given.

On motion of Corporation Counsel Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan it was voted that when the Convention adjourned it adjourn to meet at Headquarters Tuesday, June 1, at 8.00 o'clock.

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY

The year 1920 proved, financially and numerically, to be the most successful in the history of the Order, our financial standing showing a marvelous growth, and the net gain in membership being the largest ever attained in any one year. This record was made possible by the constant, untiring, zealous work of the High Standing Committee, and the splendid co-operation of the officers and members of Subordinate Courts, whose care in selecting new members made it possible to have the lowest average age ever reported. Let us hope that, during the years to come, the same care in securing applicants will be maintained.

During 1920 the Order was most fortunate in having a normal death rate. Notwithstanding the net increase in membership of 3,996, only seven more deaths were reported over 1919. As a consequence, this resulted in the largest mortuary balance ever attained in the forty-two years existence of our Order.

OFFICERS

I desire to call the attention of the officers of Subordinate Courts to the importance of immediate transmission to the office of the High Secretary Treasurer, of official documents for record. Delay in forwarding initiations, suspensions, re-instatement of suspended members, change of designation of beneficiaries, withdrawal cards, and certificates of death retards the work of the office, and is liable to cause a serious situation to arise. This is particularly true on certificates of death. In a few cases, four months had elapsed before the official notice was received, and in a number of cases from two weeks to a month elapsed before the certificate of death was received at headquarters. This carelessness results in delaying the payment of the benefit due and, in some cases, consequent hardship.

More care should be taken in making out "suspension of a member" forms. A large percentage of these papers are returned for correction, in many cases to have the seal of the Court affixed, or for the signature of the proper officers, but in most cases they are returned for a statement as to the cause of suspension. The time spent in making these corrections results in a delay in completing the record. I would also call your attention to a common error made in making out the "re-instatement of a suspended member" forms, namely: the cause of suspension on the re-instatement paper does not agree with that given on the suspension paper. For example: A member may have been suspended, and the cause, as stated in the suspension paper, was the failure to pay mortuary calls; when the suspended member was re-instated, the cause of suspension given on the re-instatement paper was the failure to pay Court dues. Both papers must agree in every detail to avoid unnecessary delay in completing the member's office record.

Action is delayed on numerous applications on account of the carelessness of the applicant in answering the questions contained in the application blank, neglecting to designate a beneficiary, not giving the name and number of the Court into which he is seeking admission, or failure to sign the contract printed on the front page of the application blank. I, therefore, respectfully ask the Recording Secretaries to co-operate in eliminating the above mentioned causes of delay by carefully examining the applications presented to their respective Courts.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

In previous reports attention has been called to the failure of many Courts in forwarding to headquarters, quarterly reports. I regret to say this situation still exists. Sixty Courts during the latter part of 1920 failed to comply with the Constitution in this respect, and I respectfully ask the Representatives to this Convention to call the attention of the officers of their Courts to this very important duty.

NEW COURTS

During 1920, the following five new Courts were instituted:

April 5—Rev. James M. Supple Court, No. 265, of Charlestown, with fifty-six charter members.

May 2—Mystical Rose Court, No. 266, of East Walpole, with thirty-one charter members.

May 23—Rev. Joseph F. Mohan Court, No. 267, of Everett, with sixteen charter members.

November 7—Rt. Rev. James J. Chittick Court, No. 268, of Readville, with thirty-one charter members.

December 19—St. Gabriel Court, No. 269, of Salem, with twenty-eight charter members.

GENERAL FUND

The expense account payments during 1920 were in excess of other years. The increase in the cost of supplies over previous years was from fifty to two hundred per cent. The expenses incurred by the High Standing Committee in attending installations, public meetings, class initiations, anniversaries, and other Court functions, show an increase over former years. These increases are due to prevailing conditions. This situation also applies to the expenses of Deputy High Chief Rangers and Degree Staffs who took part in 273 installations during the months of January and October. An amendment, adopted at the forty-first Annual Session, changing the time of elections from December to September, and the installations from January to October, was the reason for the second installation of officers held last October. Another item of expense was the distribution of the M. C. O. F. Herald, free of charge, to the members of the Order during 1920. The High Standing Committee deemed it advisable on account of the increased cost of production, to discontinue the publication of the Herald after December 31, 1920. From the time of the first issue in 1918 until it was discontinued, the Herald proved to be a splendid medium for dispensing Forestry and keeping the Subordinate Courts in close touch with each other. It was indeed, unfortunate to terminate its career of usefulness, after more than two years of success.

HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

During the year, the High Standing Committee held fifty-one meetings, with an average attendance of sixty-six and two-thirds per cent. In addition to this attendance at regular meetings, the members of the Committee have made eight hundred thirty-six visits to Subordinate Courts. The Committee has been active and zealous in the discharge of its duties, and the interest manifested individually by the members of the Committee has done much to obtain the excellent results achieved during the year 1920.

The Order has been benefited by the splendid leadership of our most worthy High Chief Ranger, Brother William J. Sullivan, and his valuable services to the Order are deserving of your kindest thought and appreciation.

The co-operation of all the members must not relax in the future because of the present strength of the Order. The greatest care must be exercised with reference to membership in the Order and every member and each Subordinate Court must co-operate with the High Standing Committee in securing only the best and most desirable risks. With this thought firmly in mind, the future of the Order is secure and its proud record of past achievements will be maintained and continued in the years to come.

With deep feeling of gratitude for the many courtesies extended to me during my tenure of office by the High Standing Committee, Deputy High Chief Rangers, officers and members of Subordinate Courts and best wishes for the welfare and happiness of each member of our beloved Order, this report is

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH J. FORRESTER,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

On motion of Brother Lanigan of Cathedral Court No. 1, seconded by Brother Barry of Iona Court No. 10, it was voted that the recommendation of the Committee on Credentials be adopted and its report accepted as progressive.

The High Chief Ranger presented to the Convention Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., who addressed the delegates as follows:—

ADDRESS OF REV. JAMES H. O'NEIL, LL. D., HIGH CHAPLAIN

THE PRACTICAL CATHOLIC

Brother and Sister Delegates:

The two standards of the world, around which rally the human family are the standards of good and of evil; of light, of darkness; of virtue, of vice. It was ever thus, from that time when the rebellious angels under the leadership of Lucifer defied their Lord and Maker and for their sin were hurled from the ramparts of heaven into the prison of hell.

Think not that these fallen angels are deprived of their power. On the contrary, they are the power and rulers of the world of darkness. Their loss of God and the Beatific Vision, their jealousy of man, who is destined to succeed them in Paradise, fills them with insatiable hate that will be satisfied only by robbing God of the souls created and redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ.

Two armies contend for the mastery; one led by Jesus Christ, the other by Satan. Men battle for right and justice. Men battle for sin and vice. To which army do you belong? For to one of them you owe allegiance. We cannot be neutral. A man must be for Christ and His Church or against them. He is either helping to build and strengthen the Church instituted by Christ, or by acts and words he is helping to tear it down. The one great question of our time: Are we doing all we can to promote the interest of God among men? Are we true soldiers of Jesus Christ, or are we emissaries of Satan?

Daily we cry out in the prayer taught by Jesus Christ "Thy Kingdom come." Such mockery! With lips we pray for God's Kingdom; with acts and scandals we seek to destroy it.

Am I with God? Am I a believer in the resurrected God? Have I faith? Have I religion? Do they regulate my life? Thank God I am a Catholic. I was brought to the fountain of Baptism and there was cleansed from the sin of Adam. There I renounced the devil and all his works and pomps. As I grew to manhood, the Bishop anointed my forehead with holy chrism and I solemnly promised to be ever faithful to the dictates of holy faith and to give my life, if ever it was required of me, in the defence of God and virtue.

Thus in my early days I was a practical Catholic. With all the fervor and enthusiasm of youth I embraced the Lord and Him alone I vowed to serve. As time passed I was brought in contact with the world and its scandals, with vice and its alluring aspect. Did I waver in my allegiance to the Cross of Christ? Did I forget my Baptism and Confirmation vows? Alas, be it written in tears this is the sad, sad story of many a life.

But I did not choose to be a Catholic. Of course you did not, for you could not. The water of Baptism was stamped indelibly on your souls, the image of Christ, to be forever for weal or for woe, you cannot erase it. It remains forever a glory in Heaven or a condemnation in Hell. But are you a Catholic? Yes, so far as you cannot help it. Are you a practical Catholic? Or are you a Catholic in the daily practices of your life? Are your words, your acts, your thoughts, your aspirations as the law of God requires? Does your life ring true? Are the commandments of God and of His Holy Church abided by? Do you measure up to all the requirements of an honest, true Catholic?

What can be reasonably demanded of a practical Catholic? He must be a man of faith and a man of religion. Oh the precious gift of faith! This guiding light illumines the heart of man and guides him to God. Of all the gifts God has bestowed on man, there is none that surpasses the gift of faith. What would it profit a man if he gained the whole world, if all the pleasures, the riches of life were laid at his feet, and the gift of faith, that told him of God, was denied him? "All these," cried out Satan, "I will give Thee, if falling down you will adore me."

One of the Apostles, strange as it may seem, was lacking in faith. Easter week, after the resurrection of our Lord, the Apostles met in an upper chamber. Thomas was not there. When he returned, the others said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said, "Unless I shall see the marks in His hands and put my finger into His wounds, I will not believe." After eight days the Apostles were again together, and this time Thomas was with them. Our Lord entered and said, "Peace be to you." Turning to Thomas, He said to him with loving kindness, "Put in thy finger hither and see My hands; and bring hither thy hand and put it into My side; and be not faithless, but believing." Thomas, falling down in adoration cried out "My Lord and my God." Be sure ever after Thomas was a practical Catholic and gave his blood in defence of Christ and His doctrine.

Oh my dear Foresters, be proud of your costly inheritance. Never conceal it, never be ashamed to profess it, never blush for it, never let it be tainted by participation in non-Catholic enterprises. Ever guard, protect and preserve it, that by its radiance you may pass from faith to the realization of all it promises in time and eternity.

The practical Catholic is in the second place a religious man. His faith is like a seed that is planted. It is not dormant, and incomplete. It is on the contrary the grand work of a religious character which shines before men and leads them to God. Living in the midst of scandals and irreligion, the practical Catholic man preaches daily by his life and imprints deeply on the hearts of his fellow man the command which the Creator thundered forth on Mount Sinai, "The Lord, Thy God thou shalt adore and Him alone shalt thou serve." He is a beacon light, therefore, to those in darkness, a spur for the lagging, a staff for those who falter. The religious man is truly a man with many virtues, walking before God with the intention of always doing His will, kneeling before God's altar while the holy Sacrifice of Calvary is renewed, his heart is with God. He is always mindful of God's presence, of that presence which sees his every act and thought and heart's desire. In speech he guards his lips with prayerful zeal, lest they offend charity or justice. The religious man is a man of prayer, constantly acknowledging before God his own helplessness, selfishness and weakness, he offers up his humble, confident and persistent prayer. Such is the religious man. Apply this test to your lives and see if you measure up to the character of a true follower of Christ.

What has all this to do with Foresters? How does it affect our great Order? To be a Forester, true and staunch, you must not only be a Catholic, but you must also be a practical Catholic—At Communion at least once a year at Easter time—Attending Mass on Sundays and holy days—Observing the commandments of God and of His Holy Church. Failing in these, are you worthy to become a member of this great Order? Investigating Committees must look into the conditions and be assured that any applicant for membership is not only a baptized Catholic, but also an everyday practical member of Christ's Church.

It will surprise you to know that we have in our history paid the $1,000 to Protestants—That divorced people have applied for membership and their cases referred to the High Standing Committee, and the High Court Chaplain.

Our beloved Order will suffer if this be allowed to go on. Laxity in faith and morals and lack of the true, strong and practical faith must not be found in our ranks. To live for God, for the protection of widow and orphan, our lives must be pure and honest and faithful in all things that concern God and His Holy Church. "Learn of Me," says our Divine Master, "for I am the way, the truth and the life."

On motion of Brother Thomas F. Kelley of St. Jerome Court No. 113, seconded by Brother John McGaffigan of Father Supple Court No. 265, it was voted that the address of the High Court Chaplain be accepted and spread upon the records of the Convention.

At this time the business of the Convention was suspended when the High Vice-Chief Ranger announced the arrival of his Excellency Channing H. Cox, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, who was escorted to the platform by the High Conductors.

The High Chief Ranger introduced Governor Cox to the Convention, who, after an enthusiastic reception welcomed the delegates and extended to them the greetings of the Commonwealth. The Governor paid a splendid tribute to the High Chief Ranger and made an inspiring address which was enthusiastically received.

On motion of Sister Margaret Murphy of Ave Maria Court No. 160, seconded by Brother James McCabe of Jamaica Plain Court No. 261, it was voted that a rising vote of thanks be extended to the Governor for his spirited words of welcome this morning.

At the conclusion of the Governor's address the business of the Convention was resumed.

Brother James F. Grady of SS. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, took the floor at this time to say an honor had been conferred upon him by his Court in delegating him to present to the High Chief Ranger, Brother William J. Sullivan, a token of their esteem. Brother Grady then presented to the High Chief Ranger a beautiful watch charm suitably inscribed. The High Chief Ranger in accepting the gift expressed to S.S. Peter and Paul Court, through its delegates, his deepest appreciation and sincere thanks.

The High Chief Ranger called upon P. H. C. R. Brother Joseph T. Brennan to take the chair.

P. H. C. R. Brennan called upon the High Chief Ranger to address the Convention.

ADDRESS OF HIGH CHIEF RANGER, WILLIAM J. SULLIVAN

Again the cycle of time has gone the round of the clock, and we are here to render our report of the work entrusted to our care one year ago:

We are here to perform a sacred duty to ourselves and to our beloved Order; let us trust that the Divine Blessing that has already been invoked for us will be granted and that our deliberations will bear rich fruit in what the day brings forth, will redound to the credit of ourselves and this great organization.

Be careful in our judgments, be wise in our counselings and be cool in our deliberations and the results that are achieved will be very satisfactory to all.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE ORDER

The character and the standing of the membership of the Order has always been one of pride to its members, so we can truly say to the Order at large that the class of candidates that has been initiated into the Order during the past year is in all respects up to the splendid standard so well established in the past both in character as well as in physical excellence. Membership in our Organization carries with it a distinction of loyalty to Holy Mother Church as well as loyalty to our Beloved Country and to this Grand Old Commonwealth.

We must always bear in mind that this Order is not a flower that was born to blush unseen, but the fragrance of its beauty has spread and is spreading so that it is reaching the hearts of thousands each year who are being enrolled in our midst, therefore, we must not imagine, or allow others to think we are wasting our sweetness on the desert air.

The year ending with December 31, 1920, gave wonderful evidence of the great hold our Beloved Order has upon the affection of the Catholic people of this Commonwealth, the attraction to our fold of more than five thousand members who were in need of insurance is the most powerful guarantee of the stability of this great work that we are carrying on with.

During the year we had admitted into the Order men and women of the highest type of Catholic manhood and womanhood to be found in this State. There is no necessity of offering any apology for their membership, the physical qualifications exacted by our medical examiners warrant them as extremely good risks.

We have met with the usual losses in death, resignation, and suspension; by death we had 544 and all other losses amounted to 569, making the total losses for the year 1,113, giving us a membership on the first day of the year 1921 of 51,132, a net gain during the year of 3,996.

Never before in the history of our Organization has there been greater devotion to the interests of this great work than was shown during the past year. The support given without stint by the Clergy of the entire state regardless of what activities they may have had under way was wonderful, they have always lent a helping hand, cheerfully, willingly and loyally for which I take this opportunity to express on your behalf our utmost gratitude.

NEW COURTS

During the past year there have been five new Courts instituted: No. 265, Rev. James M. Supple Court of Charlestown with fifty-six charter members. This Court was instituted on the fifth day of April 1920. It is composed of men and women, and the average age was 29.4.

Court No. 266, Mystical Rose Court of East Walpole, was instituted on the second of May, 1920, with thirty-one new members, whose average age was 24.6. This Court is composed of men and women.

Court No. 267, Rev. Joseph F. Mohan Court of Everett was instituted on the twenty-third of May, 1920, with sixteen charter members, whose average age was 31.6. This Court is composed of men and women.

Court 268, Right Reverend James J. Chittick Court of Readville. This Court was instituted on the seventh day of November 1920, with thirty-one charter members. It is composed of men and women and the average age was 27.5.

Court No. 269, St. Gabriel Court of Salem, was instituted on the nineteenth day of December, 1920. This Court is also composed of men and women and at the time of its institution had twenty-eight new members whose average age was 26.

IN MEMORIAM

There passed from our midst during the past year a Priest of God, who had given yeoman service to this Order in the springtime of its life, guiding and advising the leaders with whom he served with great intelligence and foresight, avoiding many obstacles that appeared in the path of the Organization and showing by his wisdom that he was a real leader of the people.

It was my good fortune to have first been thrown in contact with him when I was a boy going to Sunday school, where he was located as a Curate, and where he directed the minds of the youth towards their God.

As a Priest he taught high ideals by example, he was a firm believer in truth, integrity, and justice, he was a great Churchman, he was a strong friend, and a noble citizen, bearing a great Celtic name that lost none of its brilliancy by his wearing it. When he passed away the Order, the State, the City, the Nation, and Holy Mother Church were the losers by his death; let our sincere prayer be that the soul of the late Reverend Hugh Roe O'Donnell, Past High Court Chaplain of this Order has won the goal that he in life had trained himself to win, an abiding place with his Heavenly Father for all eternity.

DELINQUENCY

The following letter was received from Rev. Michael J. Scanlan, STL, Director of the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston:

My dear Mr. Sullivan:

The approach of the Annual Convention of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters near at hand offers me the occasion to extend to you, and through you, to the members of the High Court my sincere gratitude as Director of the Catholic Charitable Bureau for the splendid help which your Order has given us during the past year in our work for the protection of delinquent Catholic children. I am sure that neither you nor the members of your organization realize the tremendous encouragement that the substantial contributions of the various Courts of Foresters give to us in this Bureau in our efforts for the betterment of the less fortunate among our Catholic children.

Since your Annual Convention of 1912, your great Order has contributed each year a very substantial sum to the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston for the maintenance of one of its most necessary activities Your great Order has lived up very devotedly and very substantially to the promises made to this Bureau in the convention of 1912, and we cannot convey to you, and through you, to the members of the Order, too strongly how deeply grateful we are for all that has been done. In this expression of our gratitude I am conveying to you the appreciation so often expressed by His Eminence, the Cardinal, in your regard. His Eminence values very much indeed what the great Catholic organizations of this state are doing, to uphold our charitable works, and he is in a particular way grateful for what the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters has done along charitable lines.

The purpose for which the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters agreed to give to the Catholic Charitable Bureau annually their moral and financial support was that we Catholics might succeed in reducing very appreciably the number of our children, who from year to year, came under the control of public authorities because of delinquency or neglect. We are very happy to be able to say that since 1912 there has been a notable decrease in the proportion of the Catholic children in this state who came under the control and supervision of the public authorities. This is a fact that is altogether creditable to our Catholic people, and one that reflects very special credit upont the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

During the year 1920 this Bureau received from your Order the sum of eight hundred and seventy-three dollars. While we are very thankful indeed for this substantial allowance, we sincerely hope that a greater number of the Courts, throughout the Archdiocese, can be induced to make a contribution to this work. If we were able to receive a contribution from every Court in the Archdiocese there is a much greater work, up to the present, left undone, which we should be very happy to take up.

While we are most appreciative of all that the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters has done to date for the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston, may I urge upon you, and through you upon all the members of your Order, the worthiness of the cause for which we plead. We desire more money for nothing else than for the purpose of extending the finest sort of service to those of our Catholic children, who need our help.

We know that a mere suggestion of this matter to your Order will be sufficient to bring about the desired results. We wish the annual sum devoted to this cause to be in keeping with the importance of the work at hand, to be worthy of the great society that contributes it, and be a fitting contribution to the memory of those two splendid pioneers, Mr. O'Sullivan and Lawlor, who by their own tireless efforts and devotion to high principles made possible the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Wishing the members every success in the coming convention, I am, dear Mr. Sullivan,

Very sincerely yours,

M. J. SCANLAN.

COURT CHAPLAINS

Under the direct selection of the High Court Chaplain, Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., and with the approval of the Ecclesiastical authorities in this state, there has been appointed a Priest as Court Chaplain to attend to the spiritual wants and to advise in the guidance of each Court in this great Order of ours:

These men are carefully trained for the wonderful vocation that they have chosen and our Organization has a special privilege in having their assistance and guidance in shaping the course that we pursue from year to year,

This is a wonderful unit for the successful carrying on of the work of the Order and I now in your behalf send to the Chaplains of this Order our sincere thanks for the wonderful co-operation shown during the years 1920 and 1921.

MEDICAL EXAMINERS

We have organized under the direct supervision of the High Medical Examiner, Doctor Hanley, one of the best units to be found in this Commonwealth, namely the Medical Examiners of the local Courts, all of whom are practically members of this Order.

The service that these men are giving this Organization is of the highest, the systematic organization that has been developed, the wonderful co-operation that has been shown by this large corps of trained men, giving to this Order a technical as well as a scientific training, is receiving the highest commendation from the members of this Organization, and I now in your behalf spread upon the records of this the Forty-second Annual Convention our sincere thanks and heart-felt gratitude for the fidelity and faithfulness in the service rendered the Order in the past.

DEPUTY HIGH CHIEF RANGERS

With the wonderful growth of our Organization and its great interests, the Deputy High Chief Rangers must give more attention to the detail work of the Courts over which they are appointed to preside.

Where the liabilities are growing so rapidly and its financial resources are mounting into large figures the Deputy must be more careful and more exacting and firmer in his conduct in supervising the Court's activities.

Again there has been too much wild and unnecessary criticism of the High Standing Committee coming from irresponsible persons that creates a very unhealthy sound. It has a dangerous tendency to stop the great work of securing good wholesome candidates who make splendid members for our Order.

The Deputies can stop this dangerous practice, take these critics sharply to task, reprove them for their wild statements, demand of them the proof of their criticism and if they fail order them to forever hold their peace.

Here again, there is another unit of wonderful power and force for carrying forward the work of our Order most successfully. With the great morale of this strong unit and the splendid cooperation that they are able to develop, it is easy to be seen why we have such a strong hold on the love, affection and esteem of the Catholic people of this great Commonwealth.

My dear Deputies, keep in mind the principle of Unity, next to the Medical Examiners, the unity of purpose that you develop by your efforts, by the co-operation you give the officers that preside over the Courts that you are in charge of, and by your attention to the details of your office, will give you the added feeling and strength of a duty well performed, and in the words of the Lecturer on Unity, "Let me say, with my single voice. I admonish you, remember your promises and perform your duty well."

DEGREE STAFFS

If I did not comment on the wonderful work done during the year by the various Degree Staffs, that give so generously of their time, their energy and their talents, I would be very amiss in my duty to this splendid department that reflects so much praise upon our beloved Order; their neatness in costume, their modesty of manner and demeanor in the work they perform is highly commendable to the entire force that they represent; their intelligence, their beauty, their accomplishments, and their splendid personality redound to the great credit of themselves and to our Order.

CONSTITUTION

After my long experience on the High Standing Committee, and the great expansion of our Organization I feel that the time has come for a complete revision of our Constitution.

The Constitution of this Order is the basic and fundamental law on which we have to work out the destiny of our Order. This law should be as sound as men and women of sound principles can possibly make it; I have found many ambiguities in the various sections of the Constitution which I recommend for revision.

Let me cite a very strong example of what I want to represent. A young man joins the Order. At the time of his initiation he is single; he later marries and brings into the world a family. At the time he joins the Order he names a brother or a sister as his beneficiary. When the proof of his death comes to headquarters, we find that there has never been any change made in the beneficiary by the deceased in his life-time for the protection of his family, and the widow and her children are deprived of what is theirs by all moral right as the dependents of the deceased.

Here is a good faithful woman, who has done her duty to her husband and her family, deprived of the protection that she was rightfully relying upon, and the very purpose which this Order was created for, namely, the protection of the widow and the orphan, is defeated.

I cite this as only one of the many instances that could be rectified by a complete revision of the fundamental law of the Order, the Constitution.

I earnestly recommend that this Convention authorize me as your High Chief Ranger to appoint a committee of five to revise and to re-write the Constitution and that said committee report their findings to the High Standing Committee on or before the 31st day of December, 1921.

That the High Standing Committee then submit the report of said committee on revision of the Constitution to the various Courts on or before the first day of March, 1922, on a referendum vote on the acceptance of said report and that the result of the referendum be announced at the next Annual Convention.

Now my dear Delegates, allow me to ask you a few simple questions: What did you do last year to earn the right to sit here as Delegates to represent your Court? To legislate for the 52,000 members of this Organization?

How many meetings of your Court did you attend? How many applications of new members did you present to your Court? Did your Court have a drive for new members? What part did you take in the drive? Did you try to interest other members to take more active interest in the wonderful work that the Order is doing?

Ask yourself these questions and then answer them to yourself, but, remember this: You are all members of this Order, that you have promised to work for us all the time, stand by us, speak well of us, think well of us, give us all of your loyalty and not a part of it, to give us your united support at all times, that you continue to encourage the confidence that has been established among the people of our faith, of the stability, of the soundness and the sanity of our Order.

I can do that with another that I cannot do alone; a sound apple produces seed, and a sound Forester secures others to become Foresters.

What this Order needs now more than ever, is personal service, that service that begets new members, keeps a watchful eye on the expenses of the Court and of the Order in the interest of economy, keeping a careful eye to see that the resources of the Order and of the individual Court always exceeds the output. This is the personal service that means so much not only to the individual, but to the entire Order.

As plants convert the minerals into food for animal use, so each man converts some raw material in nature to human use.

Now let us apply this principle to our own benefit, each Forester convert some young person that he knows into a Forester; what is good, is effective, particularly moral and mental force; it goes out from you, whether you will or not, and profits me whom you never thought of.

You cannot ever hear of personal vigor, such for instance as a great feat of strength, or a prodigious piece of mental work, a great power or performance, without making a firm resolution of doing something similar.

Let us develop with a stronger and firmer purpose a greater affection for one another, for there is a power in love to divine another's destiny better than that other can.

What has friendship so signal as its sublime attraction to whatever virtue is in us.

Let us adopt the philosophy of that great American, Abraham Lincoln, "When I am dead, I want it to be said of me by those who knew me best, that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower where I thought a flower would grow."

There is a great deal of unrest throughout this great Country of ours, an evil spirit that is working severe harm, not only to the individual, but also to the State and Country.

You and I, as citizens of these United States, must fight this spirit with all our might and main so that this evil tendency shall not get control of our form of government.

FRATERNALISM has a wonderful influence on our government and all its institutions, it has had a wonderful influence in making this country the greatest land of Freedom that the World has ever known. See to it then that we as members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters do nothing by inference, by implication or by direct action that will ever endanger the land of the free and the home of the brave.

We must develop in the minds and hearts of our members a desire to attend regularly our bi-monthly meetings and in this manner be brought in contact with one another so as to renew our interests in the life and success of the Order.

Let the Great Spirit of Fraternity reign amongst us and let the Order go forward and our love for this great Organization will be stronger and deeper than ever.

For seven years I have labored to the best of my ability for the advancement and development of this Order along well defined and progressive lines.

I have given the best my humble efforts could afford, so that this beautiful work of Forestry could be carried on for the welfare of those who are yet to come into our fold.

I relinquish my office with the deepest gratitude to the rank and file of the members of the Order for the courtesy always shown me in my official visits to the various courts; to you the delegates who have bestowed upon me the great honor of being the High Chief Ranger, I can only say that I thank you with the fullness of my heart; to my associates on the High Standing Committee, past and present, may God bless and strengthen you for the many sacrifices that you are called upon to make in the interest of the Order, and may He in His Divine wisdom give you special graces to carry on the principles of Faith, Unity, Fraternity and True Christian Charity.

WILLIAM J. SULLIVAN,
High Chief Ranger.

On motion of Brother Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, seconded by Sister Margaret Leahy of Alma Mater Court No. 114, it was voted that the address of the High Chief Ranger be accepted and referred to the Committee on State of the Order.

High Chief Ranger Sullivan in the chair.

Address of the High Medical Examiner

At the Forty-second Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, Wednesday, May 25, 1921

Sister and Brother Foresters:

The annual report of your High Medical Examiner is here laid before you, showing at a glance the work of the year just closed. Much can be learned from a careful perusal of the various tables, epitomizing the strict attention paid to our Order's welfare by the entire staff of trusted ladies and gentlemen who make up our medical corps.

During the year 1920 nearly six thousand men and women were examined for admission to our Order, with six hundred thirty-three rejections. This fact alone speaks volumes for the conscientious work of our local Examiners, and this work should and must be upheld by the entire membership of our Organization, if we desire to have the existing standard of the Medical Department maintained.

There have been a few necessary changes in the personnel of the staff of local Examiners during the past year, but I am pleased to state that for the most part we have today the same reliable men and women who have carried on this work so successfully for many years, and whose loyalty to this work and the Order's welfare is unquestionable.

The Mortuary table shows that five hundred forty-four members (366 men and 178 women) died during the year 1920.

EARLY DEATHS

The following table shows the number of deaths in members who were less than two years in our Order. In 1920 there were twenty-four deaths in this class. Investigation shows that practically none of these deaths were preventable, and when we take into consideration that in the past two years over ten thousand men and women were admitted with a total early death record of thirty-four for 1919 and 1920, our mortality rate for this class is well within the normal limits:

In many previous reports we have earnestly called your attention to a matter of great and far reaching importance to each Court and in a much larger sense to the Order itself, viz., the utter indifference to the work of investigating committees.

If any attention was ever given, if notice was even taken of our efforts to arouse interest in this most necessary work, the results in this office do not indicate it. With the rapid growth of the past two years likely to continue, the necessity for a rigid investigation of applicants is so apparent that we must insist that this matter be given the attention by the Subordinate Court officers that it demands.

There may be reasons, not apparent, why any Court may assume to set aside any section of the Constitution, but there are stronger reasons why that section relative to the "Duties of Investigating Committees" should be strictly observed.

Were it not for the assistance rendered this office by our local Medical Examiners in special reports along the lines that should be reported by Investigating Committees, many applicants recorded in the rejection tables would have been admitted to membership and later prove early liabilities. Despite this fact or perhaps on account of it, there is a growing tendency on the part of some proposers of candidates to seek to have them examined by some physician other than the regular Examiner appointed for the Court. There are ways in which any individual case may be attended to, but not all. This office in many instances has arranged for examinations of such applicants, but never without good cause.

This is a matter that should be left entirely in the hands of your Medical Department, and not interfered with by any local Court. The above also applies to the appointment of new Examiners. We are always ready to listen to complaints and invite just criticism along these lines; but the final decision should be made at the headquarters, where the best interests of the Order is the only consideration. With the investigation work by the Courts really dormant, the local Examiner remains to safeguard the Order in the admission of new members. Lessen the authority of the Examiner—Scatter his duties to the choice of the applicant, and you instantly make admission easy and break down the system that has proved its worth—the system that must be maintained if this Fraternity is to be known as a good reliable Order of men and women, chosen for their fitness as good physical risks.

With the mental alertness, that in the aggregate, makes our Order truly great, may you give the foregoing your best attention, and by so doing, help the great work that engages us and by all helping, our task is made more easy, and all may have the satisfaction of assisting in working out the problem that means so much to each one's fraternal welfare. Please take this matter back to your Courts and strive for united cooperation.

Short indeed is the span of one year. Yet how many are the changes that crowd in? Looking about us, how forcibly are we reminded of the ever changing course of events, in all the activities of life. With us the passing of time should be ever watched with special interest. Our work dedicated to the care of those "who need our care the most," should be intensified, our efforts doubled and all our energies devoted to the cause which this Order has so splendidly fulfilled for so long a period of time. The opportunity is ours. A noble work is ours to be done. True to our mission, we will lead others to our fold, and to that glorious mission; our care will be for those who having served with us, no longer serve on earth, whose passing out excites our prayers, and so beyond the grave in their communion we build in perfect faith, and indestructible plan. On it in confidence we rest the future of the Great Fraternity.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS J. HANLEY, M. D.,
High Medical Examiner.

On motion of Brother James J. Mockler of Bunker Hill Court No. 126, seconded by Brother Michael J. Shannon of Williams Court No. 19, it was voted that the report of the High Medical Examiner, Dr. Francis J. Hanley, be accepted as printed.

Sisters and Brothers:

The Trustees of the High Court beg leave to submit the following report for your consideration:

Balance in the hands of the Trustees, December 31, 1919	$1,106,070 42
From High Secretary-Treasurer, Emergency Fund	103,068 50
Net earning from investments for the year 1920..	47,980 20
Balance in Emergency Fund, December 31, 1920..	$1,257,119 12

Union Institution for Savings (on deposit)	840 06
	$1,257,119 12

The notes on the ninety-three (93) mortgages call for $276,818.32. The assessed valuation of the mortgaged property May 1, 1920, was $552,675.00, and the insurance on the buildings amounted to $447,600.00.

The cost price of the several bonds was $969,331.09, and the par value $1,025,000.00.

The net receipts from January 1 to April 1, 1921, were $12,303.53, making the total amount in the Emergency Fund, April 1, $1,269,422.65.

The net receipts since April 1, have been $7,885.34. The total amount in the Emergency Fund in the hands of the Trustees at the time of making up this report, May 1, 1921, was $1,277,307.99, invested as follows:

	$1,277,307 99

The difference in the mortage loans between December 31, 1920 and May 1, 1921, is accounted for by the payments of $12,725.00 on account of mortgage notes, and new loans amounting to $22,300.00.

Since December 31, 1920, there have been maturities of bonds owned by the Order, the cost price of which was $10,303.22.

An inspection of the securities contained in the private vault of the Security Safe Deposit Company was made by the Finance Committee, who reported that all bonds and mortgages owned by the Order were contained therein, and a certificate from the auditor of the Old Colony Trust Company that the balance to the credit of the Order was $31,046.74, as shown by the books of the High Secretary-Treasurer.

The various estates upon which the mortgage loans have been made were inspected by the Trustees, the High Chief Ranger and the High Secretary-Treasurer, during the year and found to be in fairly good condition, and we are of the opinion that the Order is amply protected.

Respectfully yours,

PATRICK F. BURKE, St. Gregory Court, No. 24.
GEORGE WIRTH, Holy Trinity Court, No. 51.
JOHN J. LYNCH, Bunker Hill Court, No. 126.

Past High Chief Ranger Brother John F. Harrigan of McCafferty Court No. 100, presented the following resolution:

We, the Representatives to the Annual Session of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, in convention assembled this twenty-fifth day of May, 1921, re-affirm our loyalty to those great principles of liberty and righteousness which are the foundation stones of our government and the breath of life to humanity;

We glory in that Americanism which is true to and is ever guided by those great ideals, principles, inspirations and traditions so beautifully and pertinently set forth in the Declaration of Independence adhesion to which has made our country great;

We are rejoiced that another great people, inspired by the same love for freedom which animated our forefathers, has thrown off the yoke of oppression and asserted its God-given right to decree for itself its manner and form of government;

We recognize the fact that the Irish people have established a de facto and de jure government, and are now entitled to that same recognition without intervention which ever has been extended by these United States to other nations in their struggles for liberty;

Therefore, be it resolved that we request the President of the United States in accordance with well established precedents and traditions, officially and speedily to recognize the Republic of Ireland and thereby to place himself on the plane of Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Patrick Henry, Abraham Lincoln, and that long and illustrious list of great Americans who ever have fathered human liberty at home and abroad;

Be it further resolved that copies of these resolutions shall be forwarded to Hon. Warren G. Harding, President of the United States; Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State; and to Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge; and Hon. David I. Walsh, United States Senators from Massachusetts.

The business of the convention was suspended when Mayor Andrew J. Peters of Boston, was announced, and escorted to the platform by the High Conductors.

The High Chief Ranger introduced Mayor Peters to the delegates, who addressed the convention as follows:

"It is indeed a pleasure to be here today and officially in behalf of the City of Boston and of our citizens to greet you in your conveution. It is a double pleasure to me to greet you here because there is presiding over your body a man with whom I have served in public office and with whom for many years I have had the pleasure of friendship, ripening and more developed each year of our pleasant intercourse. No oue who has served iu public life with Mr. Sullivan can fail to realize the high ideals aud noble purpose and determined idealism with which he goes about his work. I congratulate the Order and I could congratulate anybody in having so fine a representative and citizen as does it. I am particularly happy to congratulate your Order when it has had so successful a career as you have had. To your ministrations are owed much that is done to alleviate the sufferings aud feelings of your members when death has bereaved them of their support. I uuderstand you have met your claims and extended this help within seventy-two hours time when bereavement came, aud showed that your order has really a heart iu the provisions it makes to help and sustaiu and aid its members. It is particularly fortunate today, and especially a happy sign, to see an order such as yours which has old members to guide it, becoming better, stronger, more appreciated. It is a fine sign, because it shows as no more direct answer can show, that the principles of this country, of Americanism, of religion, of protection of the home and love of family, have today as vigorous aud firm a grip on our people as ever in the past. We see a world in turmoil; we see new ideas presented for government. We hear derision uttered by some against the ideals of home and religion and the most sacred ideals of which all of us approve, and it seems to me you can find no better answer, or evidence, that such propaganda is failing than iu the vigorous life of your order here today. We have won a war for Democracy, but we still have to keep Democracy from its enemies in the time of peace. Democracy was established only with centuries of effort, only achieved after wars and bloodshed and years of human development. We must keep it alive by having an alert and loyal and intelligent citizenship, respecting the rights of others aud at the same time receiving and demanding respect for our owu rights, and that is the kind of Americau citizenship that your Order fosters and helps. I can ouly say the growth of your membership, the great increase in the amount of claims which you meet and in the good work which you have doue, is better evidence than anything that can be said of the uecessity for your Order and its great success. The year can speak for itself of its help in the commuuity as oue of the great forces seeking to keep together and promulgate the American priuciples of our governmeut, of our state, and of our city. I congratulate you, sir, and your delegates here today on the vigorous Americanship of your Order and predict to you a future even fuller of help aud work aud results than has been in the past aud I give you my best wishes and the very best wishes of the citizeus of Boston, together with a full appreciation and confideuce of what you are doing for the community."

Corporatiou Counsel, Brother Joseph A. Sheehan addressed the couveution as follows:

"His Houor the Mayor, has left the very exacting duties of the mayoralty of the great city of Boston to come here this morning in recognition of the fifty-odd thousand members of this great Order to express to them the feelings of gratitude of the city of Bostou for its existence and what it has done and is doing day in and day out, year in and year out, for this great metropolitau city and commonwealth of ours. We are indeed, indebted to His Honor the Mayor for this tribute which he pays to us in extending the greetings of the city of Boston. An extremely busy business mau coming here we owe to him an expressiou of our gratitude for this visit, aud I move you that the convention express its gratitude to him by a rising vote of thanks."

The motiou being duly seconded, was unanimously carried.

High Chief Ranger—"We are decidedly honored this moruing when the first man of the city of Holyoke will travel from the western part of the state to come to say a word of welcome. I preseut His Honor Mayor Cronin of Holyoke."

Mayor Cronin—"I do not believe it is necessary for me to say that it gives me a great deal of pleasure to be here with you this morning. After your conventiou in Holyoke last year I felt in a sense that I was a part of the organizatiou and I feel that here I must offer an explanatiou to some of those whom I met in Holyoke, now numbered as among my close friends. I promised at that time that when the uext conventiou came I would be a member of your orgauization, but I am going to swear you to secrecy. I am a little too old to join your Order, but don't let it get iuto Holyoke. But I assure you that after the convention last year, after what I saw of your wonderful organization and the great things the organization was doing, I felt a keeu interest in the affairs of the M. C. O. F. and when I met former Representative McKinuey yesterday I promised him I would be here today if I possibly could to renew the friends and acquaintances I made in Holyoke. I have heard many things in reference to that couvention and I believe everyone who attended felt that we in Holyoke tried to make it as pleasant for you as we possibly could. I trust no one left Holyoke feeling we had been negligent in our duty toward you and I want to say to you that Holyoke still has an iuterest in your orgauization. I want to thank you for the most cordial welcome and reception you have given me this morning, and if ever any of you pass through Holyoke you can call upon me as the Mayor, or as a private citizen and I will be glad to see you and do anything in my power. I want to thank you again and trust that your deliberations will be of much good to the M. C. O. F."

High Chief Ranger declared these officers duly elected.

High Chief Ranger—"We are all interested in the cause of freedom whether it is here within the walls of our own country, or upon the shores of that beautiful isle that has been washed for centuries by the Atlantic Ocean, or in any part of the great world. The cause of freedom is great and mighty to everyone in any part of the world. I present to you our distinguished visitor, Professor Daas of India who has something of interest to say to you."

Prof. Daas addressed the convention in behalf of the freedom of his country, as follows:

"As it is already late I will not take much of your time to express my heartfelt thanks for giving me this opportunity to talk to you regarding the freedom of India and all the oppressed people of the world who are under the subjection of any nation. I am just feeling very proud to have this opportunity to talk before the delegates of an organization which feels that their object is unity, truth and Christian charity. If Christian Charity is your ideal I would like to see the Christian principle of freedom be applied for all nations, Ireland, Egypt, India and all other countries which have contributed so much to the cause of civilization. Christianity has no double standard of morality and there should not be a double standard in international morality. All the nations that were subjects of any imperialism have been made free by the efforts of the American government which entered the great war with certain high ideals and it is time for all of you to exert yourselves as American citizens with relation to Ireland and Egypt and India that they may have equal consideration and not suffer any longer under British tyranny. Why you should pay more attention to the cause of India and Egypt and Ireland and the other countries that should be taken into your consideration because America at the present moment is menaced directly by British imperialism. Read Secretary Hoover's statements in the papers this morning. He does not mention any name, but the underhanded work that is hurting America's place and the small nation that wants control of the world you all know is England. You are all Christians, you profess Christian charity, and what is Great Britain doing in India today? Eighteen thousand opium dens licensed where men and women can go and buy opium just as you buy cigarettes here. Seven thousand of the very best acres of land are utilized for the purpose of raising it. And she is jeopardizing the American people because all of these drugs that are being consumed in this country every year in larger quantities, all come as a by-product of opium which is produced in India under the direct control of the British government. In 1912 in this country one million people were addicted to some form of drugs and today two millions of people have become an addict to drugs. All comes from India and Great Britain has a monopoly of it for the purpose of making profit out of it. India was one of the greatest countries in the world before Great Britain came in. Sixty-six per cent of our people could read and write. We come from the same Caucasian stock as all the white people. What is it today? Only 6 per cent of our people are really educated. Eleven per cent of the men and 1 per cent of the women can read and write. That is what Britain has done for education in our country.

And she has destroyed our industries. Once the richest country in the world, we are now the poorest. Ten dollars per year is the average annual income. It does not bring enough food for every individual to have one bowl of rice in the morning and in the evening, without salt even, because it costs $11.25 per year for two bowls of rice daily. So what happens? Fifty millions do not know from the beginning of the year to the end what it is to have a full meal. In 18 months 32,000,000 have died for the want of food. I can tell you the horrors of starvation are worse than the horrors of war. I could tell you more, but I want to tell you your peace is never secure as long as British imperialism tries to exploit all other countries and tries to distress all other nations that question its supremacy. There cannot be world peace until the people of these countries become free and for that reason everyone, all American citizens, should feel that we believe in the principle of government by, for and of the people and against imperialism, and we should give to other people that which we are so fortunate to have in this country. We are not propagandizing here. We are giving the truth so that England will not get American support for tyranuizing over other countries. My prayer, my humble prayer, is that you find out more about British tyranny all over the world and let the people know that the greatest curse from a Christian and moral point of view is Great Britain, and then its hypocrisy will be uuveiled and people will know what it is and American money will not support imperialism as it exists there. I am very much interested that through your organizations, not only Foresters but others, we should have the privilege of spreading the truth and that as Secretary of the Sons of Freedom for India we have the privilege of speaking before the organization so that the truth will be known. The people in India are fighting just so that the truth will be known. The people in India are fighting just as Ireland is beginning to fight. It is no less strong, but the censorship keeps it down. Ninety-two killed and 132 wounded the day before yesterday's papers state, but when the truth comes out you will find it was probably far more. Give us the opportunity to spread the truth and register your sympathy for the suffering people of India. By so doing, you do nothing against anyone, but uphold the American principle of Democracy against Imperialism which is a curse against the world's peace."

On motion of Brother Michael J. Duggan of St. Malichi Court No. 81, it was voted that the address of Prof. Daas be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

At 12.25 P. M. a recess was ordered until 2.30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was called to order at 2.50 P. M. by High Chief Ranger William J. Sullivan.

Brother James J. Lanigan of Cathedral Court No. 1, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported the convention was entitled to 993 representing 249 Courts and that there were 946 delegates present, representing 241 Courts.

It was voted that the report of the Committee on Credentials be accepted.

High Chief Ranger Sullivan introduced to the convention Rev. Michael J. Scanlan, Director of the Diocesan Charities, who addressed the gathering as follows:

"Your High Chief Ranger gives me what after all is a great privilege, the opportunity to say a few words to you today. First of all a greeting of thankfulness for what the M. C. O. F. is doing for the Catholic Charitable Bureau of this Diocese. In 1912 the assembled delegates in Ford Hall were kind enough to vote unanimously the support of the M. C. O. F. to the work that was intended to prevent as far as we could the increase in the number of Catholic children who came under the control of the authorities. From that day unto this you have been very devoted to the work, given it your finest moral support and very fine substantial support. Contributions annually to our Bureau in Boston and to the Bureau in the Springfield Diocese have enabled us to have agents in all the larger courts in Massachusetts, which has resulted in a great lessening of the number of Catholic children committed to public institutions. This redounds greatly to your credit. When I was Chaplain of the State Reformatory of Massachusetts in 1906 there were almost 1200 young men of the average age of 19 or 20. From the figures last month the whole population was only 395 and of that less than one-half were Catholic boys. I regard that as a wonderful contribution to the Catholic cause that you, through your support, have made it possible for Catholic agencies to protect our childreu and keep them out of public institutious. So convinced have you been of the greatness of the work and its necessity that you have made it a memorial to honor two of the founders of this society, so all I want to say to you today is this, that His Eminence the Cardinal, apart from the nice things I know he must have communicated to your Reverend Chaplain, in so far as you have been so substantially interested in the charities of the Diocese, desires me to communicate his feelings of gratitude for your wonderful support. I would like to ask you in addition that you give more careful consideration to the question of having each one of the Courts contribute some sum no matter how small, and of course no matter how large, to this fund from year to year. We would like to feel that every Court in Massachusetts was contributing in some measure to the support of this work. Some have done wonderfully well, some not so well, aud some have done nothing. I wonder if you cannot take under serious consideration today the great question of having your own respective courts give a respectable allowance to this cause and it will help us to protect thousands in the course of a year and keep them out of public institutions. It is a matter you cherish sincerely, weigh it profoundly, and I also ask you in the name of the cause and of those two fine, self-sacrificing men that you give thorough consideration and further support to this great work and I am sure the blessing of God will be upon you, and generations will rise up and call you blessed because you are making possible one of the finest works that can be done under the auspices of a Catholic society in this country. I have a very deep sense of gratitude to the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters with a fervent hope that it will continue."

The Reverend High Court Chaplain announced that he had received a letter from His Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, who was unable to attend the convention and sent his blessings to the officers and members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, and wished them continued success.

The High Secretary-Treasurer read a telegram from Mayor Peter F. Sullivan of Worcester expressiug his regret that unforseen circumstances prevented him coming to Boston and addressing the couvention and sent his best wishes for a successful convention.

On motion of Brother Thomas J. Brennan of St. Raphael Court No. 26, duly seconded, it was voted that the communications be received and placed on file.

Ou motion of Brother John F. McKernan of Columbia Court No. 95, duly seconded, it was voted that we proceed to the election of the remaining officers of the High Court.

The committee to receive and count ballots assumed their stations.

At this point the Corporation Counsel, Brother Joseph A. Sheehan, moved as follows: "There is in this city today a former High Secretary-Treasurer, Daniel H. Maguire of Haverhill. He is not here in the conventional hall, but at the Westminster Hotel where headquarters are established and I think it would be a very nice thing if this convention sent a message of greeting. I move that the High Secretary-Treasurer obtain flowers and send them to the hotel with our greetings to our High Secretary-Treasurer who so faithfully served us for ten years." The motion was duly seconded and carried.

The polls were declared open and the delegates requested to vote. After all had voted the polls were declared closed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE ORDER

Past High Chief Ranger Cornelius M. Duggan, chairman of the Committee on State of the Order, reported as follows:

The Committee on State of the Order accepts the report of the High Chief Ranger. The recommendation that a committee be appointed to revise the constitution, it recommends that it be referred to the next convention. The important point which the High Chief Ranger wished to impress upon the delegates was the change of beneficiaries. The committee feels that this is too broad a subject to handle now, that it is inadvisable at the present time and we can get along at least another year without revising the constitution.

The report, after being discussed, by Brothers Tremble, Deely and Coyle, on a motion duly made and seconded it was voted that the recommendation of the committee be rejected.

On motion of Brother Thomas F. Tremble of Americus Court No. 34, it was voted that the recommendation of the High Chief Ranger, relative to beneficiaries be accepted.

On motion of Brother Joseph A. Coyle of Leo Court No. 5, duly seconded, it was voted that the recommendation of the High Chief Ranger that a committee of five be appointed to revise the constitution and submit their report to the subordinate Courts, be accepted and that the committee be appointed by the incoming High Chief Ranger.

The Corporation Counsel, Brother Joseph A. Sheehan, addressed the convention as follows:

"The present High Chief Ranger today ceases to be a member of the High Standing Committee. For six years he has served as a member of that body. It is needless for me to call attention to the fact that the work of the High Standing Committee from year to year is most trying, exacting and laborious. I sometimes feel, that while you delegates realize the tremendous work that the members of the Committee do, the great mass of the membership knows very little about it. One has to be in intimate contact with the workings of that body to realize the tremendous physical and mental strain under which its members labor, and those who would, carelessly, if you will, thoughtlessly, if you will, take every occasion to criticize the High Standing Committee, are doing a tremendous injustice to the members of that body because it has been my experience, after intimate association from year to year, that they give to that Committee the best that is in them, in order that they may do the great work of the organization and help to perpetuate its existence. He has been no exception to the rule of those who have filled that exalted office. The burden is a heavy one. The strain is severe. The difficulties are innumerable. And when a man gets through six years service in that body and faithful service to the organization as High Chief Ranger, as faithfully and devotedly and as absolutely honestly as he has, we ought to express to him our feelings of gratitude. It is impossible, of course, that at all times we, as individuals, can agree on all matters that arise. It is humanly impossible for two men to approach a given subject from the same angle at all times. There are bound to be different questions on which there will not be a unanimous opinion. He may have one view, one opinion, one policy, one absolutely honest view of what ought to be done, and just so long as he is honest and wishes the organization to develop, just so long should we give to him our hearty support and encouragement, whether we agree with him or not, just so long as, in his own mind, he is absolutely honest in the position he takes and believes it is for the welfare of the organization. So I say to you that the passing of the present High Chief Ranger adds one more to the long line of High Chief Rangers who have sacrificed themselves and their interests for the welfare of the organization and I ask you to express, by your rising vote, the faith and confidence we have for the High Chief Ranger who passes out of office today. And in passing that motion I request that the convention present to him the gavel that he has wielded in this convention."

High Vice-Chief Ranger Haley put the motion which was carried.

The High Chief Ranger was presented with a basket of flowers after which he addressed the convention as follows:

"Permit me at this time to express not only to our good friend Corporation Counsel Sheehan, but to you delegates, my heartfelt thanks for his beautiful sentiments. Let me also express to those who presented this beautiful basket of flowers my heartfelt thanks. To you with whom I have worked I cannot tell you how much I have appreciated your assistance and co-operation. It is impossible for men to come together without differing. We have a right to differ. It is by that we get experience and make ourselves valuable to each other. Because of your splendid recognition now in this rising vote of thanks and in tendering to me this gavel and these roses all the labors of the past seven years have been thoroughly compensated and I hope in the humble ranks of membership I will be able to do as much in the future as in the past."

Sister Frances V. Hindenlang of St. Andrew Court No. 264, addressing the convention spoke as follows:

"Today at the close of this 42nd Annual Session we appreciate the work that our High Chief Ranger has done for us in the term that is now closing for him and as he passes out of office we send with him into his new sphere of life our best wishes and Godspeed for all the future work he may do. And as we bid Godspeed to him in the parting we welcome our incoming High Chief Ranger and on behalf of the Past Chief Rangers Association of Greater Boston for which he has worked a number of years, I have been requested to present to him this little token of their esteem and trust that all these roses may bring freshness and sweetness and blessings untold."

High Vice-Chief Ranger Haley, in accepting the basket of roses thanked the Past Chief Rangers' Association of Boston for their gift and asked for the co-operation of its members during his term of office.

High Senior Conductor Brother James E. O'Leary, expressed the gratitude of the High Standing Committee, and all of the visiting Foresters to the Past Chief Rangers' Association of Greater Boston for their kindness to the delegates who have attended this convention. On motion of High Senior Conductor O'Leary, seconded by High Junior Conductor Collins, a rising vote of thanks was given the Past Chief Rangers' Association of Greater Boston.

Following the installation of officers High Chief Ranger Brother Thomas F. Haley took the chair and delivered his inaugural address, as follows:

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF HIGH CHIEF RANGER THOMAS F. HALEY

Sister and Brother Representatives:

"I desire to take this occasion to thank the members of this Annual Session for the great honor they have conferred on me by electing me as their High Chief Ranger for the ensuing year. I trust that the confidence that you have placed in me will not be found, at the end of my service, to have been misplaced.

"It has been the custom in the past for the retiring High Chief Ranger to make certain recommendations for the good and welfare of the Order at the Annual Session at which he presides, at a time when he is laying down the work of his office, and when he ceases to be in a position to carry out his recommendations. This custom, of course, is commendable in itself and ought to be continued. But I feel that it is the proper time now for the newly-installed High Chief Ranger to offer to this Session certain recommendations which it is believed will have a tendency not only to build up, but also to preserve, the future of this Order.

"The healthy numerical growth of the Organization is by far the most essential factor towards the preservation of the life of this or any other fraternal Organization such as ours, and I have given much thought and study in this direction for the continuance of our great gains in membership during the past few years. In this connection I submit to you the following facts in relation to the Catholic population of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

"According to the last Catholic Census, taken in 1909, the Catholic population of this state numbered 1,408,810 persons, divided as follows:

In the Archdiocese of Boston . .	900,000
In the Diocese of Fall River . .	176,052
In the Diocese of Springfield . .	332,758

"After making substantial deduction for children, men and women beyond our age limit, the physically unfit and the non-English speaking Catholics, I find that there are approximately 277,000 men and women eligible to be members of this great Order.

"To succeed in attaining this great number on our membership roll, much work must be accomplished, and I believe, that the time is now right to sow the seed of Forestry in many parts of this state, where today a Court of Foresters does not exist.

"In the Archdiocese of Boston we have many towns with growing parishes of English-speaking Catholics, in which I dare say that the name of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters is little known. The towns to which I refer are the following: Andover, Belmont, Bradford, Concord, Hudson, Lexington, Maynard, Methuen, Needham, Pepperell, Reading, Rockport, Wellesley, Wellington, Weymouth, Wilmington and Winthrop.

"In the Diocese of Springfield we find a similar situation in the following towns: Ashburnham, Blackstone, Dalton, Easthampton, Gardner, Great Barrington, Huntington, Indian Orchard, Jefferson, Lee, Merrick, Millbury, Southbridge, Spencer and Webster.

"In the Diocese of Fall River are the towns of Fairhaven, Hyannis, Nantucket, North Dighton, Somerset, Wareham and Wellfleet, in which no Court of our Order exists. Residents of some of those towns are members of Courts in near-by places.

"In order that Courts may be organized in the various towns I have enumerated, it is my intention, with the approval of the High Standing Committee, to appoint many Deputy High Chief Rangers at Large, whose duties shall be, with the assistance of other active Foresters in their localities, to do the necessary missionary work to establish such Courts. I feel that your High Standing Committee will lend every assistance necessary for the success of these endeavors.

"I trust you will take back to your Subordinate Courts the thought that what is needed most today is the co-operation of every individual member in the progress and promotion of the Courts and of the Order. And also the further thought that they must bear in mind this fact: That the High Standing Committee is in reality the Board of Directors of a Corporation representing over $55,000,000 of investment, and that consequently the members of the Committee cannot neglect business duties for minor matters that should properly be attended to by the Deputy High Chief Rangers.

"Heretofore, in the matter of the appointing of Deputy High Chief Rangers, the members of the small Courts of the Order were in many cases overlooked. This year, it is my intention that a member of each Court in the Order shall be selected to serve as a Deputy High Chief Ranger of one of our Subordinate Courts. Acceptance of appointments as Deputy High Chief Rangers this year will mean that a line of work consistent with the appointments must be absolutely accomplished, numerous visitations must be made, and their presence at the auditing of the financial officers' books, and their approval of the quarterly reports will be strictly enforced.

"Another very important fact I would like to call to your attention is the proper protection of Subordinate Court funds. The Constitution calls for the bonding of financial officers, the minimum amount of the bond being $500. It is amazing to note that 95 per cent of our Courts have their officers bonded for the minimum amount, regardless of much larger funds carried by many Courts. I hope that in the near future, when your Courts receive suggestions as to the amount for which the financial officers should be bonded, you, as the earnest active members of your respective Courts, will approve of our action.

"In closing let me again thank you for this great honor, and express to you the trust that this year the Organization will grow as it has in the past, and that the watchword for the coming year will be ever before you—'Co-operation-Harmony'."

At the conclusion of the High Chief Ranger's address, on motion of Past High Chief Ranger Brennan, duly seconded, it was voted that the address of High Chief Ranger Haley be printed and distributed to the subordinate Courts within three weeks.

On motion of Thomas F. Kelley of the High Finance Committee, it was voted that the place to hold our next convention be referred to the High Standing Committee.

On motion of Corporation Counsel Brother Joseph A. Sheehan, it was voted that the reading of the minutes of the session be dispensed with and that they stand approved as presented by the High Secretary-Treasurer.

The High Secretary-Treasurer was then sworn in as follows:

Suffolk, SS. Boston, Mass., May 25, 1921.

Personally appeared before me Joseph J. Forrester, High Secretary-Treasurer of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, and made oath to faithfully perform the duties of said office of High Secretary-Treasurer during the term of his election, and until his successor is installed.

Jeremiah G. Fennessey, Justice of the Peace.

There being no further business, on motion of Past High Chief Ranger Brennan, duly seconded, it was voted to adjourn.

OUR GROWTH

Our gain in membership in 1921 was not as large as we have made in other years, nevertheless under a trying industrial situation we added by initiation the names of 2743 new members to our rolls. Our losses by death and withdrawals totaled 1464, making a net gain of 1279 members. This gain in membership was only accomplished by the constant and untiring efforts of the High Standing Committee and the splendid co-operation, generously given, by the officers and members of the Subordinate Courts.

The Order was again fortunate, during 1921, in having a normal death rate, which resulted in substantially increasing the Mortuary Fund balance at the close of the year.

OFFICERS

In previous reports the attention of the Officers of Subordinate Courts was called to the necessity of immediate transmission of official documents to the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer for record. I regret to say there are yet many Subordinate Court officers who are careless in this very important duty. This is particularly true of Quarterly Reports. In the latter part of 1921 eighty Courts did not comply with this Constitutional requirement.

ANNUAL REPORTS

The Annual Reports submitted by each Subordinate Court form the official record of the Court and should be prepared with the greatest care to insure accuracy.

Eight of these reports were returned when the Court had elected more Representatives to the Annual Session than their membership entitled them to at the time the elections were held; others were returned for the signature of officers, for the Court Seal to be affixed and other causes.

RECORDING SECRETARIES

The Recording Secretaries should realize the importance of immediately forwarding to the office of the High Secretary-Treasurer notices of initiations, suspensions, reinstatements, withdrawal cards, and changes in designation of beneficiaries. All of these documents are of the utmost importance for the completion of each member's record. I respectfully ask for the co-operation of the Recording Secretaries by promptly forwarding all documents that are to be recorded and filed at headquarters.

CERTIFICATES OF DEATH

Greater care should be taken in making out certificates of death. We were obliged to return a large number of these certificates during the year for correction. Common errors are to add or omit a middle initial; not giving the correct date of initiation and the age of the deceased at death; giving the initials and not the baptismal name of the beneficiary.

TRANSFER OF FUNDS

To meet an emergency as a result of the influenza epidemic of 1918, the High Standing Committee transferred from the Emergency Fund to the Mortuary Fund the sum of $197,484.29.

The result of a normal death rate, during the years 1920 and 1921 was an accumulated balance in the Mortuary Fund of a substantial amount, and the High Standing Committee, at the close of 1921, decided it could, with safety, transfer to the Emergency Fund a large portion of the amount taken from this account. In consequence of this decision they voted to transfer $100,000 from the Mortuary Fund to the Emergency Fund, which sum was deposited to the credit of the Trustees, December 31, 1921.

NEW COURTS

During the year 1921 the following new Courts were instituted:

Feb. 6, Rev. Anthony J. Rossi Court, No. 270, of Brighton, with 52 charter members.

Dec. 29, Daniel A. Cronin Court, No. 271, of Egleston Square district, with 25 charter members.

APPLICATIONS

Action is delayed on a large number of applications because the applicant does not answer the necessary questions contained in the application blank, or does not make a valid designation of beneficiary, or signs the application with the name he or she is known by, instead of signing his or her given or baptismal name, and in some cases because the applicant has been married by a Minister or Justice of the Peace. The High Standing Committee requires that the age of applicants must be verified. This also is the cause of action being delayed in approving applications. If the applicant cannot procure a copy of a birth record, or a baptismal record, or if married, a copy of his or her marriage intentions then any document containing the date of birth or the age of the applicant such as Naturalization papers, a discharge from the Army or Navy or passports, will be accepted. When such documents are furnished, to assure safe delivery, they will be returned to the applicant under registered mail.

GENERAL FUND

The expense account payments of 1921 are less than reported last year, and while they are in excess of expense payments of other years prior to 1920, it is because of the fact that there was no appreciable reduction in cost of travel and materials which are far in excess of prices asked previous to 1920.

HIGH STANDING COMMITTEE

The High Standing Committee has held forty-eight meetings during the year and in addition to their attendance at meetings, the Committee has individually and as a body made 480 visits to Subordinate Courts of the Order.

In directing the affairs of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters the High Standing Committee has earnestly endeavored to maintain the proud position made by our beloved Order, animated by the desire that the splendid results accomplished in the forty-three years of its existence shall be continued.

The wonderful success achieved by this great Catholic Fraternity is the result of the untiring labor and hearty co-operation given to the High Standing Committee by the officers and members of the Subordinate Courts. To perpetuate our proud record the same spirit of loyalty, devotion and self sacrifice must be given as generously in the future as it has been in the past.

Our High Chief Ranger will complete with this convention five years of active, energetic service as a member of the High Standing Committee. He has given his time and devoted his ability to advance the interests of the Order, and his efforts are worthy of our sincere appreciation.

Deeply grateful for the many courtesies shown me by the High Standing Committee, Deputy High Chief Rangers, officers and members of the Subordinate Courts and with the hope that I have in some measure merited the confidence you have reposed in me, this report is respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH J. FORRESTER,
High Secretary-Treasurer.

JOSEPH J. FORRESTER,
High Secretary-Treasurer

The High Chief Ranger appointed the following Committee on Credentials: John J. Sheehan, Chairman, Cathedral Court No. 1; Joseph H. Bonner, Leo Court No. 5; John C. Kennedy, Sherwood Court No. 8; James Lavery, Sarsfield Court No. 48; Miss Minnie Murphy, Onota Court No. 98; Miss Mary V. Moran, St. Elizabeth Court No. 103; Miss Annie Campbell, Fr. Denvir Court No. 139.

Past High Chief Ranger Jeremiah G. Fennessey was announced and the High Chief Ranger requested the High Conductors to escort Past High Chief Ranger Fennessey to the platform. The High Chief Ranger requested the High Conductors to escort to the platform all Past High Chief Rangers present.

The High Chief Ranger presented to the Convention the High Court Chaplain, Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., who addressed the delegates as follows:

ADDRESS OF REV. JAMES H. O'NEIL, LL.D., HIGH CHAPLAIN

Sister and Brother Foresters, dear Delegates:—

For the forty-third time we gather for our Annual Convention. How short seems those years and how quickly passed! Measured in days, weeks and months they are indeed short, small and insignificant, but measured and weighed by the scale of good works performed for our fellow-man they are vast and their influence is today felt in many homes and by many firesides. Years count not in the lives of individuals and societies, only the amount accomplished. One may live a long time in a short space. A whole generation has passed since our founders met in the Cathedral and organized. Only a short time ago we consigned to earth the bodies of two of the "fathers of Foresters," Brothers O'Sullivan and Lawler. What a consolation it must have been to these good men to have witnessed the fulfillment of their ideals and the realization of their fondest hopes.

Our generation is passing. Are we alive to the opportunities of daily doing some good? Our foundation was laid by honest Catholic Christian men (God bless them). The superstructure is daily rising in grand, magnificent proportions. Are we doing our part in its development? Our revered founders left us sturdy virtues. They persevered under most depressing conditions, and circumstances—that would have deterred less courageous souls—which only nerved them forward in their good works. They were few in number, but an army in zeal. They stood for Unity, Fraternity, and true Christian Charity. They stood for Forestry—first, last, and always. They infused into the infant organization a life and strength that overcame all obstacles and made it what it is today—a model for all similar societies. Are we of this generation, loyal descendants of these men? Are we as zealous in our holy cause? Do our hearts go out to our work as did theirs? Are we, each and every individual, who are deriving the benefits and the results of their labors, are we, I say, doing what is expected of us?

As we enter into another year of our existence every delegate should resolve to renew his zeal in our noble labor and cause of humanity. Look alive to your opportunities of doing good. You are passing this way but once. Strew your pathway through life with some flowers of goodness. Sacrifice self for the greater good of the greatest number.

Be unselfish in this work. Be devoted to the cause. Inflame your heart with zeal and resolve not to permit a day to pass without making an effort to do something that will increase our membership. Brother and Sister delegates, you today face a solemn duty. You must not imagine that a Foresters' Convention is all play. You have been sent here to use your brains for the interest of these fifty thousand (50,000) people who represent three-hundred thousand (300,000) souls. Contemplate if you please what this means—the well-being of three hundred thousand (300,000) souls—the well-being of this organization whose welfare you have come to guard and whose interests you are to conserve.

Let this convention go on record as one whose wisdom and foresight has protected and promoted our interests. Shall the Court who sent you praise you for this day's deeds or will the contrary be recorded? On each individual delegate rests a sacred duty. Were one here present to so far forget himself or herself as to be heedless of the great interest involved, it would indeed be a misfortune.

It is to be expected that different temperaments and dispositions will take divergent views of the same subject. It is well, for by mutual discussion of our interests is brought out that which is best. But in our discussions keep in mind that we are a body composed of Catholic men and women. Let moderation guide your tongues and let charity animate your souls. Let true friendship and unity be the watchword of these deliberations. Personality must sink into insignificance and politics must be tabooed. For we are a business organization, bound together to protect one another and to advance our mutual interest. Our past year has been one for which we may be proud. Laboring against the greatest difficulties, perhaps one of the hardest years in the life of all mutuals, we have, nevertheless, advanced financially our Order's interests. Let me say to you, representatives, that if you look for a cause of the success under God's guiding care and blessed providence, you will find it in the devotedness, self-sacrificing, patient labors that have been done by the members of your High Standing Committee. To the men elected at your forty-second Convention—to the men, who late and early, have traveled the length and breadth of this Commonwealth—to the men who have sacrificed their homes and personal interests and comfort for your welfare—to them, I say, belong the meed of praise which I lay at their feet. And here I may be permitted, after thirty years of service on your Governing Board, to say that in my experience I have never seen a High Chief Ranger do more for Forestry than our present retiring friend, Thomas F. Haley. The Lord bless and reward him.

Our watchword, "What is best for our Order," wisdom shall dictate that the best men that can be found in our ranks shall be our general—the wisest men, our guides—the most prudent men, our superiors. We shall elect men with no other consideration save their ability and willingness to guide our destiny. For me, your humble chaplain, under the direction of our great Cardinal Archbishop, is to simply say, God bless you and His Divine Spirit direct you in your efforts today, so that the future generations and conventions may rise up in thousands to praise your zeal and bless your prudence. I may conclude with a quotation from an address delivered by our Cardinal in Fanueil Hall, May 25, 1910. He says: "I rejoice heartily in the growing strength of this excellent society. Each step it makes forward means an advance in the spiritual and temporal happiness of our Catholic Community. I wish that every Catholic laborer in the State would give his name as a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters."

I bring you his greetings and blessings. To him we pledge our heartfelt, unyielding loyalty and devotion.

To our newly-elected Holy Father at Rome we send greetings and beg his blessings on our work.

On a motion of Brother Thomas F. Kelley of St. Jerome Court No. 113, seconded by Brother John McGaffigan of Father Supple Court No. 265, it was voted that the address of the High Court Chaplain be accepted and spread upon the records of this Convention.

On motion of Corporation Counsel Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, it was voted that the High Court Chaplain be instructed to send a cablegram to His Holiness, the Pope, extending our felicitations upon his election, and that we pledge to him our affectionate regard and our never-ending support in all things pertaining to the well-being of the Catholic Church in this Country.

On a motion by the Corporation Counsel, Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, it was voted that the High Secretary-Treasurer be instructed to send to the former High Secretary-Treasurer, Brother Daniel H. Maguire, at Haverhill a telegram expressing to him the respect and regard of the representatives and the hope that he will be spared many years yet to come; and in connection with this that he be instructed to communicate by telegram with a florist in Haverhill and have a suitable floral tribute sent to our former High Secretary-Treasurer as a manifestation of our esteem.

Brother John J. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported as follows for the Committee:

The Convention when completed is entitled to one thousand twenty-four delegates representing two hundred fifty-one Courts. Credentials have been received from seven hundred thirty-two delegates representing two hundred twenty courts. On motion of Sister Mary V. Moran of St. Elizabeth Court No. 103 it was voted that the report of the Committee on Credentials be accepted as progressive.

The arrival of Reverend Father Bernard S. Conaty of St. Joseph's Church, Pittsfield, and Reverend Father Michael J. Leonard of St. Mark's Church, Pittsfield, was announced, and the High Chief Ranger requested the High Conductors to escort Father Conaty and Father Leonard to the platform.

At this time the business of the Convention was suspended and the High Chief Ranger addressed the delegates as follows: "As High Chief Ranger of the organization it gives me great pleasure to present to this body a man who possibly knows as much about Forestry as many of us here. A singular coincidence is that there is present here today two of his brothers acting as delegates of their respective Courts. At this time I wish to present to the delegates to this Convention, Reverend Father Bernard S. Conaty, Pastor of St. Joseph's Church of Pittsfield."

ADDRESS OF REV. BERNARD S. CONATY

"Reverend Fathers, Worthy High Chief Ranger, Catholic Friends of our dear Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and Foresters: I assure you that you are very welcome to our hill-top city. I am only a little shepherd among the hills, but I want you to know that you are in a community that is more than fifty per cent Catholic with nine parishes, all working well for God and country, for the highest and noblest ideals of mankind. A very worthy representative of our holy faith is the chief magistrate, the Mayor of our city, in whom we all take an honest pride, because of his loyalty to his God, as well as to his State and Country. A dear old friend of mine, coming from the Heart of the Commonwealth, is the honored chief magistrate of that great city of Worcester. It was a pleasure beyond expression to greet him here because of old-time friendship, and I am glad to see that he climbed the hills to be a visitor here, just as God has permitted him to climb the ladder of fame, and we hope some day soon that we may greet him as Governor of the State of Massachusetts. Why shouldn't we be progressive? Now there is one thing I want to tell you. I want to supplement the remarks of your very worthy and much beloved Chaplain, Rev. Father O'Neil, by saying that you had better look out for your hearts. You are in a high altitude, and in such places the heart is apt to go a little bit too fast in its flutterings. We want you to lose your hearts to us here, but we do not want you to lose your lives, so be careful and don't get excited. Whatever you do here, do it dispassionately and have your hand on your heart. Another little remark, I will take the blame for having the mass this morning at St. Joseph's at nine o'clock, because when I came here from the Heart of the Commonwealth, I found the rarified air made me sleepy, and I wanted to give you the benefit of my experience by an extra hour of sleep in our quiet hill city. I know you had pleasant hours last night, pivoting around and enjoying yourselves until the wee small hours of the morning, while we honest men, I beg your pardon, we old fellows with white hair were sleeping.

"We don't advertise ourselves, they tell us, but if you stay until tomorrow and see our splendid sights, I know you will go home saying that we live in the Alps of America, and that you have been so benefited that your beneficiaries will have to wait a long time for your Forester insurance. You know the very best of advertising is to have a surprise, and do you know that you are a surprise party to this little Shire City of the Berkshires? Coming in such numbers our people are green-eyed with jealousy—Where do they all come from? They are Catholic men and women in a vast organization that does not go outside the confines of the State of Massachusetts, all working for that noble purpose of helping each other, the widows, and the various Catholic charities of our Commonwealth. As Father O'Neil said, 'God bless you for your work.' I have a soft spot in my heart for that name which is so dear to you and the people in the Heart of the Commonwealth—O'Leary. You know that name O'Leary is a good Forester name. I also want to be permitted to refer to one of the venerables who worked in the hills for every good cause and especially was interested in the development of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters. I refer to William E. Nugent, who did such valiant work here, not only for the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters and temperance organizations, but for every good Catholic cause. His memory is blessed among us, and I know that as you referred to your departed ones, and in your prayers to God this morning, you thought of him. There was a good Boston woman, I believe it was, that plucked some lilacs from our bushes. They were sending a detective after her when I said, 'Have all the lilacs, the roses, the tulips and our best young men and women that you want'."

At the conclusion of Father Conaty's address, Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas of Middlesex Court No. 60 announced that one of the forms of entertainment to be given by the Foresters of Pittsfield was through the kindness of H. A. Ford, proprietor of the Capitol Theatre, who opened his new theatre to the delegates of this Convention.

On a motion made by Past High Vice-Chief Ranger P. Sarsfield Cunniff of Middlesex Court No. 60, it was voted that the High Chief Ranger appoint a committee of three to place a suitable floral tribute upon the grave of our late Past High Chief Ranger Edward N. Clancy at St. Joseph's Cemetery, and that a letter of sympathy from this Convention be sent to his widow, Mrs. Helen M. Clancy. Complying with this vote of the Convention, the High Chief Ranger appointed the following committee: Past High Vice-Chief Ranger P. Sarsfield Cunniff of Middlesex Court No. 60; Former Corporation Counsel Hon. William P. Hayes of Father Sherry Court No. 251, Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas of Middlesex Court No. 60.

The High Chief Ranger introduced Father Leonard to the Convention as follows: "We are honored this morning by another clergyman of this great city of Pittsfield, whose sister is in our midst representing her court, and whose brother was our late lamented High Secretary-Treasurer, Major John J. Leonard. It gives me great pleasure to present to you Reverend Father Michael J. Leonard, Pastor of St. Mark's Church of the City of Pittsfield."

ADDRESS OF FATHER LEONARD

"Reverend Fathers, High Chief Ranger and Delegates of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters: My heart goes out to all of you, because my heart was always in the Foresters. Some of those who were very dear to me have worked hard and vigorously for its welfare. My heart goes out to you all whether you come from the East, the West, or the North or South. My heart is in Pittsfield, especially with the Onota Court, but it is big enough to take in all the courts of Massachusetts. I am glad to be here today with you and to see such a distinguished body of men and women in our fair city and I know that your presence here will yield a mighty influence for good. I know that locally the organization will be very greatly benefited because they cannot but catch the inspiration that must come when we see such a distinguished body of men and women as we see here today—men and women from the large cities, men and women from the towns and hamlets, and all here cannot but say they are glad, they are proud that they are Foresters. We want to increase and multiply, and we want to go forward and onward and take our friends into the Foresters and be numerically represented as we ought to be, and increase and grow and develop. I know that your influence will be felt all through the community. It will be felt first of all in this city, because I am sure that they cannot but take inspiration from you and go forward and upward and try and increase and multiply and double and treble and quadruple. I wish you God-speed in your work, and there is nothing you can accomplish without work. Whatever is accomplished is done only by painstaking work, and you must surely have worked very hard, very vigorously, very faithfully and very perseveringly to have accomplished the great work that you have accomplished throughout the state. Your name is held in veneration all through the State of Massachusetts for the very good work you are doing, and I hope that you will go on with the good name you have always upheld, increasing in usefulness to Church, your fellow members, and to the community in everything that will tend for their best interests. God grant, therefore, that you may not all fold your arms, but put your shoulder to the wheel and go forward and upward and onward and never be satisfied until you take in every corner of the state into the organization and have doubled, trebled and quadrupled your membership throughout the state. That can only be done by work. Let us be up and about and working, therefore, energetic, earnest, always at our post ready to do our work. Surely we have great encouragement in this city from the Pastor of St. Joseph's. He is always helping along every good work. The people of this city love him and he is loved not only in this city, but he is loved all through the state, because he is known far and wide. Today Father Conaty has welcomed you to the city and I, too, welcome you with all my heart and I hope that you will enjoy your visit here very, very much and that you will go away with a good impression of the city, of the people, of the Onota Court and of the work that they have tried to do. They are few in numbers, but ready to work earnestly and hard. I hope you will come back to us on some other occasion when Onota Court will be a larger organization, and then we will try to welcome you once again to the city of Pittsfield. I thank you for listening to me. I know that I am taking valuable time that should be given to other speakers, so once more I welcome you all, as Father Conaty has."

At the conclusion of Father Leonard's address the High Chief Ranger introduced to the Convention the Mayor of Pittsfield as follows: "We have here in the City of Pittsfield, the same as we have in some of our other cities in the state, a man of our faith, chosen by the people to represent them as their chief executive. At this time it gives me great pleasure to present to this body Honorable Michael W. Flynn, Mayor of the City of Pittsfield."

ADDRESS OF HON. MICHAEL W. FLYNN, MAYOR OF PITTSFIELD

"Reverend Fathers, Your Honor Mayor Sullivan, Ladies and Gentlemen: It gives me much pleasure this morning to have an opportunity to extend to you the greetings of the City of Pittsfield, and I welcome you to our city in the city's name. I am sure that your stay will be all that the previous speakers have asked for. It is a great pleasure for me from several points of view to attend this Convention this morning. Many of our most prominent citizens are active members of your organization. I am specially pleased to have the pleasure of greeting my old friend, Mayor Sullivan of Worcester. I congratulate you upon selecting our city as a place for your deliberations in connection with this Convention. I do not hesitate to say that you have selected the best city in Massachusetts. It has been said, and is being said from time to time, that Pittsfield, rather than being a part of Massachusetts, is connected with the State of New York. Very often we get that from the State House in Boston, but we want it distinctly understood that we feel that we are not only a part of Massachusetts, but a very important part of Massachusetts. I want to say, or rather repeat, what Father Conaty and Father Leonard have already said, that I trust that every delegate who is attending this Convention will see their way clear to remain over tomorrow. We want to show you some of the beauties of our city. Pittsfield people have the reputation all through New England of being the most hospitable people on earth, and I am sure that before you leave we will have an opportunity of extending to you that hospitality, and if it is not extended in the full measure in which you think it ought to be, I want you to report to me. It would seem that even the Almighty has poured his blessings upon you this morning by giving you such beautiful weather, by having the sun shine down upon you, and after what He has done the inhabitants of the City of Pittsfield will try to do their share. We will see to it that your stay in Pittsfield will be such that you will be glad to return to it as soon as possible. Nature has done much for us, and our progressive citizens have done the rest. We have in our midst beautiful hotels, wonderful theatres and splendid churches, and I extend to you an invitation to visit all of them, and I am sure that you will receive the very best treatment that can possibly be given anyone. I do not know whether or not you people saw a notice in the paper this last week where there was a convention held on the outskirts of the City of New Haven—not a convention of this kind—but a convention known as the Ku Klux Klan, held in secret session on the outskirts of the city—didn't dare come out in the open the same as you men and women here have—didn't dare show their hand. You people aren't stealing around backyards—you are out in our main streets doing a work for the benefit of the general public, and it does seem good to see this great body of men and women banded together doing such a noble work. It is really worth while and I congratulate you upon the work which you are doing. I extend to you again a very hearty welcome to our city and I trust that your stay will be such that just as soon as you can you will see to it that you return to Pittsfield and give us another convention as early as possible. I thank you."

At the conclusion of Mayor Flynn's address, the High Chief Ranger introduced Mayor Sullivan of Worcester as follows: "As I said in introducing the previous speaker, we have of our faith men who are well able to preside over the destiny of any city of the Commonwealth. Today we have with us the Mayor from the Heart of the Commonwealth, a man well-known to many of you, and who has on previous occasions addressed our annual Convention. At this time it gives me great pleasure to present to you Mayor Peter F. Sullivan of Worcester."

ADDRESS OF HON. PETER F. SULLIVAN, MAYOR OF WORCESTER

"Worthy High Chief Ranger, Reverend Fathers, Mayor of Pittsfield, Ladies and Gentlemen: I appreciate this greeting from you. I was having a little sleep when my good friend Father Conaty spoke, but I thought I heard him mention Worcester. Of course, both he and the Mayor of this city have paid me a few compliments, but I told them to do it, so it is all right, and now I ought to say something for the City of Pittsfield and its good Catholic people. My good friend Father Conaty spoke of the Alps of America, and that has given me a thought. Leaving Worcester at sunrise and coming along in the train set me to thinking of the story of the traveler trying to climb the Alps to reach the hospital of the Monks of St. Bernard on that mountain top. Night was descending as the train climbed higher and higher, just as though a stair had been let down for it from heaven itself, and I felt that I had climbed the Alps of America in coming to fair Pittsfield to meet the Monk of St. Bernard—Father Bernard Conaty. My good friends, this is a splendid sight, well worth my trip from Worcester. Of course my good friend, High Vice-Chief Ranger, James E. O'Leary, insisted on my coming along here. This is O'Leary Avenue all the way up, with our good Bishop O'Leary in Springfield. As the Mayor of Pittsfield touched on, you are here in the open, you welcome all reporters and the good people of this fair city. God grant that this good work may continue. Do you know that nine-tenths of the population of the world today is, if not in open revolt, in a state of complete unrest—China, Russia, India, and our own little Ireland, too, and much falls to your lot to hold up our flag and our faith. You have done the work, you have heeded the call to the flag and the whole state. A few weeks ago down in Worcester five thousand members of the Knights of Columbus marched the streets of the city at 8 o'clock in the morning to old St. Anne Church and received holy communion, and as I marched at the head of that body on returning from the church the thought came to me, we are in a safe city, we are safe in the nation when this body of men with Christ in their souls is my body guard, the citizens' body guard, America's body guard, the flag's body guard, and as they appeared before me, as you do now, I thought then there are indeed happy moments in my life when I could rise from a newsboy of the streets to a position when I receive the consideration of the business and banking interests of the city and twice elected mayor, and on the last election was serenaded by three bands and six thousand people. We have in the city of Worcester a bank to help our young men get established in business. It is as difficult for them to succeed without a bank as for the soldier to make bullets without powder and shell, and so the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, the K. of C. and your own High Vice-Chief Ranger, Mr. O'Leary, formed a corporation and allowed the young people of the city to buy stock in it and today it is a flourishing institution and we have passed the one million mark without advertising in a single newspaper. It is nice to be mayor of a city, but it is still greater to do something for the young men of a city. I thank you members of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters of Worcester for the great and good work you are doing. God speed you on your worthy mission. Stand fast for honor and for faith."

ADDRESS OF HIGH CHIEF RANGER THOMAS F. HALEY

To the Representatives to the Forty-third Annual Session of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters:

Reverend Father, Sister and Brother Representatives:—

In accordance with the laws and customs that have heretofore prevailed, I beg to submit in a general way the progress the Organization has made during the past year, and to present to you for careful consideration, a few recommendations, that will tend to strengthen and expand the future usefulness of the Order.

MEMBERSHIP

The year 1921 was one of great industrial depression, and I am pleased to report that the Order has made a very substantial increase in membership, despite the condition that has confronted us.

During the year we received 3142 applications, of which 2782 were approved, and 360 rejected. While our death rate was normal, there being 545 deaths, our loss through suspension this year was most appalling, there being 847 members suspended.

Our net increase during the year was 1279 members, and the total membership of the Order on December 31, 1921, was 52,425 members.

The average age of the 2782 new members admitted was 29.5 years, and the average age of the entire Order was 42.3 years. which was the lowest average since 1917.

The following table shows the Massachusetts membership of Fraternal Organizations on December 31, 1921, with gain or loss during the year 1921, as taken from the Insurance Commissioner's official reports, and is furnished so that you may know the relative strength of the different Orders and what they accomplished during the past year:

FINANCES

Your High Standing Committee has issued during the year twelve mortuary assessments, amounting to $679,877.54 and from which the sum of $539,792.86 has been paid in mortuary claims. Since the institution of the Order, we have paid into the homes of our departed members over $9,200,000.

In the General Fund the receipts from all sources have been $44,157.40, and the cost of management per member has been 71 cents.

The Emergency Fund, which on December 31, 1921, amounted to $1,520,643.21, is ever growing, to the satisfaction of all, and during the year the increase to this fund amounted to $263,524.09.

SECRETARIES' MEETINGS

The High Standing Committee, during the past year, has held conferences with the Financial and Recording Secretaries of the Subordinate Courts in various parts of the State, for the purpose of promoting efficiency between these officers and the High Standing Committee. These meetings were largely attended, and many errors previously made in relation to applications, suspensions, beneficiaries, notifications, certificates, etc., were explained, and the results of these meetings are most beneficial in every respect.

NEW COURTS

During the past year there have been instituted two new Courts. Reverend Anthony J. Rossi Court, No. 270, of Brighton, with fifty-two charter members, whose average age was 27.3 years, is composed of women, and was instituted on February 6, 1921.

Daniel A. Cronin Court, No. 271, of Egleston Square, with twenty-five charter members, whose average age was 29.9 years, is composed of women and was instituted on December 29, 1921.

ANNUAL SESSIONS

The place for holding the Annual Session of the High Court is one of the best features in the upbuilding of our great Order, and as we look to the great Forestry centers of Boston, Worcester, Springfield and Holyoke, our growth in membership in these cities has been largely due to these Annual Sessions.

Our meeting this year in Pittsfield will be of great benefit to the Foresters of this city, and to your High Standing Committee in the establishment of new courts in the towns of this section, namely, North Adams, Williamstown, Dalton, Great Barrington, Huntington, Lenox and Lee.

We have several large Catholic cities in our State, where this Annual Session might be held, namely, Fall River, Taunton, New Bedford, Brockton, Gloucester, Haverhill, Lawrence and Lowell, and I feel that the Order will benefit materially in these places, providing, the Courts in these localities were given some financial assistance in arranging the necessary details.

I would recommend that the High Standing Committee be authorized to expend, under their direction, a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for this purpose.

SUSPENSIONS

As I have previously stated, the great loss of 847 members by suspension, demands our most serious attention. The Relief Committee appointed by the Chief Ranger under Article VI, Section 3, of the Subordinate Court Constitution, should investigate every delinquent member before suspension becomes operative, and endeavor to prevent this loss, which, in 90 per cent of the cases, is gross neglect on the part of the member. I trust you will co-operate in this matter, and protect the homes and families of these careless members.

SAFEGUARDING OF RECORDS

On previous occasions you have been informed of the necessity of safeguarding the records at the Headquarters of our Order. I believe that the Order has outgrown its present quarters, which are inadequate, and unsanitary, and afford very little safety for our records in case of fire.

Under the Revised Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Chapter 119, Section 7, we are allowed to invest in a building to be used and occupied by the Corporation, as its home office, not more than twenty per cent (20%) of its Emergency Fund. At the present time, under this statute, we would be able to invest $304,128.65 in such a building. I feel that I would not be performing my duty, without calling your attention to this state of affairs, and placing the responsibility where it belongs.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

The investigating of all applicants for membership in our Order is of the most vital importance, and your attention has been directed to this great work on previous occasions. Proposers should inform the applicants of a thorough investigation by the Investigating Committee of the local Court, and a further investigation at Headquarters, and that all statements, concerning age, occupation, habits, family and personal history, must be correct. This also applies to marriages, concerning the date of marriage and by whom the marriage was performed. In many instances the applicants fail to give their haptismal names, causing much delay in making the necessary investigation.

DEGREE STAFFS

It is a source of pride when we witness the young men and women who give so much of their time to the formation of the various degree staffs in the Organization. The High Standing Committee greatly appreciates the interest taken by the members of the Degree Staffs in assisting at the installation and initiation exercises, and the sacrifices which they have made in preparing themselves for this work. I trust that the Courts will encourage this work by holding public installations and in consequence attract many people to become members of our Order.

In conclusion, let me express my sincere thanks to the Deputy High Chief Rangers, the Deputies at Large, the Finance Committee, and the members of the High Standing Committee, for the valuable assistance they have given me during the term of my office. To you, sister and brother delegates, I tender my most sincere and heartfelt thanks, for the honors you have conferred upon me and the many courtesies shown on various occasions in the past. Report of the High Medical Examiner Francis J. Hanley, M. D.

At the Forty-third Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, Wednesday, May 24, 1922

Sisters and Brothers:

The report which I submit for your earnest consideration contains information of such vital importance that time spent in perusal and study is strongly advised. Particular attention is directed to the various tables which are placed in such form as to be easily understood; and as they contain the vital facts that make a complete history for the past year, much can be gleaned that will enlighten and instruct the interested member. Especially is this so when the tables are considered under their respective headings, and the proper analysis and deductions made in reference to them.

During the year 1921 we received 3142 applications for admission into our Order, 1635 women and 1507 men. Of this number 360 applications were declined (191 women and 169 men). Causes of rejection are shown on the special table in this report.

The following table shows the number of deaths in members who were less than one and two years in our Order. In 1921 there were twenty-six deaths in this class, eight members (four men and four women) were members less than one year and eighteen members (ten women and eight men) were in the Order between one and two years.

Investigation shows that most of these deaths were unavoidable though we feel satisfied that a more careful investigation of applicants would aid materially in reducing our mortality in members less than two years in the Order.

To overcome a condition noticed some years back and frequently referred to in our reports, changes have been made in our application forms and in other ways, in our effort to arouse the Courts to the gravity of this condition our earnest counsel has been given. The results of our best efforts have not been satisfactory. No change in the attitude of the Courts can be discerned. Something must be done and a remedy must be found. We cannot allow the work formerly done by our Investigating Committees to be entirely dispensed with. The problem must be met. Its importance must be driven home to each Court in a manner so sustained that results will follow.

The reason why this should be done is self evident as the very existence of this constant and ever-growing menace must be deplored. Consider the growth of our Order which has been wonderful as to the number enrolled and the few faithful members who assist in making proper reports to this office, as to the qualifications of the applicant. Without the assistance of the Court many cases have arisen where scrutiny has shown a condition worse than neglect.

The Courts are again asked to take more interest in this matter, and to be prepared to so adjust the business in relation to future applications that care in selection will not be so clearly disregarded.

Specific instructions are to be given the Deputies and a rigorous campaign started, to the end that each Court will act according to a plan that will, we trust, make the Investigating of candidates a work not of levity or indifference but of seriously matured and intelligently directed interest, inspired by a desire to build up a solid and substantial membership. A necessary requirement to have for the work of today—and our safest, if not our only bulwark for the coming years.

Our Medical Examiners have been most faithful in their work, and to them our gratitude is expressed.

Our good work carries on in a most pleasing way. Confidence, the bedrock of our reliance, remains unshaken. Our ranks are firmly held by young and reliant men and women. Earnestness and devotion to the cause is clearly manifested. With this our future looks bright indeed. We ask for cooperation in our work, with that future in mind, and voice the hope that our efforts will bring great and lasting results, accruing not from the effectiveness of our united effort only, but to the permanent stability and future greatness of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS J. HANLEY,

High Medical Examiner.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE HIGH COURT

Sisters and Brothers:

The Trustees of the High Court beg leave to submit the following report for your consideration:

Balance in the hands of the Trustees, December 31, 1920	$1,257,119 12

Net earnings from investments for the year 1921	56,437 84
	$1,420,643 21
Transferred from Mortuary Fund	100,000 00
Balance in Emergency Fund, December 31, 1921	$1,520,643 21

Invested as follows:

Municipal, State and Government Bonds	$1,022,391 37
First Mortgage Loans	330,393 32
Old Colony Trust Company (on deposit)	85,824 88
Second National Bank (on deposit)	52,023 51

Essex National Bank of Haverhill (on deposit)	3,621 33
Union Institution for Savings (on deposit)	878 27
	$1,520,643 21

The notes on the ninety-eight (98) mortgages call for $330,398.32. The assessed valuation of the mortgaged property May 1, 1921, was $704,475.00, and the insurance on the buildings amounted to $500,900.00.

The cost price of the several bonds was $1,022,391.37, and the par value $1,088,500.00.

The net receipts from January 1, to April 1, 1922, were $11,618.40, making the total amount in the Emergency Fund, April 1, 1922, $1,532,261.61.

The net receipts from April 1, have been $9,276.06. The total amount in the Emergency Fund in the hands of the Trustees at the time of making up this report, May 1, 1922, was $1,541,537.67, invested as follows:

Union Institution for Savings (on deposits)	878 27
	$1,541,537 67

The difference in the mortgage loans between December 31, 1921 and May 1, 1922, is accounted for by the payments of $950.00 on account of mortgage notes, and new loans amounting to $15,100.00.

Since December 31, 1921, there have been maturities of bonds owned by the Order, the cost price of which was $45,-202.65, and the Order has purchased bonds, the cost price being $187,956.30.

An inspection of the securities contained in the private vault of the Security Safe Deposit and Trust Company was made by the Finance Committee, who reported that all bonds and mortgages owned by the Order were contained therein, and a certificate from the auditor of the Old Colony Trust Company that the balance to the credit of the Order was $30,971.06 as shown by the books of the High Secretary-Treasurer.

The various estates upon which the mortgage loans have been made were inspected by the Trustees, the High Chief Ranger and the High Secretary-Treasurer, during the year and found to be in fairly good condition, and we are of the opinion that the Order is amply protected.

Respectfully yours,

PATRICK F. BURKE, St. Gregory Court, No. 24.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Reverend Chaplain General, Father O'Neil, read the following letter from His Eminence, the Cardinal:

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE, GRANBY STREET
BOSTON

May 20th, 1922.

Rev. James H. O'Neil, LL.D., Chaplain General,
Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters,
East Boston, Mass.

Dear Doctor O'Neil:

I exceedingly regret that, owing to the many diocesan affairs demanding my attention after my return from Rome,

I find it impossible to accept your kind invitation to attend the Foresters' Convention in Pittsfield on May 24th.

I take this occasion to assure you again of my deep interest in the welfare of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, and I am very happy to learn that the society has had a successful year.

Very sincerely yours,

WILLIAM CARDINAL O'CONNELL.

The High Secretary-Treasurer Joseph J. Forrester read communications from His Excellency Channing H. Cox, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, His Honor James M. Curley, Mayor of the City of Boston, and Reverend Father Daniel H. Tully, regretting their inability to be present at the Forty-third Annual Session. On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted that the communications be accepted and placed on file.

High Chief Ranger Thomas F. Haley: "In order to save time in the presentation of addresses by the High Chief Ranger, the High Secretary-Treasurer, and the High Medical Examiner, the Chair will entertain a motion that these reports be accepted as printed and referred to the various committees." On a motion duly made and seconded it was voted that the addresses and reports of the High Chief Ranger Thomas F. Haley, High Secretary-Treasurer Joseph J. Forrester, and High Medical Examiner Francis J. Hanley, M.D., be accepted and adopted as printed.

Brother John T. Callan of Leo Court No. 5 made the following motion which was duly seconded: "Representatives to the Forty-third Annual Session are deeply grateful for the presence here this morning of His Honor, the Mayor of Pittsfield, and that we express to him our sincere appreciation for his kindness in extending to the delegates the hospitality of the City of Pittsfield by a rising vote of thanks." The motion was unanimously carried.

Corporation Counsel Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1 addressed the Convention as follows: "High Chief Ranger, Father Conaty is about to leave the hall, and I know that it is the convention's desire to give expression of its appreciation to him because of his goodness and kindness. From the time it was decided to have the convention here, the Order received the most splendid support from that fearless champion of our people here in this beautiful City of Pittsfield. I know you are all greatly pleased at his presence here, and I know you have been deeply edified at all that he has said to you, and I think we owe him a deep debt of gratitude for the untiring assistance he has given to the members and officers of the local court and to the High Standing Committee in arranging for this convention, and I move you, High Chief Ranger, that we accord him an expression of our thanks and gratitude by a rising vote." The motion was unanimously carried.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PETITIONS

The High Chief Ranger called upon Past High Chief Ranger William J. Sullivan of SS. Peter and Paul Court No. 15, Chairman of the Committee on Petitions, for a report. Past High Chief Ranger William J. Sullivan reported for the Committee on Petitions as follows. "A petition has been presented by Sister Elizabeth F. Sweeney of St. Kevin Court No. 253, 'For the passage of legislation or the adoption of an order, which will define the meaning of that part of Section 2, Article II, High Court Constitution, which states that each Subordinate Court shall be entitled to elect one or more Past Chief Rangers as representative, there now being doubt as to whether such provision permits the election of a less number of delegates than the Court may be entitled to according to its numerical total of membership.'

The Committee reports as follows: 'As the substance of the petition involves a legal question, which the Committee feel should have the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, it honorably recommends that the question involved in the petition be referred to the Corporation Counsel for his opinion, said opinion to be spread upon the records and that the petitioner be so notified'." On a motion of Sister Annie M. McGovern of Alma Mater Court No. 114, duly seconded, it was voted that the report of the Committee be accepted and its recommendations adopted.

OPINION OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL

"In pursuance of the vote of the Annual Session of the High Court concerning the above petition, I respectfully submit the following opinion in reference thereto. The Constitution is divided into two parts, the first part which deals with the High Court and the second part which deals with the Subordinate Courts. Article 2, mentioned in the above petition, deals with the formation of the High Court. Section 1 of this article describes the High Court as the Supreme Governing Body of the Order and states of whom it shall be composed. Section 2 of this Article provides that 'each Subordinate Court shall be entitled to elect one Past Chief Ranger as Representative to and member of the High Court and one Past Chief Ranger as Alternate, and one additional Past Chief Ranger as Representative and one as Alternate for every fifty members or majority fractional part thereof in excess of the first fifty.' The words 'shall be entitled to elect' in this section, for the purpose of the formation of the High Court, fix the status of representation of the Subordinate Court therein. If that were the only provision in the Constitution in reference to the subject matter, it might be reasonably urged that the number of representatives which a Subordinate Court could elect would be optional with the Court within the numerical limitations of this Section, but the Subordinate Court Constitution deals with the Organization of the Subordinate Courts and in that connection, Section 1 of Article 4 of the Subordinate Court Constitution contains the following language, 'the elective officers of a Subordinate Court shall be a Chief Ranger, Vice Chief Ranger, Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Senior Conductor, Junior Conductor, Inside Sentinel, Outside Sentinel, and three Trustees. They shall be elected annually at the last regular meeting in September at which time there shall be elected also the prescribed number of Representatives and Alternates as provided in Section 2 of Article 2, High Court Constitution.' The words 'there shall be elected also the prescribed number of Representatives and Alternates' in my opinion are mandatory and require that each Subordinate Court shall elect the number of Representatives and Alternates to which the Subordinate Court is entitled by virtue of the provision of Section 2 of Article 2, High Court Constitution as above set forth. In this connection, however, I am also of opinion that, while it is necessary for a Subordinate Court to elect the number of Representatives and Alternates to which it is entitled, it may decline to pay the expenses incurred by its Representative or Representatives in representing the Subordinate Court at the Annual Session of the High Court."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE ORDER

Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas of Middlesex Court No. 60, Chairman of the Committee on State of the Order, reported for the Committee as follows: "The recommendations of the Finance Committee are the only matter that has come before the Committee on State of the Order, and I believe that each of the recommendations should be taken up separately by this Convention.

1st—"That a per capita assessment of seventy-five (75) cents be levied for the year 1922-23." The Committee reports favorably and recommends that this be adopted. On motion of Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas, seconded by Brother Thomas H. Lovett of McDermott Court No. 186 it was voted that the report of the Committee on State of the Order be accepted and its recommendation adopted.

2d—"That the salary of the High Secretary Treasurer be four thousand (4,000) dollars for the year 1922-23." On a motion by Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas, seconded by Brother James W. Scanlon of St. Philip Court No. 184, it was voted that the report of the Committee be accepted and its recommendation adopted. The vote having been doubted, the High Chief Ranger ordered a rising vote by sections. The total vote reported by the Captains of the various sections was 351, divided as follows, 344 in favor of the Committee's report and 7 against the Committee's report. The High Chief Ranger declared the report of the Committee accepted and its recommendation adopted.

3d—"That the High Secretary Treasurer be allowed eight thousand seven hundred fifty ($8750) dollars for clerical hire for the year 1922-23, unuder the supervision of the High Standing Committee." The Committee recommends nine thousand ($9,000) dollars instead of eight thousand seven hundred fifty dollars; an addition of two hundred fifty dollars ($250). On a motion of Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas, seconded by Brother Thomas H. Lovett of McDermott Court No. 186, it was voted that the report of the Committee be accepted and its recommendation adopted.

4th—"That the Finance Committee be empowered to employ an expert accountant, if in their judgment the best interests of the Order require it, under their supervision." On motion of Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas, duly seconded, the report of the Committee was accepted and its recommendations adopted.

On a motion of Past High Chief Ranger William H. Thomas of Middlesex Court No. 60, duly seconded by Brother Thomas H. Lovett of McDermott Court No. 186, it was voted that the report made by the Committee on State of the Order be accepted and adopted.

Boston, Mass., May 15, 1922.

Mr. Joseph J. Forrester,
High Secretary Treasurer,
Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters,
17 Worcester Street,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Forrester:—

Your kind invitation extended in the name of the High Standing Committee to attend the 43d Annual Session of the High Court of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters at Pittsfield on Wednesday, May 24th, has just been received, and I hasten to acknowledge with sincere thanks this thought of me. If at all possible, I shall be present at your annual session, knowing as I do from my own delightful experience when president of the Massachusetts State Conference of Charities, how genuinely hospitable are the people of Pittsfield.

In any event, I want to express by letter what I hope to have an opportunity to enlarge upon personally at the Convention, that is, my profound gratitude for the splendid support given to the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston by the various courts of Foresters throughout the state. Ever since your Convention of 1912, when the delegates assembled in Ford Hall, Boston, went on record unanimously in favor of the truly Christian work of protecting wayward children, we have received annually goodly sums of money from the various courts to maintain this work and the results from the standpoint of children saved from evil lives or reclaimed have been gratifying beyond all expectation. Just one item alone will enable you to realize the extent and importance of what has been accomplished. There is now in practically every court throughout the Commonwealth a representative of Catholic interests who co-operates with the Court in the settlement of difficulties in which Catholic children are involved. I am happy to be able to say that there now exists between the courts and these representatives from the three dioceses of the state the finest sort of understanding, which is of advantage alike to the individuals concerned and to the community at large. This has all resulted in a very appreciable drop yearly in the number of Catholic children who become public charges.

In plain words, the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters is supporting a work whose purpose it is to save children from the stigma of commitment to public correctional institutions.

His Eminence, Cardinal O'Connell, values very much the substantial interest of your order in this and other charities of the Boston Archdiocese, and he is very desirous that I make known to you and through you to the delegates assembled his profound thanks for what has been done and his blessing upon your future efforts.

During the past year the Archdiocese of Boston received from 68 Courts the sum of $1,401.50. If we have any one word to add to what we have already said, it is to express the hope that as soon as possible every court throughout the state will be an annual contributor to the O'Sullivan Lawlor Fund, which makes possible a most charitable work while it perpetuates the memory of the two devoted pioneers who, through foresight and sacrifice, brought into being the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters.

Wishing the convention every success. I am, dear Mr. Forrester,

Very gratefully yours,
Michael J. Scanlan.

Corporation Counsel, Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, addressed the Convention as follows: "I have one more resolution to offer. It is a very unhappy duty because of the recollections that are centered around the person whom it concerns, and it is a sad duty because he has passed into the great beyond. I mention a name that perhaps may not mean much to most of you, and yet it is a name that will live as long as this organization endures. Today, for the first time in thirty-nine years, the delegates assembled here have failed to see submitted a report for the committee on credentials, James J. Lanigan, of Cathedral Court No. 1. For thirty-nine consecutive years, from the annual convention in 1881, at which convention he was elected to the High Standing Committee as High Financial Secretary, up to last May, he came to the convention and served on the committee on credentials as its chairman. He attended the convention prior to that—in other words, for forty-two consecutive years James J. Lanigan, one of the founders of this organization, came here to this convention, laboring earnestly, honestly, industriously and zealously for its welfare—a quiet, dignified, reserved man, a man of power, a man of influence, a man who worked while others talked. He did a great work in the beginning. It has been my pleasure always, and I shall always do it as long as I have the opportunity of speaking, to pay tribute to those men who founded the organization. We can come to Pittsfield in these days and enjoy ourselves to the fullest extent with all the comforts that modern society provides, but forty-two years ago it was not so when James J. Lanigan and his co-workers came up to North Adams to form the second court in the order. In those days there were not the comforts in traveling that are provided for us today. It is inspiring and edifying to read the records of their early deliberations. There were no personalities indulged in—there was but one prevailing thought in their minds—that they might accomplish something for their fellowmen. They wanted to produce an organization that would live, not as the High Court Chaplain said this morning, building better than they knew, because they did not build better than they knew, but they built as well as they knew how, and how well they built is evidenced by the fact that they have given us an organization that has no superior anywhere in the confines of this Commonwealth, or anywhere within the confines of this great country of ours.

"I want to submit to you for your consideration to place upon the records of this High Court an estimate which is entirely inadequate for that fearless champion of this great organization, one of the men who sacrificed for it, who labored for it down to the very end, who even died in the room in which this organization was born. This organization came into being in the back room of the shop that was kept by James J. Lanigan at the corner of Dedham Street and Harrison Avenue in Boston. On the day of his death he went into that shop in the early morning and opening the door he passed into the back room, as had been his wont for the past forty odd years. He sat down in a chair and quietly passed to his eternal reward—in the very room in which the little band of men came together night after night discussing ways and means in forming this organization. With a deep sense of personal loss of a true friend, I ask that this resolution be spread upon the records of the High Court in memory of him."

On motion of the Corporation Counsel, Hon. Joseph A. Sheehan of Cathedral Court No. 1, duly seconded, it was voted that the resolutions be adopted as read and spread upon the records of this convention.

IN MEMORIAM
JAMES J. LANIGAN
PAST HIGH FINANCIAL SECRETARY

On the twentieth day of August, 1921, Brother James J. Lanigan of Cathedral Court No. 1, was called by God to his eternal reward at the age of 66 years, eleven months and two days.

His passing takes from the Order one of its founders, who with prophetic insight gave to the Catholic people of Massachusetts an organization sublime in purpose and achievement.

Had he lived until September 17th, he would have completed forty-two years of active, devoted, self-sacrificing service as a member and a leader of our great Order.

His judgment was calm, sound and discriminating. His manner was quiet and reserved. He possessed a keen mind, and a splendid sense of justice. His advice and counsel were of immeasurable benefit on all questions affecting the welfare and progress of our Order.

As a citizen he maintained a deep interest in public affairs and was always guided by the highest civic standards inspired by his strong Catholic faith.

In the pursuit of his labors, whether the work of the Order, his business or his civic duties he always displayed the characteristics of a true Christian gentleman. He was beloved by all who knew him.

He passed away in the same quiet and peaceful manner in which he lived in the very room in which the Order came into being.

His life and work as a member of our noble Order stand as an inspiration to each member to follow in his footsteps to the end that the Order in the future may be kept great, as he so materially aided in keeping it great in the past.

Through the infinite goodness of God may perpetual light shine upon him.

Resolved that this memorial be spread upon the records of the High Court.

On motion of High Senior Conductor John J. Collins of John J. Leonard Court No. 238, duly seconded, it was voted that a vote of thanks be extended to Onota Court for the manner in which they entertained the delegates.

Brother John T. Callan of Leo Court No. 5 made the following motion, "That a vote of thanks be extended to the gentleman, who is not one of our faith, who so generously offered the use of his theatre free to the delegates, and that the High Secretary Treasurer be instructed to forward to Mr. H. Albert Ford a communication expressing our gratitude and sincere appreciation." Unanimously carried.

On motion of High Senior Conductor John J. Collins of John J. Leonard Court No. 238, duly seconded, it was voted that a rising vote of thanks be extended to the Chamber of Commerce of Pittsfield for their aid and assistance in making arrangements for our reception and entertainment, to the citizens of Pittsfield for their kindness in opening their homes and for contributing the use of their automobiles and to his Honor Mayor Michael W. Flynn, speaking for the city of Pittsfield, and Reverend Bernard S. Conaty, speaking for the clergy, for their splendid words of welcome.

On motion of Brother Edward McDermott of St. Lawrence Court No. 61, seconded by Sister Margaret L. Curry of St. Clare Court No. 106, it was voted that the gavel used at this convention be presented to our retiring High Chief Ranger.

PRESENTATION

Brother James E. O'Leary of Worcester Court No. 59, High Chief Ranger elect, in presenting the gavel to the retiring High Chief Ranger, addressed him as follows: "In presenting this gavel to you I am sure I am voicing the sentiments of my Brothers and all the members of the order present who have in their mind the splendid work that you have done for the years that you have been on the Committee and previous to that. We hope that you will keep this as a pleasant memento of this occasion. We wish you long life, and we know that as long as you live you will always have a warm place in your heart for the M. C. O. F."

Retiring High Chief Ranger Thomas F. Haley: "I want at this time to thank the members of this convention for the very pleasant duties they have performed today in assisting me in keeping their heads and their minds where they ought to be. It has really been a pleasure for me to preside over this convention and a pleasure also to be a member of this High Standing Committee for the past five years. In leaving your Committee I am leaving it as an active past member of the Committee, and always will be. I thank you."

On motion of Brother Frank D. Kodad of Benedict Court No. 39, duly seconded, it was voted that a rising vote of thanks be extended to our retiring High Chief Ranger.
